

SOUND TOO FAR OFF

Walla Walla Served Quicker From Portland.

JUNKETERS HEAR HARD FACTS

Effort Will Be Made by Wholesalers of Tacoma and Seattle to Get Improved Train Service to the Inland Empire City.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—After "mixing in" all day with local retailers, the representatives of Seattle and Tacoma wholesalers and commission firms and sound business men generally have decided that little can be done toward securing from Portland a share of Walla Walla's trade until the freight and passenger service from the Puget Sound cities are materially improved.

Local retailers state that they could get orders to and delivered from Portland in some times two days, rarely more than three, while deliveries from Seattle and Tacoma frequently took four and five. An instance was cited of one large local firm which has a house of its own in Seattle and still prefers to purchase in Portland on account of the time gained.

Nothing immediate has been accomplished. The trip will not result in diversion of orders next week, or next month, or anything like that. But there seems little doubt, though, it will result in a concerted effort by local people interested and by the Puget Sound Chamber of Commerce to secure an improvement of the railroad service.

A through sleeper from Walla Walla to Seattle or Tacoma will be the first attempted step, then a through train, then fast freight service. The Puget Sound contingent is supposed to go home in the morning, but as the tickets do not expire until Sunday, many will stay over and pursue trade topics further.

The Seattle spirit was quite strongly in evidence today, though the Tacoma wholesalers outnumbered the Seattleites in activity. The argument of "home business" was the chief one used.

IDAHO MUST FIX LAW.

Until Then the Government Will Not Approve Reclamation Projects.

BOISE, Ida., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The state has received advice from the General Land Office to the effect that the Government will not approve any more projects in this state for the reclamation of lands under the Carey act or patent any lands contracted to be reclaimed under that act until the state shall have amended its own law accepting the grant and making provisions for carrying it into execution. The ruling has come in connection with the application for the Marysville Canal Company.

In 1901 the state amended its land laws, the amendment providing that any lands which may be reclaimed under the Carey act or patent any lands contracted to be reclaimed under that act until the state shall have amended its own law accepting the grant and making provisions for carrying it into execution. The ruling has come in connection with the application for the Marysville Canal Company.

General Manager of the Twin Falls Company, who is in town, states it will make no difference to them, as they will have settlers for all of their tract of 20,000 acres of land. Others who have applications pending have expressed willingness to waive the right to have any unappropriated lands deeded to their companies.

They have no doubt the Legislature will comply with the requirements and that their projects can go on without interruption. The matter will be taken up with the department with the view of coming to a fuller understanding on the subject.

ORE WIRED WITH GOLD.

Difficult to Work Mine in Marshall Lake District.

BOISE, Idaho, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—A story of some remarkable strikes in the Marshall Lake district has reached the city. It is to the effect that in the Kimberly, one of the properties belonging to Dr. Law and Mr. Hall, ore has been opened in the shaft that is so wired with gold that it is difficult to get it out. The ore is said to be a tunnel on another property, the Jewel mine, which is a very large body, some 10 feet in width, of the high grade ore peculiar to the property.

Dr. Law, when asked about the report, admitted he had received information similar to that coming to others. The streak in the Kimberly, he said, was two feet wide, he did not know how rich it was, but it was very heavily wired with gold as reported. The tunnel in the Jewel mine, he said, opened into a large body of ore, but they did not know how large it was as neither was in sight.

Continuing, Dr. Law said he did not know what the grade of the ore was in either case, but the ore heretofore secured from both was very good. He was disposed to regard the opening out of the ore body in the Jewel as of very great importance.

HERALD MEN WIN AGAIN.

Jury at Union Out but 30 Minutes—Other Indictments Continued.

UNION, Or., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The jury in the celebrated Baker City Herald case that has been on trial in the Circuit Court here the past three days brought in a verdict of acquittal this afternoon, after being out but 30 minutes. The indictment in this case charged that the publication in the Herald of the Huntington defalcation matter was libelous in that it charged County Judge Travillion with being accessory to a crime and compounding a felony.

