RANCHER SURPRISES SLEEPER

Believed to Be One of Gang That Has Threatened Destruction on Northern Pacific Road-Reward Offer Increased.

HELENA, Mont., Oct. 8 -- (Special.)-The Northern Pacific detectives, now making Helena their headquarters, have received word that two sacks of dynamite were found Tuesday night near Townsend. The powder was found by Nick Rovig, a ranchman who lives six mlies west of Townsend, and whose place is on the line of the railroad. Four days ago Rovig drove to the stack after a load of hay. Arriving there he found seleep a man who awoke at his approach. The man said nothing, but mounted his horse and rode off. The horse looked jaded. Mr. Rovig thought from its appearance it had been ridden a long

The powder was secured and placed in place. It was thought to be part of that stolen from the powder-house of the A. M. Boiter Company three weeks ago. Rovig was able to give a description of the man who was found asleep at the haystack, and the officers and detectives all along the line have been furnished it. The finding of the powder is considered D. D., of Independence, fortunate as the officers believe that the blackmailers intended to use all or part of its report, which was adopted, and adit near the point at which it was con-cealed. Unless the dynamiters have been able to replenish their stock of explosives recently they are now about out of pow-der. Extraordinary precautions have been taken to prevent them securing additional supplies. Powder-houses are being watched and all stores seiling explosives are on the lookout for men who make inquiries concerning powder.

The Northern Pacific Railroad Company has increased the reward it offered for the arrest and conviction of the blackmailers from $2500 to $5000. The state has offered $5000 reward and Park County $500 reward for the capture of the miscreants. Dan Glimore, an inmate of the County Ou Poor Farm at Butte, found a stick of cur dynamite on the Northern Pacific tracks H. near Butte this morning. A fuse and caps were attached. The stick of dynamite was about a foot long. One end had been partially burned. Expert miners familia: say that an attempt had evidently been made to fire it, but that for some reason the powder had falled to explode.

PUBLICITY FOR PETITIONS Attempts to Have Convicts Pardoned Should Be Made Openly.

WESTFALL, Or., Oct. 3 -- (To Editor.)-We have just learned that the Balley brothers have been pardoned out of the Oregon penitentlary after serving 11 years of a life sentence for committing one of the most unprovoked and coldpresented to the Governor, signed by a majority of the legal voters of Malheur County.

It has been stated that these two young penitentiary at Salem for killing a man at a dance at Vale, the county seat of Malheur. This is entirely wrong. William Humbert, the young man the Bailey boys assassinated, was on his way home from the polls, where he had been to attend the primaries, and was shot down within sight of his own door, and in plain sight of his wife and children. I have regided here for M years, and know whereof I speak. I also was a juror at the Coroner's inquest. It was proved by the evidence produced before the Coroner's jury, the grand jury and the trial jury in the Circuit Court of this county, that the crime was one of the most unpro-voked, premeditated and cold-blooded murders ever committed in this state. This is the way it happened: The Bailey boys had been at the Democratic primary trying to run things in the interest of cer tain disreputable politicians who then running our county affairs for own private benefit, and had furnished the Balley boys five gallors of whisky to use at the polls. During the day the Balley boys had some trifling dispute with Humbert and others of no importance what-ever. Humbert mounted his horse after purchasing a few supplies to take home to his family. Soon after his departure, the two Balley boys, being somewhat the worse for whisky, mounted their horses and rode to overtake Humbert, swearing that they would kill him. On the way they stopped at a farmhouse and in-quired if Humbert had passed. Being answered in the affirmative they swore ASTORIA, Or., Oct. 8.—United States Bank Examiner Archie Johnson today on sight. They overtook poor Humbert completed an examination of Astoria's and shot him off his pony in plain sight of his family; then returned and stopped at the same farmhouse, Joe Randleman, and told the owner that they had killed the —, beasting that they had shot him three times before he struck the ground. They told Randleman that if he informed any one they would kill him also. When Humbert's hody was examined nothing was found in the shape of a weapon, not even a pocket knife. The post mortem examination disclosed four shot wounds. all through the back, any any one of them would have proved mortal. Three holes had been made by a 44-callber and one by a 28-caliber pistol, corresponding precisely with the pistols the Bailey boys carried. The Baileys were arrested, along with three more young men as accomplices, and tried before an impartial jury and duly and justly convicted of murder in the second degree. The verdict was a surprise to the law-abiding portion of this community, for it should have been murder in the first degree, according to the evidence presented to the jury. There was not one single extenuating circumstance connected with the murder. Hum-man, who would not harm anything willingly, and worked hard at honest labor, to support his young family. It was a most cowardly and cruel murder, and the Bailey boys, if they had got their just dues, would have explated their dastardly rime on the gallows. That is about the sum and substance of this case. Now, where does it appear that the Bailey boys should have been par-doned after serving only a small portion of their sentence, and be turned loose, to be a menace to life and property Great stress has been laid upon the fac that the young men tmonsters they are) have served II years at hard labor in the penitentiary, whereas they really ought to have been hanged. But nothing is said of poor, innocent Humbert, who was cruelly murdered in the flower of his life, and has filled a cold and lonely grave on and has filled a cold and lonely grave or a bleak hill in the cemetery near West-fall, or of his poor children who have been cast out upon the world to live as best they may, and, but for kind-hearted friends might have fared badly.

