BICTCLE THIEF ARRESTED -Fred Gale, 16 years old, who says that he is a sallor, was arrested yesterday by Detectives Kerrigan and Snow, charged with stealing Kerrigan and Snow, charged with stealing a bicycle, the property of George Caswell, from the Falling building. Caswell reported the theft of his bicycle to the police when the affair occurred, and the detectives from the first suspected that Gale was to blame. They found out that he had been hanging around the messenger boys at Third and Stark streets, and one little boy said that Gale had made a proplittle boy said that Gale had made a proposition to him to see about getting into a store on the East Side, but the offer was refused. Yesterday, the detectives lo-cated Caswell's bicycle in a Third-street pawnbroker's shop, and Gale was arrested shortly afterward at Third and Davis streets, charged with being the boy who placed the machine with the pawabroker. some time past, bicycles have been appearing by the wholesale from disappearing by the wholesale from various bicycle racks in town. One business man lost two bicycles within a few days, but he recovered one of the machines, Rencently, Captain J. W. Riley's 4-year-old bicycle was stolen, and Captain Riley thinks a man who is mean enough to steal a 4-year-old is mean enough to steal anything.

THIRVES MILK COWS.-W. T. Barney, an attorney who lives at Fulton, suffers from an exasperating form of petty theft. Some person habitually milks his cows and departs with the milk. Mr. Barney has two very fine cows and frequently of late they have been found entirely dry in the morning, some early milker having obtained their product. Several house-keepers in this vicinity also complain that the milk left by the milkman has been stolen. One woman heard the thief on his third visit. She opened the door and saw a man going down the steps drinking the milk as he went. When he saw the woman he threw the pan away and ran. The policeman on this beat suspects some oplum fiends who sleep in the neighborhood.

ENGINE AND CAR COLLIDE.-The terminal yards of the Northern Pacific were the scene of a bad smash-up during the early hours of yesterday morning, when a Southern Pacific engine smashed into a boxcar that was standing too near the main track on a switch. The engine lost the entire left side of its cab and the tender was turned over, while the car was thrown on its side and the contents, consisting of boxes of merchandise, piled in chaotic heaps. No one was injured. A force of men was busy all day repairing the track and clearing away the wreck-

PORTLAND HAS RIVER OF ITS OWN .- A letter was received yesterday by the local Chamber of Commerce from the Commeratat Club of New Orleans, asking that Portland send a delegation to attend the meeting of the Interstate Mississippi River Improvement Association to be held in Improvement Association to be held in New Orleans, October 29 next. The invi-tation is duly appreciated by the Port-land Chamber of Commerce, but, as Ore-gon has no special interest in the im-provement of the Mississippi River, it is not likely that any delegates will be not likely that any delegates will be sent

FIRE IN ASPHALT WORKS.-Fire broke out yesterday morning shortly after o'clock in the sand hopper of the Trinida o'clock in the sand hopper of the Trindad Asphalt Works, on East Second and East Claystreets, and about $300 of damage was done before the blaze was extinguished. The fire was in the upper part of the works, and the firemen to reach it had to chop a hole in the corrugated iron roof. A watchman turned in the alarm.

FOOL-KILLER IS NEEDED .- A telephone message from the Mikado rooming-house, Sixth and Stark streets, stating that a blaze was in progress, reached fire head-quarters early yesterday morning, but when the firemen arrived they could not find any fire. Now the police are trying to discover the joker.

