

The Oregonian.

Entered at the Postoffice at Portland, Oregon, as second-class matter.

REVENUE DISCOUNT RATES. Daily, per month...

POSTAGE RATES. United States, Canada and Mexico...

For sale in San Francisco by J. E. Lee, 235 Sutter street...

For sale in Los Angeles by W. F. Gardner, 256 South Spring street...

For sale in New York City by Hamilton & Kendrick, 909-912 Sixteenth street...

YESTERDAY'S WEATHER—Maximum temperature, 56; minimum temperature, 35...

PORTLAND, MONDAY, OCT. 5, 1903. All our states, save Vermont, New Hampshire and Delaware...

THE STATES AT ST. LOUIS. Missouri, of course, takes the lead of the states in the preparation of exhibits...

The buildings of many of the states are practically completed. Others are well advanced...

USES OF A DESIRED OBJECT. Sympathy loves to interest itself in the friendless and alone...

COLLEGE ATHLETICS. It was the picture of a well-spent day that President Campbell...

OBJECT LESSONS IN GROWTH. October is the month of grange fairs in this vicinity...

Rainfall Atrocities. Bostons Transcript. Rivers of blood and rivers of ink attest the fact that the Balkan war cloud has again to let water.

mercy enough to prevent an entirely technical point from becoming a student who is an amateur at heart...

It is the sign of mental obliquity or incapacity to impute moral qualities to inanimate objects. The savage exerts the stones upon which his foot has stumbled...

SUPPORT FOR THE CONANT PESO. The instructions cabled to General Wade, in command of the Army in the Philippines...

WHERE EUPHEMISMS FAIL. It is not the custom of high society to look with too severe an eye upon the deviations of its devotees from the straight path of sobriety and rectitude...

The burning of Chewaucan marsh, in Lake County, is a warning of the dangers that must be encountered where waste lands are rendered highly productive...

When Mining is Not a Gamble. The Ladd-Mitchell Conference is doing a great work in one of the Idaho mining districts without having attracted much attention...

Now You Know All About It. Salem Journal. The course of Portland, and the resulting prosperity of Oregon, are worthy of being studied and imitated...

Greatness Thrust Upon Them. Chicago Tribune. I know a lot of Doolites and some Dinkelspiel and Dowes...

Why Should They? New York Press. A woman who knows how to make good bread can lack a lot of brains and her family will never miss them.

Not Quite. New York Press. A girl gets as excited over going on a honeymoon as a man does going to the races.

tion, what it takes to planting a forest on orchards and vineyards and meadows and gardens...

Man's Province Invaded. Albany Democrat. The fisher will now have to give place to the hog-picking lar, and the sex has changed...

Grim Fate of the Truly Good. Tacoma Ledger. Mattoon, Ill., has a reform mayor. At present there are only 25 indictments against him...

Lost Freedom and Lucidity. Lewiston Tribune. The Portland Oregonian where it formerly discussed public matters with freedom and lucidity...

His Grave Provocation. Fairhaven Herald. It has been discovered that President Roosevelt carries a revolver. Why not?

A Good Character for Old Prob. Eugene News. Oregon weather this fall has been all anyone could ask. It gave the wheat growers fine weather for harvest...

Pierce Anti-Railroad Candidate. Walla Walla Statesman. The fact that the Senators of King County who betrayed Harold Preston last winter are now opposing Sam Pierce...

Shake No Gory Locks at Clackamas. Oregon City Courier. The President rides over the Republicans of Oregon rough shod. He and his private secretary have but little respect for a power that has in its part of the mortal vineyard...

Heaven, Do They Kick Her There? Westfall Western Waver. Mrs. Little-hawk, with several of her daughters and daughters-in-law, were purchasing supplies in Westfall last Wednesday...

Weakened in Sincerity. North Yamhill Record. Mayor Williams, of Portland, is meeting with considerable opposition to his policy of licensing violations of law in the streets...

The Cry of the Farmer. Forest Grove Times. Many farmers are putting up signs warning hunters to keep off their premises. It is a good deed of an agrarian farmer...

When Mining is Not a Gamble. Boise Statesman. The Ladd-Mitchell Conference is doing a great work in one of the Idaho mining districts without having attracted much attention...

Now You Know All About It. Salem Journal. The course of Portland, and the resulting prosperity of Oregon, are worthy of being studied and imitated...

Greatness Thrust Upon Them. Chicago Tribune. I know a lot of Doolites and some Dinkelspiel and Dowes...

Why Should They? New York Press. A woman who knows how to make good bread can lack a lot of brains and her family will never miss them.

Not Quite. New York Press. A girl gets as excited over going on a honeymoon as a man does going to the races.

THE HANNA TESTIMONIALS. New York Sun. We have been favored with an advance copy of the special campaign edition of the Cyclone-Republican...

NOTE AND COMMENT. The beautiful method of persuasion adopted by the Cyclone-Republican is frankly crude...