Twelve indictments had been found against the publishers of the Herald. This was the trial of the third indictment, the first trial being upon the eleventh count, both resulting in acquittal. It was expected that the other indictments would be dismissed, as they are similar to those already tried, but upon motion of the District Attorney this evening they were continued until the February term of court.

MOTHER KEEPS DAUGHTERS.

Son Wanted Them Given to an Aid Society.

ASTORIA, Or., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The petition of G. M. Grimes to have his sisters, Cynthia and Bessie, placed in the charge of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society of Portland was heard in County Judge

Trenchard's court this morning. The girls are daughters of C. C. and Sarah A. Grimes, are aged 16 and 14 years, respectively, and their parents have separated. The petition alleged that the mother, Sarah A. Grimes, "is a woman of notoriously bad character and has grossly abused her parental authority over the said minors and is totally unfit to have their care and custody." About 15 witnesses were present and all who testified said that the children were properly cared for by their mother, had a good home and that the mother bore a good reputation. The petitioner offered no testimony and asked to have the hearing postponed.

The court, however, refused to grant the request, saying that as the petitioner started the case and that it was for hearing he should have been prepared to present his case at this time. After hearing the evidence submitted, Judge Trenchard dismissed the petition and assessed the costs. The petitioner offered no testimony and asked to have the hearing postponed.

NORTHWEST DEAD.

M. W. Miller. LEBANON, Or., Oct. 22.—M. W. Miller, who died here Sunday very suddenly, was born in Gibson County, Ind., January 10, 1825, and was married to Charlotte Burt September 17, 1848. In 1848 they moved to Port Des Moines, now Des Moines City, Ia., where they lived until 1862, when they crossed the plains with oxen to Oregon, settling in Linn County, where they have resided most of the time since.

Deceased was born at Kincardine, Scotland, in 1832, he moved to Massachusetts and remained there three years, thence to Washington County, Oregon, where he had since resided. His only survivor is a daughter, Mrs. William Patton, of Patton Valley. Interment will be in the Scott's cemetery, at Tualatin Plains tomorrow.

Mrs. Margaret J. Dodson. OREGON CITY, Or., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—Mrs. Margaret J. Dodson, aged 68 years, died at the Oregon city hospital, Oct. 21. Her young husband, John, died Oct. 19. Funeral services were held at the Presbyterian Church today and burial took place in Mountain View cemetery.

John Scott.

OREGON CITY, Or., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—John Scott, aged 77 years, died at his home at Highland, October 20, 1903. The deceased was a pioneer of 1852, and is survived by a wife and seven children. Burial took place at Highland today.

Precaution Against Diphtheria.

EUGENE, Or., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The school board on its hands the matter of dealing with contagious diseases and to guard against the spread of diphtheria. Diphtheria has existed in a family named Beebe and yesterday a child died from the complaint who had been attending school in one of the lower grades. Dr. Chester, who is physician for the board, fears that it may be possible, yet not probable, that others may have been exposed to the contagion, and, in order to protect the health of the community, he has directed that all children who have in any way been in communication with the Beebe children should be kept out of school for ten days and bear a certificate of health in order to be allowed to attend school.

Not Millionaire Kohn's Widow.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—The Tribune today says: Dorothy Thurman has decided she is not the widow of the late Abraham H. Kohn, who died recently in a San Francisco sanitarium. Consequently she will not carry out her threat of seeking to establish her legal right. The decision is said to have followed a conference with her attorney, in which she outlined the basis of her claim. "Miss Thurman believed she was entitled to recognition in the courts, and based that claim upon what she supposed was the law," said a man speaking for "The Tribune," who was advised that she was not the widow of the late Abraham H. Kohn. There was no ceremony, and Miss Thurman's assertion that she was Kohn's widow grew out of a wrong understanding of the conditions of common law marriages in Illinois.

Big Irrigation Scheme.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 22.—Plans for a big irrigation scheme, whereby the Government can reclaim thousands of acres of arid land in Northern Idaho, are being discussed here. The scheme, through the utilization of the waters of the Pend d'Oreille River, are being prepared by T. A. Noble, an engineer connected with the department of the Geological Survey, who has established his headquarters in this city.

