NEW WAY TO CATCH DEER.—I. McGowan and George G. Royer with J. Hill, who lives near Montavilla, went out to the headwaters of the Clackamas River about a week ago on a hunting and fishing expedition. Mr. Hill was not an experienced hunter, but the other two men are old hunters. Mr. Hill started out early next morning after having in camp. He carried a combination gun, one barrel carrying a bullet and the other buckshot. Mr. Hill had scarcely gone a quarter of a mile from camp when a big buck jumped up and made a dash for the brush, making a great noise. Hill had a chance to make a fine shot, but he thought the buck was camping for him, and started to run. He was nearly sprinted at a great rate into camp, where he told McGowan and Royer of his narrow escape. Hill said that he would go back next day and kill that buck sure. Mr. Royer said to Mr. Hill: "I will tell you how you can get that buck sure. You take some of the salt and when the buck comes back in the morning, you throw some on his trail. He will stop to lick the salt, and then you can get him." Unfortunately Mr. Hill discovered that salt had been forgotten and he was not able to try the experiment.

AYON HUNT FROTH OF HIS CITY.—Gilbert Hunt, Mayor of Walla Walla, is in the city inspecting the fire apparatus of the Portland department and getting ideas to use at Walla Walla. Mayor Hunt has been conferring with Chief Campbell about models of fire engines. The city of Walla Walla is about to buy a large "steamer." Mr. Hunt says that the country surrounding Walla Walla is very prosperous and that the influence of recent rains. Alfalfa hay is $12 a ton and farmers cut seven tons to the acre. "Talk about farmers grubbing," said he, "and finished the sentence with a deprecatory gesture as if he hadn't heard of a single grumble. The visitor is very proud of Walla Walla's reputation as being the biggest agricultural city in the Northwest. "We have a country prolific in resources tributary to Walla Walla," said he, "and some day we shall have a city of 75,000 people." Mr. Hunt remarked that the carload of green Italian prunes shipped to Europe some time ago from the Blacklock orchard reached its destination in the shape.

CLACKAMAS COUNTY POMONA MEETING.—Clackamas County Pomona, Patrons of Husbandry, was held last week at Mollala Grange Hall, about 300 Grangers being present from all parts of Clackamas County. Reports were given showing that 15 Granges were in a flourishing condition. At noon a great feast was spread in the dining hall. Resolutions were passed expressing the hope that the Pomona convention will sustain the referendum law. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Master, William Greshenwiler; overseer, J. W. Thomas; lecturer, George Winkman; steward, William Beard; assistant steward, H. Glover; chaplain, O. A. Eaton; treasurer, T. L. Turner; secretary, E. C. Spence; gatekeeper, E. B. Hunt; and a full complement of Pomona, Maggie A. Johnson; Flora, E. T. Thomas. In the evening a class of 67 received the fifth degree.

SUMNER POST'S FIRST CAMPFIRE.—A joint campfire was held Saturday night by Sumner Post, G. A. R., and Sumner Women's Relief Corps in the hall on Union avenue. There was a large attendance, many visitors being present from other city posts. J. A. Newell, commander of Sumner Post, was master of ceremonies. Several lively talks were made by J. M. Brock, Comrade Adams, G. E. Chalkin and others. The supper, which included Sumner Post and Relief Corps very highly. Long tables were spread with refreshments of hot coffee, baked beans and crackers were served. It was the first of a series of similar events usually given at frequent intervals during the Fall and Winter.

WINTER REPORT AT ST. JOHN'S.—An effort will be made this evening to induce the St. John's Council to modify its license ordinance so that the new management of the Cedar Park resort, the Foresters of America, can be run. It had been decided to erect a pavilion on the ground being under attachment. It is the purpose of the new management to erect new buildings and run a winter as well as a summer resort. A pavilion 50x50 is to be built. Under the provisions of the ordinance $30 per day is required. Judge Marks, on behalf of the management, will ask the Council to reduce this.