It gives me great pleasure to say that Senator Hanna is one of the most valuable members of the Ohio state government...

Senator Mitchell, of Oregon—He is a man of comprehensive view and of real statesmanship. Senator Fulton, of Oregon—His retirement would be a distinct public loss...

Senator Scott, of West Virginia—He is honest, he is truthful, he is charitable. Senator McCormac, of Maryland—No one cares better for the poor than he...

Senator Burrows, of Michigan—His return to the Senate ought to be beyond all question. Senator Fairbanks, of Indiana—His return to the senate will be hailed with the utmost satisfaction throughout the country...

Senator Perkins, of California—An honest, able, broad-minded, public-spirited citizen. Senator Galloway, of New Hampshire—His knowledge of men and measures is immensely helpful in matters of legislation...

Senator Dietrich, of Nebraska—Extraordinary energy and honesty of purpose. Senator Foster, of Washington—He has the distinguished ability of being able to judge the importance of men and of National measures...

It seems to have occurred to only one member of the Senate to mention what I am undoubtedly Mr. Hanna's greatest title to public gratitude...

It is not the easiest thing in the world to write on sudden demand a testimonial that shall be effective without being fulsome...

No doubt their friendly opinions, as circulated through Ohio from the presses of the Cyclone-Republican, will weigh more clearly in the minds of the voters...

Martineau's Independence. Mrs. Humphrey Ward in the Critic. Martineau's whole life and activity were a witness to liberty in this sense—the liberty of the spirit, coerced by no external force...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

Penuts as a cure for insomnia have received the sanction of the Department of Agriculture...

PLEASANTIES OF PARAGRAPHERS. Nagsby—"What brand of tea is the leader with Sir Thomas Lipton? Wagsby—From the man's behavior I should think it was g-r-T.—Baltimore American...

"So you wouldn't kiss a pup, would you, Miss Smith?" "Oh, yes, my dear (editorial wags on him); but I should wish to choose the pup you decided."—Houston Post.

"The more trouble some people have the more they are attending to their affairs. They want to borrow." "No, the more money they want to borrow."—Kansas City Journal.

Willie—"Pa, you don't get chertouts until after the front do you?" "Except in the case of a face-comedy, my son, the chertouts come first, and the front afterward."—Philadelphia Press.

"That sofa waltzes, must go," said the landlady of the select boarding-house. "What has she done?" "Why, when she was to ask the guests if they would have tea or coffee, she said, 'Mama, yer drink order.'"—Chicago Record-Herald.

"Why should I give this man a position?" said the Sultan of Turkey. "Because he may be very useful." "Oh, no, my son," answered the Grand Vizier. "He knows how to say 'Yes' in every modern language."—Washington Star.

Hardrup—"My wife is sick, doctor. What will you charge for attending her?" Physician: "Three dollars a visit. Hardrup—Well—we don't care to entertain visitors. Couldn't you make it a ten-minute call for a dollar?"—Chicago News.

The new boarder had been three weeks in the house. "It is usual," said the landlady with great delicacy, "for my lodgers to pay as they go." "Oh, but what all right?" he replied. "I don't go for a long time."—San Francisco Wasp.

"It is hard luck," said one of Job's comforters. "What is your latest suggestion?" "The latest suggestion is that you had better have a few extra larders which might have a fortune writing testimonials for proprietary medicines."—Washington Star.

Quarrel (turning his suit)—I know I'm dreadfully poor, but wealth isn't necessary to happiness. The love that makes the world go round. Evangelize—I know it, Gabriel; but think of the economy! It would take to make $11 a week go round.—Chicago Tribune.

Goodard—Here's a brand-new $5 bill, old man. I'll lend you that. Borough—Oh, say; can't you double it? Goodard—Sure. Here goes. Double it—now I double it again. Thus, in this shape, you see, it fits snugly in my pocket-book. So long!—Philadelphia Press.

"Why didn't you follow?" "Stand by to get off!" "Ay, ay, ay, sir." "All clear!" "Lower away, now!" It might have been a dialogue on board a cup yacht, but it wasn't. No, dear reader, it was the cook and the landlady navigating the dumbstruck—Newark News.

Village Druggist—I understand the church committee has decided to raise your salary. Village Parson—Well, I hope it isn't true. Village Druggist—Well, man, are you crazy? Village Parson—No; but I will be if I have to collect a larger salary. I have trouble enough collecting the small salary they pay me now.—Chicago News.

"Hello, Jones!" said the exaltable little man in the crowd. If you should see my wife, tell her I'll be back here in half an hour, will you? "But, protested Jones, 'I don't know your wife.'" "Oh, well, all right," he replied, to stand upon ceremony. Just deliver the message and I'll give you a formal introduction to her later.—Philadelphia Press.

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...

And while in his own spiritual life he is the prisoner of conscience only, he will have no compromise in action. As a young man, ministering to a Presbyterian church...