MUST HAVE PERMIT TO BLAST,-In order to use biasting powder inside of the city limits it will be necessary, hereafter, to secure a formal permit from the City En-An ordinance to this effect was gineer. An ordinance to this effect was signed by Mayor Williams yesterday and went into effect immediately. The new ordinance provides that it shall be unlawful for any person to explode, or cause to be exploded, any gunpowder, dynamite, guncotton or other explosives for the purpose of blasting rock, gravel, earth, or other substance. Any infraction of the new law will be punishable by a fine of not less than $5 or more than $500, or by imprisonment from ten to 100 days. In order to secure a blasting permit it is required by the ordinance that the applicant make affidavit as to the point where the blasting is to be done, and give an indemnity bond of $1000, or such amount as may be deemed necessary to protect the city or property-owners from damage. Power is given the City Engi-neer to refuse to issue a permit if, in his judgment, life or property is endangered. MOUNTAIN CLIMBERS TO MEET.-Magamas will hold their tenth annual meeting Mon-day evening, October 19, at the City Hall. The mountain climbers will elect officers for the ensuing year and will discuss their next Summer's outing. The proposal to reduce the annual dues from $3 to $3 will be voted on. Last Summer the trip to the Three Sisters was abandoned by the club, but an independent party of half a dozen members scaled the peaks and deposited copper boxes on the summit. The present officers of the club are: President, Rodney L. Glisan; vice-presidents, Dr. Roland D. Grant, of Vancouver, B. C.; E. T. Parsons, of San Francisco; Mrs. John Cran, of Portland, and Miss B. G. Merof New York; historian, Professor W. D. Lyman, of Whitman College, Walla Walla, Wash.; recording secretary, W. R.

Mackenzie; corresponding secretary, Martin W. Gorman; financial secretary, A. S. Patullo; treasurer, W. S. Brewster, No FIRE ENGINE NEAR DEPOT .- Fire Chief Campbell is urging the installation of an engine company in the vicinity of the Union Depot in view of the many new buildings that have sprung up in that vicinity during the past two years. Orders having already been sent for another fire engine, the chief favors recruiting a skeleton company, and placing the new engine, together with a hose cart and other apparatus, near Seventh and Hoyt streets. His views are favored by the members of the fire committee of the Executive Board, who held a meeting yes-terday afternoon for the purpose of discussing some routine matters. At present the nearest engine company is more than a mile from the depot, where there are nany large and valuable buildings as well as many frame structures that would prove very susceptible to fire. The matter is to be brought up before the Executive Board in the near future.

HURRIED HIM OFF TO JAIL-G. R. Masson complained to Chief Hunt yesterday that two officers of the police department, Officers Reising and Carpenter, mistook him recently for a man wanted by the Astoria police and lodged him in jail, keeping him there until the mistake was discovered, without giving him any oppor-tunity to establish his identity. Masson, who is a foreman of the Northwestern Construction Company, was requested by the Chief to meet with him at the Police Station yesterday afternoon, and confront the officers with the charge. However, he failed to keep the appointment and the complaint will now be dropped.

COUNCILMAN SHARKEY EXPRESSED NO Views.—Councilman Sharkey, who was credited with having been a party to the framing of a proposed resolution com-mending the Mayor upon his stand in re-lation to gambling, states that he had nothing to do with any such resolution and has taken no part whatever in any movement toward that end. He states that he has not expressed any views what ever on the matter, nor has he advocated the adoption of any course by the The error arose from the fact that Mr. Sharkey's name was confused with that of another Councilman's.

No INQUEST NECESSARY.-Coroner Finley has decided that no inquest will be neces-sary in the case of Henry Yager, the young man killed by a switch engine in the terminal yards Monday afternoon. After looking into the facts in the case the Coroner decided that the killing was purely accidental. At the time Yager and Henry Spreger, who was badly injured, were placing bolts, and as the rain was falling in torrents they did not see the approaching engine until it struck them.

WANTED DY CLARK COUNTY.-W. A. Hiltz, wanted in Clark County, Washington, on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, was arrested yes-terday forenoon by Police Sergeant Hoge-boom. The arrest was made at the request of the Clark County Sheriff, who wired the Portiand police a brief descrip-tion of the man. It was upon this description that the fellow was picked up. He will be held pending the arrival of an officer to get charge of him.