Engineer Noble and his assistants have been working on the project since last summer. Their reports have been made in the Geological Survey Department in Washington, and in turn that department will prepare the official data to be made public.

Albany Boy Will Lose a Leg.

ALBANY, Or., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—Stewart Dawson, the 12-year-old son of Fred Dawson, of this city, was run over and seriously injured by a street-car here this evening. Young Dawson was upon the front platform with another boy playing, jumping on and off the car, when he slipped and rolled under the rear wheels. His left leg was crushed at the ankle. The injured boy was taken to his home, where medical assistance was given. A druggist here has offered to send a medicine to a friend who may know of a reliable doctor. It is a good one. For sale by all druggists.

Hotel Owner Is Missing.

WHATCOMB, Wash., Oct. 22.—J. Leary, owner of a hotel at Salmon here, is missing and his family fear that he has made away with himself while temporarily mentally unbalanced.

Could Not Sleep for Coughing.

"In the winter of 1901 I contracted a severe cold and it resulted in pneumonia," says M. Bert Hobb, of Seattle, who began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and in a short time he was cured. He had taken five different remedies but could get no relief until he began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Too much cannot be said for such a medicine. When a druggist sends the liberty of sending a medicine to a friend you may know of a reliable doctor. It is a good one. For sale by all druggists.

ENTRY THAT IS VALID

Intent to Sell After Proof Is Not Unlawful.

DEPARTMENT BACKS DOWN

Answer to Applicant Who Says He Does Not Intend to Live on Land, but to Hold It for Profitable Sale.

HORN BROOK, Cal., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—When the publication of an alleged new interpretation by the United States Land Office of portions of the timber and stone act was first made by the newspapers there was considerable excitement and no little consternation among the large number of people in this section who are awaiting patents to timber claims as well as those who have made entries and not yet proved up.

In the latter class was Chas. W. Strother, a young attorney of Yreka, who, in accordance with his usual prudent custom, concluded to ascertain beyond question his status before making final proof, and to this end he communicated with the authorities direct. He stated plainly that he had no intention of living on the land or individually making any personal use of the timber thereon, but that the entry was made by him for his own use and benefit, in the sense that he intended to hold the same until he could sell to advantage in the future.

He stated that he desired to know whether there was a prospect of his patent being held by the government in this manner realize a profit on the money invested, this office holds that such an entry is not made in violation of law and should be passed to proof.

"Acting Commissioner." The above letter is important because it is neither vague nor evasive, but absolutely clear and concise. It looks very much as if there has been a complete breakdown on the part of the department.

USED LIVING ILLUSTRATIONS.

Mrs. Addison Puts Newsboys, Laborers and Convicts on Platform.

SALEM, Or., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The State Convention of the W. C. T. U. continued its sessions today with a good attendance of delegates and of local workers. Interesting papers were read this forenoon and afternoon, and in the evening National Organizer Mr. L. H. Addison, of Portland, gave a demonstration of the department work. With Newsboys, laborers and convicts on the platform, he gave an illustration of the methods that may be pursued in reaching these and other classes.

One of the features of the afternoon session was an address by W. N. Gates, private secretary to Governor Chamberlain, who spoke in the absence of the governor. He spoke in support of the work of the W. C. T. U. is doing and predicted that the present progress will continue until victory rewards the efforts of this organization.

The Thursday morning devotional hour was conducted by Mrs. Louise Round, State Evangelist. A lively discussion ensued as to whether the organization should be incorporated. This subject was continued for further discussion.

An interesting service under the head of "Thanksgiving" was conducted by Mrs. Elizabeth Dalgleish, of Portland, resulted in a very substantial sum of money for the treasury. After a delicious lunch, the afternoon session was opened by Mrs. Lucy Morton of Woodburn. The first service of the afternoon was a memorial hour in honor of the members who have passed into higher life during the past year. This service was led by Miss Lillian Phelps, Yamhill. Polk, Multnomah, Morrow and Linn Counties took part in this service, having members valued members. Mrs. Chilton sang several touching songs during the hour.