FIRE CAUSED BY LAMP EXPLOSION.—Explosion of a ruby lamp in the closet of the cottage owned and occupied by Mrs. M. E. Herron, 354 Sen Rafast street, Albina, last evening, destroyed the building. The lamp was used in developing pictures. The fire was extinguished with a bucket of water and was confined to the closet, in which Mrs. Herron kept her clothes. A fire alarm was struck from box 23, but services of the firemen were not required.

DECLINE TO DISCUSS SPICER SUIT.—Rev. J. H. Gibson, pastor of the United Presbyterian Church on Grand avenue, who was wasco street, who has been sued in the Circuit Court for $1000 damages by W. E. Spicer, yesterday declined to discuss the matter and say anything for publication, but said: "I am not worrying about it in the least." At none of the services in the church yesterday was any reference made to the suit.

FUNERAL OF CHARLES F. KING.—The funeral of Charles F. King was held yesterday afternoon from his late home, 1114 East Sixth street, and interment was in Lone Fir cemetery. Members of Portland Camp, No. 37, Woodmen of the World, and Union Degree Camp attended the funeral. Mr. King was 51 years of age. He died occurred in Phoenix, Ariz., October 13.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS TO MEET.—To gather together all the veterans of the stars and bars, a meeting of Oregon Camp of the United Confederate Veterans will be held this evening in the office of Colonel Garrius, room 25 Almsworth block. Many Portland Confederates will be present, and visitors from outside the city will be welcomed.

YACHTS IN WINTER QUARTERS.—The Oregon Yacht Club and Belle Gaiquet, yesterday moved into winter quarters behind the long dock of the Oregon Water Power & Railway Company. Here it will be out of danger from any frosts. Most of the smaller yachts were also moved, and the others will soon be moved.

FUNERAL OF MISS HATTIE FARLEY.—The funeral of Hattie Eldore Farley, the 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Farley, living at 435 East Twentieth street, was held yesterday afternoon. Interment was in Lone Fir cemetery. Miss Farley died in St. Vincent's Hospital.

WINNER OF W. C. T. U. ORATORY MEDAL.—The eighth medal oratorical contest given since May by the W. C. T. U. was held in the chapel of the First Baptist Church yesterday afternoon. The room being crowded by the many friends of the contestants and those interested in the temperance question. On this occasion a gold medal was offered for the best oratorical effort on the general subjects of temperance and an interesting and attractive musical programme was provided. There were three contestants, Misses Lucy Ball, Marion Humbel and Edna Heacock, and the judges were Madama S. S. Gillespie and J. Q. Williams and C. F. Frost. The medal was voted to Miss Edna Heacock, a little miss of 14, who rendered "The Song of the Olive" in style that displayed great histrionic ability. Mrs. Jennie A. Harrison, who has long had this medal contest work in charge, conducted the meeting.

POSTOFFICE NOT READY TO MOVE.—After the removal of the postoffice into the new quarters, has had to be postponed. Postmaster E. A. Bancroft hopes to be able to accomplish the work next Sunday if no other delays occur. The removal of the Federal offices on the second and third floors of the postoffice building began last week, but it has not been completed. The furniture at those levels and other delays occur. The first floor of the new building and it will require several days to get it in shape. As it has been decided not to attempt the removal of the postoffice until all the other departments are thoroughly settled in the new quarters, the proposed removal yesterday had to be abandoned for the time being.

HAND GIRL LOST IN THE FOG.—H. E. Stember, the typewriter man, has lost one hired girl and, as kitchen jewels are scarce just now, he is making a search for the girl that the domestic routine may not be disturbed. Katie Olson, a newly imported person from Norway, who presides over the Stember kitchen, is lost. She left the house, 63 Union avenue north, last evening and her return has not yet been reached. The police station last night. She has been in the United States but two months and cannot speak English. The police believe that she was bewildered in the fog.

BLAZE IN A BEDDICK.—A beddick in a room behind Schroeder's bookstore at 407 Morrison street caught fire last night at 8 o'clock, and the department was called to the scene. The water prevented it from spreading. A lighted cigar or pipe is supposed to have set the bed on fire.

H. HERBERT C. MILLER has removed to 141 West Park, corner of Alder.

TACOMA IS FOR THE FAIR. Her Chamber of Commerce Indorses Appropriation by State and Nation.

