Mrs. Bennett Objects to Her Husband's Will.

Widow Will Go to Court Before Allowing Payment.

MRS. BRYAN WAS GIVEN $10,000

New York Merchant Also Desired $15,000 Be Invested for Her Three Children-Nebraskan Will Test Validity of Bequest,

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 21 .- On cross-examination in the Probate Court today, William J. Bryan testified that a scaled letter, mentioned in the will of the late Philip Bennett, of New York, and this city, was a request that Mr. Bryan should accept $10,000, of which $10,000 was to be given to Mrs. Bryan and $15,600 invested for their three children who were to receive $7000 each when Mr. Bryan thought it wise. The letter was opened by the court, but was not

Judge Stoddard, who represents Mrs. Bennett, declared if Mr. Bryan insisted upon receiving the fund she would con-

Mr. Bryan, in reply, said not one cent of the money would he allow either his wife or his children to receive unless Mrs. Bennett were willing. He, however, did intend to ask the court to decide the validity of the bequest, so that in case it was declared legal he could distribute the money among educational and char-'itable institutions.

During the hearing, Mr. Bryan introduced a mass of correspondence between himself and Mr. Bennett from the year 1896 to 1900. He read a number of letters gloud in order to show that Mr. Bennett repeatedly made offers of financial assistance to him. On four occasions, according to the witness, Mr. Bennett sent him money to aid him, the amount-in all aggregating $3500. He related that in May, 1900, Mr. Bennett came to Lincoln, Neb., to discuss the provisions of his will, and told Mr. Bryan that he wished him to accept a bequest of $50,000, believing he would need it later. A suggestion made by Mr. Bryan at that time was to the effect that if Mr. Bennett so desired he could embody it in a bequest to Mrs. Bennett in a letter to be left with the will. He further suggested that the money be left in trust to himself to distribute among educational and philanthropic institutions.

After Mr. Bennett returned East he executed his will and sent a copy to Mr. Bryan of what, he said, was the ter which he left with his will for Mrs. Bennett. When Mr. Bryan's statement had been concluded, Judge Stoddard said that the will would be contested by Mrs. Bennett if Mr. Bryan sought to secure equitable right to it.

SPEAKS FOR EMPLOYERS Attorney Has Floor on San Francisco Street-Car Wage Question.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 .- Oral arguments in the arbitration proceedings to determine wages and hours for the employes of the United Railroads of San Francisco continued today, A. A. Moore finishing his oral argument for the company. Mr. Moore discussed wages outside of San Francisco, holding that only in four Montana towns were higher wages paid car men. He claimed that the only rule to be applied in determining wages is the law of supply and demand, humanely anplied, and subject to the qualification that the wage should be fairly compensating

In conclusion, he declared any argumen that a company must pay wages up to the limit it can afford is inapplicable, leading to a different scale of wages for every employer. Mr. Livernash will have four hours to conclude for the men tomorrow and pointed arguments will be submitted by both sides within a few days.

Pope Plus Wants to Know What Concessions She Will Make Church.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 .- Angelo Sarto, a brother of the Pope, and Signor Angelo Parolin, brother-in-law, have had sevtral long conversations with the Pontiff, rables the Home correspondent of the Tribune. They declare they understand his feelings, both as an Italian and as the head of the church, and assert that Pope Pius X is anxious to leave his name in history by stopping the long conflict between church and state by means of a modus vivendi, which, without renouncing the claims of the papacy for temporal power, would render possible a certain understanding between Italy and the Vatican which would allow the Pope to be no longer the prisoner of the Vatican, Before taking any step the Pope wishes to know what compansations Italy will be willing to grant the church,

BANK TO OPEN AGAIN.

Union Trust Company, of Baltimore, Leaves Matter to Committee,

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21.-The directors of the Union Trust Company held a meeting today which lasted several hours, and after a thorough discussion of the affairs of the company, a resolution was adopted to appoint a committee to arrange for the ompany to resume business.

In financial circles in this city today, business settled to a normal basis. The knowledge that all banks and trust com-panies had ample cash on hand to meet any emergency cleared the atmosphere of any emergency cleared the atmosphere or rumors. In view of the cheerful condition of affairs, the executive committee of the Clearing-House Association found no oc-casion for further conferences, and none was held.

AN UNPRECEDENTED SALE OF

Opens This Morning-Second Floor-Marvelous Values in Winter Garments. A Clearance Sale with Price Cuts so deep as to insure Quick, Sharp, Decisive Results that will change the ownership of 150 Handsome Winter Coats-perhaps Today.

Some fashion critic has said that "the styles of garments are so varied this season as to make little difference which of several styles one affects for wear. There's sure to be some point in its favor from a style standpoint." Be that as it may, we adhere to our rule that the odd sizes and leftovers of a previous season must go out at some price, be it ever so little, to do some wearer good. So we've been thro' our coat stock, culled out the broken lots, oddments in sizes, in fact, gathered every one of our last Winter's elegant coats and tabled 'em in a sort of coat "pound." Every coat that cannot show the license tag of 1903-4 goes in the "pound," and you may redeem them today and until sold at VERITABLE SLAUGHTER PRICES!

The story is short—about 150 in the lot. The materials are rich, handsome kerseys and coverts, in fashionable shades of tan and castor, with a few blacks, blues and reds. Cut with 27-inch half-litting or 24-inch tight-fitting backs, richly lined, some with satin, others of mercerized materials and serge. Some have high-rolling collars, others the double-breasted "notch" collars. Among the collection are plain backs, yoke backs and strap backs. Really handsome garments that have lost none of their beauty in their less than 12-month stay with this house. Former prices ranged up from $6.50 to $25. We shall make the prices—starting this morning—during this distribution of the GRANDEST COAT VALUES PORTLAND WOMEN EVER KNEW—in a range starting at $4.95 and running up, $7.95, $8.95 and $9.95. IUST THINK of buying a magnificent garment your neighbor paid $25 for, and is wearing now, for $9.95 today. But first choosers get best choice - no favors shown - first come, first made happy. See the coats in Fifth-street show window. Be first!

His Team Is Just Ready to Make Another Dash Against the Navy, When Death Puts an End to the Contest.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 21.-In the gam this afternoon between the Navy and Baltimore Medical College, Robert E. Lewin, of Plainfield, N. J., second year classman, of the Baltimore Medical College, was killed. The opposing teams had swayed back and forth over the field, about evenly matched. The Navy, by hard line buck-ing, had passed the ball within ten yards of the victor's goal, when the latter hurled the midshipman back. The medics made gains of three and five yards, and had just lined up for another effort when Lewin, right guard of the Baltimoreuns, fell to the ground, Alis limbs/immediately became rigid. He was carried from the field, and five minutes later was pronounced dead. The cause of death is given out as cardiac syncope. Vicar Lee's Invention. Pearson's Weekly.

The hosiery trade of the world was created by the knitting frame, which was invented by Rev. William Lee, vicar of Calverton, Notts, about the year 1586. The story goes that the lady of his love was so sed with her knitting that she paid too little attention to his suit. He thereupon set to work to invent a machine which should supersede handwork. In this he succeeded, and resigned his living in