In response to the "Clarion Call" of County President Mrs. A. C. Storer, Mrs. Roseburg, spoke for Douglas County. The good spiritual condition, and increase in numbers. Lecture work had been pushed with marked results for good.

Roseburg has a very attractive calendar. Mrs. A. S. Storer, of Ashland, spoke for Jackson County. Ashland has always had most energetic workers and their report was full of interest. Medford, Central Point and Phoenix are in line.

Mrs. Eva Wheeler, President of Lane County, told of the study her unions are doing on topics of live interests. The county is in the best of condition. Mrs. M. J. Moore, of Medford, reported. This county has been the banner county for some time and this year has yielded the palm to Marion. Institute work has been especially prominent in this county.

Mrs. R. M. Steele, of Turner, President of Marion County for nine years, gave a very stirring report from her county. Woodburn is again a dry clean town. The best report of anti-narcotic work was credited to this county.

Salem Union is the banner union in the state in point of membership. They own their own home, a fine building on Commercial street. Mrs. A. C. Matheny is president of this flourishing union. Miss Frances E. Goshall gave a report of the most energetic workers and their report was full of interest. Medford, Central Point and Phoenix are in line.

Mrs. Ida Courtney spoke for Yamhill where she leads a most earnest corps of women.

DALLIES HOTEL GUTTED.

Guests Roused at a Late Hour Have a Narrow Escape.

THE DALLIES, Or., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—Shortly before 2 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the Columbia Hotel, on the corner of Front and Union streets, the flames having made great headway before they were discovered or an alarm turned in. The hotel was full of guests and many of them were roused at a late hour. Although considerable personal property was left behind, the fire was quickly extinguished and the hotel was saved.

Driven from the rooms by the choking smoke, the firemen were unable to save any portion of the hotel furniture, and concentrated their efforts in confining the fire to the one building, which is situated in close proximity to other large, frame buildings. In an hour the entire structure was charred and gutted. The hotel was a three-story structure owned by T. T. Nicholas, of Portland, and valued at about $5000. It was insured for $2000. It was lost by W. H. Dufur, of Dufur, who, with his son-in-law, Robert Batty, were the present proprietors and owners of the furniture and fixtures, upon which there was $2000 insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown, but is supposed to have originated in one of the second story, rear rooms, until it had burned itself well into the main floor of the house.

SOCKEYES FOR THE COLUMBIA.

Fry Will Be Propagated at the Walla Walla Hatchery.

ASTORIA, Or., Oct. 22.—Master Fish Warden Van Dusen returned today from the Ontario and Walla Walla state hatcheries. The Ontario plant, the largest in the world, is now almost complete, and indications are good for a large output this season. At Walla Walla the work of propagating chinook salmon has been finished for the season, and the experts are now engaged in spawning sockeye salmon. Mr. Van Dusen stated today that this plant would be provided with accommodations for a large number of sockeye fry. The sockeye fish are excellent for canning and pickling purposes, and the Warden is satisfied that the river can easily be stocked.

The variety is identical with that which enters Puget Sound every year. Sockeyes entering the Columbia make their appearance about the time of the close of the regular season here, and the run usually is a short one. However, by means of propagation a large output of this variety of fish can be secured.

LOOKS LIKE A METEOR.

Eight-Ton Lump Discovered Near Oregon City.

OREGON CITY, Or., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—An alleged real meteor of gigantic dimensions has been unearthed near Oregon City and is being prepared for exhibition purposes. The strange celestial visitor is irregular in shape and weighs nearly eight tons. It was discovered by Samuel Miller claim on the west side of the river by a member of the Miller family. One point of the strange missile protruded from the earth into which it had buried itself in the fall because of its great weight. Several workmen by means of block and tackle raised the meteor from its hiding place and have placed it under a preparatory to putting it on exhibition.