An audience that crowded the Marquam Theater last night in every part witness a fine production by Louis James and Frederick Warde and their well-selected company in the new play, "Alexander the Great," written by Rupert Hughes and Collin Kemper, with magnificent scenery from the brush of Alexander Corbett. No play presented here for a considerable time has such wealth of scenery or beauti-ful stage pictures. The only incident missing from the usual Warde and James programme was that Mr. Warde did not make his accustomed speech before the curtain. Toward the end of the performance the gallery worked itself into a state of frantic endeavor to hear from their favorite, but Mr. Warde did not respond There were about eight curtain recalls in all, and the play certainly pleased the

"Alexander the Great" has almost the flavor of Shakespeare, and yet it has not. It was first produced at Grand Rapids, Mich., August 31, and with the course of empire has rolled westward. The authors have written a production that takes care of Mr. James and Mr. Warde principally, and with their parts left out there would not be much left. History tells us that Alexander the Great reigned 13 years, and died before he had attained the age of 23, from drukkeness. Mr. James contains from drunkenness. Mr. James certainly makes a somewhat too robust Alexander in the first act of the play, when he portrays the Prince in love with Roxana, an Exyptian Princess. The dramatists give him a much more pleasant and swifter death than do the historians—he expires almost painlessly in his Roxana's arms, by drinking poisoned wine. The central thread of the narrative is his pure, fer-vent love of the Egyptian maiden whom he afterward makes his wife. There is a constant air of tragedy in the production. In the first act King Philip is fatally stabbed in the back by an assassin hired by Perdiccas, the Prime Minister (Mr. Warde), and for ever afterward Perdiccas is so much in love with his success in that line that he ceaselessly plots to kill Alex ander. By a strange mischance he stumbles across Roxana, who has disguised herself as a boy in order that she may fol-low Alexander and his army, and proposes that she kill her lover.

Roxana, played by Margaret Bourne, is one of the brightest, most lasting char-acters in the production. Miss Bourne, who has played with E. H. Sothern, Henry Miller and others, is practically a stranger in the West, but she is a gifted and com-petent leading lady. She has a sweet, mellifluous voice. The scene "On the Mountain Tops" is thrilling in spectacular effect and presents the best imitation of a snow storm ever seen here. No falling pa-per is used to litter up the stage. A calcium light effect is used instead, from lamps working from the balcony and operating by electricity. It is a most clever and up-to-date picture. The game of football at Corvallia, October 17.

cenery in the last act is particularly beautiful, illustrating a banquet tent in Babylonia, where Alexander is polsoned by Queen Dowager Cleopatra, leaving the conspirator, Perdiceas, victor at last, The finale should be much stronger. Norman Hackett, one of the most clever of our younger actors, was the Clitus, and came in for his share of the applause. "Alexander the Great" is a stirring, barbaric picture and worth seeing. It will be the attraction at the Marquam tonight and tomorrow night, with matinee tomorrow af-

Powerful Plays at the Baker. Both the woman's side and the man's side have secured many a champion in the case of "Mrs. Dane's Defense," now being so effectively given by the great Nelli-Morosco Company at the Baker Theater before packed audiquees. "The Lost Paradise." the most powerful play ever written depicting the capital and labor phase of daily life, will be given next week, beginning with a Sunday matinee. This great play is from the pen of Henry C. DeMille, and treats both the capital and labor interests in a most unbiased and telling manner.

What Makes Vaudeville Popular, Every entertaining feature that make vaudeville the popular amusement it is today is to be found on the programme of the Empire Theater this week. Excellent singing by the Fenz Bros., pretty dancing by Cross and Holden, ludicrous acrobatic work by Spaulding, dainty steps and songs by the child actress, Mabel Gliman, and feature acts by Austin. the wire-walker, and Clive, the conjurer are merely some of the many interesting turns that go toward making the throngs of Empire patrons merry this week. The prices at this popular theater place two ours' amusement within the reach of all. Prices, 30, 29 and 10 cents.

Regarding Sunday Matinees. "Down Mobile" will continue to be the attraction at Cordray's Theater tonight, at the matinee tomorrow afternoon, tomor row night, and will be presented for the last time Sunday afternoon. Owing to the fact that no train arrives here from Seatthe in time for a Sunday matinee perform-ance, hereafter, whenever possible, the preceding show will be held over for a Sunday matinee at Cordray's Theater.