Now, since the news of the pardon has reached us, I have made diligent inquiry among the taxpayers of this section, but have failed so far to find one who admits having seen, or signed, that petition. Some time ago it was rumored that one Bob Blalock, who had just re-turned from Salem, after serving a term in the Oregon penitentiary for horsestealing, was circulating about the saloons through this section a petition asking our Governor to pardon the Balley boys. The better class of citizens paid no attention to it, however, concluding that it would have no weight with our Governor. We can hardly understand why the then act-ing Prosecuting Attorney, C. Hyde, should indorse such a petition, after so vigorous-ly prosecuting the Baileys. What caused him so to change his opinion in this case? Let him come out and tell this community the reason. We know, Charley, that you are a little vacilating at times, but we fild not believe you to be so bad. Just such cases as this make an outraged community look to Judge Lynch for justice. It is the unanimous epinion of the law-abiding people of this county that all petitions which the Covernor to marden convicts. asking the Governor to pardon convicts who have been proved guilty of commit-ting belnous crimes, should be published or more of the leading newspapers of this state; before action can be taken by the pardoning power. This would enby the pardoning power. able the community at large to present a remonstrance, where, in the opinion of the majority of the taxpayers of a community, the crime committed should not allow of pardon. And it would also guard our Governor from being imposed upon fictitious or irresponsible petitioners.

Colonization Scheme of Christians Is Contrary to the Bible.

EUGENE, Or., Oct. 7.—(To the Editor.)
That colonization scheme of Rev. H. S. Wallace, as outlined in yesterday's paper, looks pretty there. Heaven is beau-tifully portrayed in sacred writ. Tears are not to be known, or sorrow, or pain, or fear. All ways are to be beautifully lighted. The unrighteous are to have no place in that delightful city celestial. Our song books are replete with descriptive poetry and note harmony of the "Beulah

We may have a glorious vision por trayed as a possibility by the maneuv-ering of millions of capital. But comes this habitation in its reality in this way? It may work a benefit to many of our poor who are homeseekers and desire these equal conditions per force. Social-ism has beautiful visions. Their impracticability, by the naturally unequal con-ditions of the dear people is the "if" in the way of the perfecting of these schemes. It is hard to get a common straight-jacket for everybody. This is the attempt of the colonist. To suit them every star should shine with the same brilliance: it would rain no place too much, and every place would have enough; each mountain would be as high as the other, and each valley of like breadth and fertility; no desert would exist, and so no oasis. Should Mr. Wallace succeed and paradise become real in that part of the Willamette Valley, while the unconverted are without, the very basis of the £5,000,000 structure would weaken upon the advance of the covetous. The scheme is the very reverse of the declared policy of the Lord and, therefore, as long as remains his command to his subjects, "Go into all the world," it cannot to parallel, but will conflict.

