ROBERTS IS CUILTY

Police Committee Suspends Him for Three Months,

CLEARS CHIEF HUNT

It Reports That Accused Policema Disobeyed Chief's Orders-Executive Board Adopts Report Without Debate.

Three months' suspension from the po-lice force is the punishment inflicted by the police committee upon Special Of-ficer Jack Roberts, charged with collect-ng money from illicit sources. At the meeting of the Executive Board yesterday the police committee, composed of General C. F. Beebe and Sig Sichel, presented the report upon the investiga-tion, which closed two weeks ago. The report was read by City Auditor Devlin,

"To the Mayor and the Executive Board of the City of Portland: "Gentlemen: Your committee on police having in charge the investigation of the charges against Special Officer John R. Roberts, beg leave to report that the committee has thoroughly examined into such charges and found that Special Of-ficer Roberts was shown to have dis-obeyed orders of the Chief of Police, and nd that he be suspended for a period of three months.

"CHARLES F. BEEBE,

"SIG SICHELA"
Stlence reigned when the report was concluded. No one wanted to say any-thing first, for all wanted to see what others thought of the decision.

Mayor Williams broke the ice.

"If there are no objections the report will be adopted," he said, and not an objection could be heard.

The report of the police committee has been long delayed through the time re-been long delayed through the time re-quired to transcribe the stenographic notes of the two sessions, one of three hours' length, which the investigation consumed. This work was completed this week and the members of the police committee met with Mayor Williams and pri-vately decided upon the decision. Though the decision does not entirely back up the charges, it shows conclu-nively that they were not without founda-tion, and that the evidence revealed at the investigation could not be sidetracked by the police committee. Roberts has had a North End beat as special officer, and the charge made was to the effect that he had regularly collected money from fallen women and saloonkeepers for unlawful privileges.

FAREWELL TO ITS PASTOR Trinity Methodist Church Gives Reception to Dr. and Mrs. Thompson,

Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, East Tenth and East Grant streets, ten-fered the retiring pastor and wife. Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Thompson, a farewell reception in the church Thursday evening. They will leave next week for their new field at Lebanon, where Dr. Thompson has been appointed pastor for the ensuing year. Mrs. N. Townsend was in charge of the programme, and after a musical selection, J. O. Goltra spoke for the thurch, expressing regret at the departure of Dr. Thompson and wife, and wishing them a prosperous year in their new field. Samuel Morrow spoke for the Sunday school in the same spirit, and closed by presenting Mrs. Thompson with a well-filled purse as a token of the esteem in she is held. Dr. Thompson then responded in a short talk, thanking the congregation for the kindnesses of the year. He also commended the incoming pastor, Rev. Mr. Oberg, of Astoria, who, he said, was an able minister, Dr. Thompson remarked that his pastorate had been pleasant and he hoped profitable. Refreshments were then served in the parlors of the church.

Pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, Transferred to Leb-

Dr. Thompson came from Dayton.

Wash., two years and four months ago. At the close of the present year the quarterly conference passed resolutions asking that he be returned to Trinity, but they were never presented to the bishop, as Dr. Thompson held them in his pooket. Had they gone to the bishop, he would probably have been sent back, but it was the judgment or Dr. Thompson that a change would be a good thing. Lebanon charge has secured an able preacher. Dr. Thompson received his education in the Northwestern University, the Puget Sound and Portland universities, having the titles of dector of divinity, master of arts and dector of philosophy. He is a clear, and doctor of philosophy. He is a clear, independent reasoner and vigorous speak-er. He will occupy the pulpit of Trinity cr. He will occupy the pulpit of Trinity Church today for the last time, and Mr. Oberg will be here the following Sunday

ZION CONFERENCE ENDS. Debate on Temperance and Election of National Delegates.