The Tacoma Chamber of Commerce has commended the Lewis and Clark Fair and resolved to support the exposition. Last week the chamber recommended that the Legislature of Washington make a suitable appropriation for the fair. The resolution was as follows: Whereas, the State of Washington is the first state in population and commercial and industrial development of the several states erected out of the "old Oregon Country," and would be greatly benefited by a comprehensive exhibit of its products and resources at the Washington Exposition Resolved, That Tacoma Chamber of Commerce hereby indorses said Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition, and recommends that the Legislature of Washington appropriate an adequate appropriation for a Washington exhibit at said exhibit, including the erection of a state building. Provided, that so much of the Washington Exposition as can be utilized at the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition be transferred from St. Louis to Portland after the close of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

Resolved, further, That the Senators and Representatives in Congress from Washington be and they are hereby requested to give their cordial support to the bill to be introduced at the next session of Congress providing for an exhibit by the Government of the United States at the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition, and for purposes of Federal participation.

NOBODY WANTS HIM. Smallpox Patient Arrives, but Can't Get to Hospital.

With smallpox clearly showing upon his body, an unknown man who cannot speak English was brought in on the O. R. & N. train last evening, after several attempts Assistant City Physician Alcorn was summoned. The man was locked up in the police room at the depot, and remained there waiting patiently for some one to take him to the hospital. He was still in the close room at 3 o'clock this morning. The smallpox patient is supposed to be employed as a laborer by the O. R. & N. Company, and is under the care of Dr. E. A. J. Mackenzie, the company's physician. He cannot tell his name, nor where he came from. Efforts were made by the police to call W. J. Beutelsbacher, the deputy health officer, who conducts smallpox patients to the hospital. Dr. Eidersdorfer, the health officer, said he could do nothing—that it was up to Dr. Zan, the city physician. But Dr. Zan could not be reached by telephone. No one wanted to handle the smallpox patient, but there he was, an unpleasant reality. The bar in which he came was locked and will be thoroughly fumigated this morning.

SUSPECTED OF ROBBERY. Thomas Woods Accused of Stealing Diamond From Japanese Jeweler.

For the robbery of a diamond pin on June 3, Thomas Woods was landed in the city jail yesterday morning by Detective Frank Snow, who brought him from Seattle. The detective felt sure that Woods is one of the men who held up Hy Zui, a Japanese jeweler, last June, under an electric light. There they robbed him of a diamond pin valued at $200. Woods is the little Japanese jeweler that he forgot to cry out until the highwaymen were several blocks away. In his haste to get the pin, one of the highwaymen took it that it was up to Dr. Zan, the city physician. Woods has not been seen until picked up in Seattle a few days ago. His partner in the crime is supposed to be Frank Thompson, who was taken to the county jail. He was arrested a few days after the robbery occurred.

The best scenic display in which dramatic incidents abound on stage filled with people, so far given by the Neill-Murphy company, was "Notre Dame," a drama in five acts and eight tableaux by Paul M. Potter, from Victor Hugo's famous novel of olden France, and twice presented to crowded audiences yesterday at Baker's Theater. "Standing room only" conditions prevailed at both performances. Instantaneous success was a ringing recall for the principals who did such fine work in the fourth act, where Quasimodo, the dwarf bell-ringer (Frank MacVicar) throws Claude Frolo, the divinity student (Thomas Oberie) into the abyss 500 feet below. The play, dealing with a romantic period when witches were burned at the stake and swagging men fought duels with anyone who looked at them crossly, caught the fancy of the audience, and it is certain that the theater will be crowded all week.

Seventeen hundred people crowded into Corday Theater last night and dozens of would-be patrons were turned away for lack of seating accommodation, the occasion being a presentation for the first time in Portland of a new farce-comedy, "Spotless Town," the management of Leslie Morocco and Lella Shaw. It was well received and at every joke applause came in waves like the discharge in a park of young artillery. "Spotless Town" has not much in the way of plot but it is a farce-comedy written to make people laugh, at popular prices, and here it succeeded.