As sait is distributed in and through that which it would save, so Christ or oditined his disciples to be the sait of the earth. And instead of commanding them to withdraw to themselves, He said "Go" is many and conductor of the valuables, took possession of the car and after robbing the moto withdraw to themselves, He said "Go" is many and conductor of the valuables, took possession of the car and after robbing the moto withdraw to themselves, He said "Go" is many and conductor of the valuables, took possession of the car and after robbing the moto withdraw to themselves, He said "Go" is many and conductor of the valuables, took possession of the car and fair it to withdraw to themselves, He said "Go" is many and conductor of the valuables, took possession of the car and instead of commanding them to withdraw to themselves, He said "Go" is many and conductor of the valuables, Cascade Huntson, Happes Huntson, Happes United that Gonale Labelar Tillman say on several locations that he declared his declared his and made Till.

The said many forms and find the same that he had made Till.

The scheme is the very reverse of the declared policy of the Lord and, therefore, and many the would save, so Christ ordained the policemen and two policemen the three highwaymen held up the policeme straight-jacket for everybody. This is the attempt of the colonist. To suit them been a success for this very reason. We have an instance at Scott's Mills and Newberg where the Friends have tried by olonization to control everything.

And again the work of Elijah II, "Let both grow together until the harvest at the end of the world," is the benign pur-pose of Christ, that the world may blooded murders ever perpetrated in this state. It seems that the pardon was granted upon the strength of a petition of the good will of the Father in distributing blessings of rain, sunshine and fruit-ful seasons on all classes said, "Be ye, therefore, (in this respect), perfect even as your Father in heaven."

Discrimination belonged to the Jewish doctrine for a time, keeping them to them-selves for the great purpose of God fulfilled in Christ as a world's savior. God's purpose would no more be fulfilled in separating Christians to themselves now than it would have been to scatter the Hebrews among all the nations be-fore Christ. God's promise to the Hebrew fathers and confirmed to David of one descending from the loins could not have been fulfilled by mixing of blood. Now the world by commingling with all peoples.

TALE OF A SUCKER.

Alluring Baits, and What Happens When You Bite 'Em.

DALLAS, Or., Oct. 5 .- (To the Editor.)-I read in The Oregonian of September 25, with considerable interest the experience of Mrs. Effic Brandt with letter copying firms.

Last Winter I saw an ad of like character and my health being poor I thought here was a chance to make a little fortune, as I am quick with a pen. I re-ceived a circular, etc., word for word as did Mrs. Brandt, although from a firm in the East. I sent my money and upon receipt of instructions, found I had got to swindle somebody else before I got my 26 cents. I wrote the firm saying unless my money was promptly returned I would expose them through the press, and they returned the cash and wrote me I was one of the smart kind and didn't know a good thing when offered me.

All the cheap story papers are filled with ads of a like craracter, and 29 per cent of them are frauds. There is another ad running in a great many papers, I would warn people against, which reads like this: Wanted—Men everywhere; good pay; to distribute circulars, adv. matter, tack signs, etc. No canvassing.

Not being satisfied with my letter copying experience I wrote a Chicago firm who answered me that upon receipt of $2 they would enroll me upon their staff of workers, send me a life certificate, and supply me with all the work I could do. I thought this was a fair deal. I sent my money and received a beautiful certificate, etc. They further wrote that to give the business a business-like look it was really necessary to have their printed station-ery and letters of introduction to business firms, and I was foolish enough to send $5 for the stationery, which I re-ceived promptly. Result: I have not re-ceived one cent's worth of work from any source, and I think the less one has bert was known in the community as a quiet, inoffensive and peaceable young to do with such ads the better

The appointments and furnishings of the Washington are entirely modern and high-class; the cuisine and service most satisfactory. The rates are exceedingly reasonable for a fashionable tourist hotel. This magnificent Tourist Hotel is