After the usual devotional exercises, the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Confer-ence opened its third day yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. The principal address of the day was that of Rev. Dr. S. D. Mahoney, who reported on the work of the Anti-Saloon League. He handled the subject well, and denounced the saloon evil in no measured terms. He was warmly indormed by all present being championed by Rev. J. C. Taylor, who in turn was replied to by Presiding Elder, I'. Brown with one of his characteristic

Visiting pastors were introduced to the bishop and among those who addressed the conference were: Rev. Mr. Drew, of the Friends Church; Rev. C. C. Laws, of the Baptist, and Rev. A. Marchion. Rev. R. Vernon, Zion's evangelist in Oregon, made his report, as did Rev. C. B. F. Moore, of the Portland Church. During the afternoon theological students were examined by committees on first, second, third and fourth year studies. Reports of "state of our country," "admission of applicants," and "temperance" committees all proved interesting and instructive. The petition of the San Francisco churches for the return of Rev. T. Brown as presiding elder, was presented, and delegates elected to represent this conference at the general conference at St. Louis in May, 1904. Revs. T. Brown, M. W. Bynum and S. W. Hawkins were selected as delegates, and Rev. El Cooper as lay delegate. The general conference is to be petitioned for the return of Bishop Clinton as a resident

The conference adjourned at 2:30 P. M. and the Woman's Missionary Society held a special meeting at 4 o'clock, presided over by Mrs. K. Gray, At 8 last night Rev. J. C. Taylor, of San Francisco,

LAWYERS FOR THE FAIR Executive Committee Makes Choice -Harriman Lines Will Advertise,

At a meeting of the executive commit-tee of the board of directors of the Lewis and Clark Corporation, held resterday, Gammons & Maiarkey, lawyers, Chamber of Commerce, were appointed general counsel for the corporation. The action of the publicity committee, which recently decided against the starting of an official helicity to chronicle the progress of the bulletin to chronicle the progress of the Fair, was approved.

George M. McKinney, head of the immigration bureau of the Harriman lines, called on Secretary Reed yesterday and stated that the interests he represents are willing to co-operate in advertising the Centennial, particularly in connection with the Exposition to be opened at St. Louis. It is estimated that before long 5,000,000 pieces of literature will be dis-tributed advertising the Lewis and Clark Pair. Of this quantity, 2,009,000 pieces of literature will be taken by the Harriman lines. Every county in Oregon will contribute its quota of advertising before long for the purpose of distribution, funds for this work having recently been appropriated by the Legislature.

A SPLENDID RECORD. Ten Years in the Tailoring Business, and Not One Misfit,

You ask why this remarkable showing waistcoats and trousers? Because we abwaistreats and trousers: because we an-solutely refuse to employ any but first-class tailors in our establishment. Our Mr. Benson is a graduate of the best school for cutting in the East. Experience has taught us and our patrons to place implicit confidence in his ability as a cutter and we will positively guarantee that every garment purchased from us will be perfect in fit and workmanship. BITTEN BY TARANTULA. Sunnyside Merchant Finds One in Bunch of Bananas.

Meier & Frank Company

James H. Yates, of the firm of Yates & Raymond, Sunnyside, living at No. 120 East Thirty-third street, was bitten by a tarantula Friday, and but for the prompt attendance of Dr. J. A. Pettit, might have had a serious time. A large bunch of bananas had been received at the store and when Mr. Yates thrust his right hand in the bunch be felt a sharp pain. The tarantula had bitten the index inger savagely.

Mr. Yntes realized that no time was to be lost, and hastened to the office of Dr. Pettit, who opened the finger where the puncture had been made and saturated the parts with carboilc acid and then carefully dressed the finger. Yester-day Dr. Pettit again dressed the finger. He reported that Mr. Yates was getting along in a satisfactory manner, due to the prompt treatment with solution of carbolic acid, which neutralized the poison from the sting of the reptile. Tarantulas are very frequently found on bunches of bananas.

Mr. Mahone will occupy the pulpit in the evening, both speaking on the anti-saloen question. It is understood that an Anti-Saloen League will be organized. Rev. C. A.