Miss Shaw is the most interesting figure in "Spotless Town," and she is an unusually pretty girl, with a mass of fluffy hair hat. Her costumes are pleasing to the eye and help the stage picture. Mrs. Tony Tupper plays the dual role of Toilette Jacotot, a French milliner, and Fleur de Lys, a vaudeville song queen, and two of her catching songs are "High Up on a Coconut Tree" and "Queen of Prosperity Row." Another pretty refrain is "The Maiden and the Jay." The kernel of the comedy lies in the fact that Tony Tupper (William Lawrence) is so fond of his wife that he thinks she can't stand him, and she is so fond of her brother, Burton Madison (Leslie Morocco) that she can be cured if her jealousy is aroused, and he is Fleur de Lys. The latter enters heartily with the joke and soon gives Mrs. Tupper cause for concern.

In the second part of the comedy the comedienne is part of a set of international Collection of Vaudeville Stars and last night came from different parts of the theater where it had been quietly seated among the audience. The three comedienne sometimes do a little work and they make up most of the fun. Mr. Morocco is a capable actor, and Mr. Lawrence sang several parodies on songs with a local significance. "Spotless Town" will be played until Thursday night.

COMING ATTRACTIONS. Famous Musical Comedy with Strong Cast at the Marquon.

Tonight for the first time, the famous Plicky and Luders comedy, "The Prince of Pilsen," will be seen at the Marquon Grand Theatre, continuing Tuesday and Wednesday nights with a special matinee Wednesday at 2:15 o'clock. Henry V. Savage is sending this splendid production across the country for the first time and it is needless to say that the organization which he has put together is without approach. The tremendous success that "Prince of Pilsen" has achieved from the initial night in Boston a year ago is a record that has not been equaled by any production of modern times. The musical comedy itself is so clean, wholesome and beautiful, and its music so tuneful that everywhere the public take to it, and it is being produced here as never before. This is the testimony of every city in which "The Prince of Pilsen" has been seen.

The production for the present tour is cosmopolitan in every respect. The cast is made up of Miss Trizie Friganza, Mr. Jess Dandy, Mrs. Arthur Donaldson, Mr. Nick Long, Mr. Walter Clifford, Mr. Henry Taylor, Miss Ruth West, Miss Elmira Forrest Lockwood, Miss Idaline Cotton and Miss Ada St. Albans. Altogether the production is big, breezy and beautiful. Seats are now selling for the entire engagement.

New Bill at the Empire Tonight. Tonight is opening night again at the popular Empire Theater, where ever-increasing audiences bear evidence to the popularity of the vaudeville act of the greatest baritone, Arthur Cunningham, heads the new programme for the coming week, and the thousands of patrons of the Empire Theater are assured of a most attractive feature. Among the other attractive features are Hanzard, the wonderful ventriloquist, Leonard and Drake, in a comedietta; the three tumbling Malverns, and the acrobats, who have been seen in a brand-new dance, and Belle Williams in "Scandalous Eyes." Prices 30c, 50c and 75c. Box and lounge seats 50c.

Arcade Programme Changes Today. The Arcade Theater programme changes today at the matinee. An entirely new programme replaces the old one and it will be a hummer, including Keppel and Minnet, comedy musical artists, Layna and D'Arcy, who have been seen at the Taylor Juvenile Quartet and three other new acts. The theater was packed to suffocation last night, and with the exchange of vaudeville acts, the matinee it will be crowded all week. Five shows a day are given, at 2:30, 3:30, 7:30, 8:30 and 10:30.

Sale for Kecey and Shannon. Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, the advance sale of seals will open for Mr. Herbert Kecey and Miss Effie Shannon, who come to The Marquon Grand Theatre next Thursday, Friday, Saturday afternoon and night, October 22, 23 and 24, in the Gillette-Doyle drama "Sherlock Holmes."

GIVES UP HIS SEARCH. Murchison Cannot Find His Runaway Wife.