While it has the appearance of being a stone, originally, it now resembles metal. The date when the meteor fell is a question. Since the strange visitor was discovered in a wooded tract not frequently visited it may have rested in its hiding place for several weeks.

KEEPING GUARD ON DIX.

Information Filed Against ex-Banker at Whatcom.

WHATCOM, Wash., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—An information was today filed against St. John Dix, charging him with defrauding $5000 on October 22, 1900, from the Scandinavian-American Bank, of this city, which was then under his control. Another information filed today charges him with other specific offenses, will be filed tomorrow.

St. John Dix is now under sentence of ten years in the penitentiary for wrecking this and another bank in this county, which was under his control in 1900, and is under trial pending the determination of his appeal to the Supreme Court. The information filed today is in support of record at this time for the double purpose of keeping the statute of limitations from outlawing tomorrow and to be used should the defendant refuse to sustain the conviction of the ex-banker.

Syndicate Buys Idaho Mine.

WEISER, Idaho, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—Another large syndicate is becoming interested in Washington County mines. The American Syndicate Company has taken over a group of five claims on Iron Mountain 25 miles from Weiser. The mines carry gold and copper and run about 1000 tons of ore a day. The price paid for the claims has not been given out. The company was incorporated about six weeks ago as the Iron Mountain Mining Company. Several of the officials of the American syndicate are at present in the county.

The president of the company is expected in Weiser in about two weeks to arrange for extensive operations. The claims have been worked several years and are in a state of development and ready for immediate operation.

McCloud Mills Shut Down.

HORN BROOK, Cal., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—Two of the logging camps of the Scott & Van Arsdale lumber company, at Horn Brook, were closed down and operations discontinued for the winter Friday. In mill No. 2 work on the shift was discontinued the same day. Mill No. 1 will run double shifts until the end of the season, which is about October 20, when they will be closed for the winter.

Health conditions at the big McCloud camps are good now and the preparation for the extensive repairs and improvements to be made this winter have already begun. These statements are authoritative, coming direct from General Manager C. R. Wisdom of the Scott & Van Arsdale Company.

Believed to Be a Bad One.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—Marshall Shields and Deputy Jackson made a capture last night at Centralla of James Adams, who is considered a suspicious character. Adams ran into the hobo roost while Shields and others were taking a look at the place. He had two skeleton keys, one a going key of his own make, and a key of a safe and a huge revolver of .45-caliber. Adams is being held in the County Jail. A No. 9 shoe and a No. 10 were also found in his possession.

Arrested on Poison Charge.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 1.—A special to the Dispatch from Helena, Mont., says: Mrs. Hannah Hall, mother-in-law of Albert W. Falke, who died suddenly in Great Falls, Mont., last March, was arrested here last evening on a warrant sworn out by Falke's father, charging her with having caused the death of her son-in-law by poisoning him. Falke's wife was arrested recently in Labeit, Mo. Mrs. Hall declared she is innocent.

New Light Plant for Centralla.

CENTRALLA, Wash., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—A light plant having sufficient capacity to meet the needs of the city will soon be installed here. The plant now in operation is not sufficient for the requirements, and no new lights have been allowed added for some time. A new larger dynamo has been ordered, and the contract for furnishing power will be awarded on November 2.

Plan Extensive Logging Roads.

HORN BROOK, Cal., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—All the lumbering camps of Northern California are planning to extend railroad lines deeper in the forests preparatory for next season's operation. At McCloud the surveys call for 14 miles of extensions and work is to commence immediately. All the logging camps have closed and the men will be put to work in railroad gangs.

Butte Plumbers on Strike.

BUTTE, Mont., Oct. 22.—About 35 plumbers, employed in four of the large shops of Butte, are out today on a strike because a new law has been passed in wages from $6 to $7 a day was refused.

MILK MUST BE SOLD PURE

GOVERNOR M'BRIDE INSTRUCTS FOOD COMMISSIONER.