After a patient but fruitless search for his 3-year-old daughter, J. J. Murchison, whose wife left his home at Summerville, Or., two weeks ago and eloped with a negro, returned to his farm Saturday night. When she deserted her husband, Mrs. Murchison took with her her little daughter, Minnie, leaving a young boy in his father's care. It is the child whom Murchison is after, he cares nothing more for his wife after the humiliation she has brought upon him and the children by her strange deed of running away with a negro and eloping with him to the North End as "Nigger Tom."

That his wife and the precious little 3-year-old baby are in Portland Murchison is assured. He reached Portland a week ago this morning. By a strange coincidence, he stopped that night in the same room which had been occupied by his runaway wife on the previous night. Finding no sign of her, he went up to the floor, he questioned the proprietor of the Burnside-street lodging-house as to the description of the woman who had used it the night before. Sure enough, it was his wife, but where she has gone was more than he or the police could tell. "One of the policemen, G. Roberts was his name, told me that he had talked with my wife the Saturday before," said Murchison. "The police here were notified by the La Grande chief to locate the negro and the woman and notify me. But I never heard a word of H. No. they had no warrant for their arrest. I only wanted to find the child and am willing to let her mother go. She has brought enough trouble on her head herself without my doing anything more."

The negro Tom was picked up in South Portland last week, and taken to the station. He declared that he knew nothing of the woman and on the strength of his testimony, she had been allowed to go. While Mrs. Murchison was staying at the lodging-house at Second and Burnside streets, people in the neighborhood say they repeatedly saw the same negro carrying food to her room, as she was keeping out of sight. The pretty little baby girl is with her maternal mother in the Bad Lands of Portland. The police cannot find the ill-assorted couple but they are believed to be hidden away in some of the negro dives of the Whitechapel district.

FIGHTING YELLOW JACK. Fever is Yielding to Efforts of Marine Hospital Service.

LAREDO, Tex., Oct. 18.—While there are still many cases of yellow fever in the city, work being done by the Marine Hospital Service and the State Health Department is beginning to show results in the gradual decrease in the number of cases. The official bulletin for the past 24 hours was issued tonight: New cases, 20; deaths, 6; total cases, 400; total deaths to date, 75.

The deaths which occurred were among the poorer classes of Mexicans. The deaths are attributed to the cooler weather. No bulletin has been received from Nuevo Laredo or Minerva today.

Word from Monterey states that although the disease is diminished in its spread it is becoming more malignant.

BETTER TONE TO MARKET. London Stock Exchange Passes Crisis Successfully.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—After having surmounted a most difficult settlement without disaster, the tone of the stock exchange, under the influence of easier money conditions in New York and Paris, and the disposal of the alarmist rumors of war between Japan and Russia, has become much healthier and the general impression prevails that the worst is over. Japanese and Russian securities, after a rapid decline, had as rapid a recovery. Americans and Kafirs participated fully in the general recovery of prices, steel shares being in considerable request.

A rather unsatisfactory report issued by the underground electric company which will supply power to Charles T. Yerkes' London ventures has affected some English railways adversely.

Electric Flat Iron

It is always hot, always ready, clean and bright. No matter where you want to use it, whether in kitchen, sewing room or laundry, it is but a small matter to connect it to the electric light circuit. It is quickly heated and remains heated as long as the current is on. Especially in the sewing room, where a hot iron is often needed, will this be appreciated from the fact that it requires no fire and no running to and from the kitchen.

SCOURING YOUR SCALP. Will Remove the Loose Dandruff Scales, but Won't Cure Dandruff. If your hair is brittle and thinning, you have dandruff. The mere scouring of the scalp of the loose scales won't cure dandruff; because dandruff is nothing but scales of scalp being thrown up by a terrific little germ in burrowing its way to the root of the hair where it saps the vitality, causing falling hair and, in time, baldness. Now you can't stop dandruff nor falling hair, nor prevent baldness unless you destroy that germ; and the only preparation that can do it is the new scientific discovery, Newberr's Herpticide. In fact, no other hair preparation claims to kill the dandruff germ—all of them will clean the scalp; soap and water will do that, but only Newberr's Herpticide gets at the root of the trouble and kills the dandruff germ. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10 cents in stamps for sample to The Herpticide Co., Detroit, Mich.