Formaldehyde Must Not Be Used as Preservative, and No Favoritism May Be Shown.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—Governor McBride has taken cognizance of the continued reports from various parts of the state of the use of formaldehyde in milk by dairymen, and today instructed E. A. McDonald, State Dairy and Food Commissioner, to use every power the law gave him to stop the practice and to show favoritism to no man or section of the state.

Mr. McDonald was called to Olympia from Seattle, where he maintains his office, by the Governor yesterday. Mr. McDonald is one of the appointees of the late Governor Rogers and has continued in office by the suzerainty of the present administration. There has been some criticism lately by certain state papers as to his diligence in enforcing the pure food laws, and this gave rise to the rumor that the Governor's summons meant dissatisfaction with the Food Commissioner's work in that particular. Regarding the matter, Governor McBride said:

"I was not familiar with the work that McDonald was doing in his office and simply desired to become so. We went over his work together today and when the matter of the use of formaldehyde in milk came up I urged him particularly to stop the practice. There has been a great deal said lately about the use of this poison in milk and it is a practice that must not be tolerated. I believe Mr. McDonald will use every effort to enforce the law in this particular and in the matter of the adulteration of other foods."

"Was any change of policy decided upon, as to Mr. McDonald's alleged practice of giving 30-day notices to dealers in suspected commodities that at the expiration of that period he would begin to enforce the law?"

"I was not aware that such was the Food Commissioner's policy. I know nothing about any 30-day notices. I simply urged the Food Commissioner to fight right down the line the practice of using formaldehyde in milk and injurious adulterations in other foods. And I also instructed him to show no favoritism."

STEPHENS GOT THE VERDICT.

Yreka M. & M. Co. Must Pay for Ore Taken from His Vein.

HORN BROOK, Cal., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—Few cases in our Superior Court have attracted more attention or involved more complicated questions than that of Stephens vs. Yreka M. & M. Company. After two weeks' continuous sessions, it is safe to say that dips, spurs, angles, veins, cross veins, hog backs, etc., will haunt the juror in the case in his dreams.

The plaintiff owns an adjoining mine and sued for $150,000, claiming that the ore crushed by defendant was taken from his vein. Defendant claimed that the vein from which the ore was extracted was his own property. The case was closed, so far as the introduction of testimony was concerned, on Monday afternoon. Monday morning arguments began. R. S. Taylor opening for plaintiff. The time limit of each of the five speakers was made two hours. Tuesday morning John Magaffey argued for defendant and he was followed by Judge Sheets, of Ohio, and Judge O'Neill, of Yreka, who closed for defendant. Tuesday evening H. B.

DUBOIS BOOMS TURNER

PRESIDENTIAL RUNNING MATE FOR JUDGE PARKER.

Democrats Would Have Vice-Presidential Candidate Who is Very Popular in the Northwest.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—That ex-Senator George Turner, brought out as a Democratic candidate for Vice-President of the United States, is a suggestion made by United States Senator Fred T. Dubois, of Idaho, in Spokane today. "The decision in the Alaska boundary case," said Senator Dubois, "has enlightened the country at large to the fact which Judge Turner's friends and neighbors have always known, namely, that he is one of the ablest men in the United States, a statesman of the highest qualities, and, above all, a patriotic citizen."

"If the Democrats were to nominate Judge Parker, of New York, for President, and Judge Turner, of Washington, for Vice-President, they would name a ticket, which would instantly command the respect of the country. Living in sections representing different views on Democratic politics, their nomination would tend to heal factional differences in the Democratic party and the party would present a united front against its common enemies."

"The selection of Judge Turner as a member of the Alaska boundary tribunal met with the cordial approval of every member of the United States Senate, and Judge Turner served with such great credit for six years. It was an appointment which was particularly well received in the Northwest."

"Judge Turner, who enjoys the confidence and respect of the Democratic leaders all over the United States. He was a tower of strength to the party in congress, where his personal popularity and recognition of his ability was not circumscribed by party lines. If his name were presented for the Vice-Presidency by Vice-Turner, it would be given most serious consideration."

Deputy Seizes Fish Nets.

EVERETT, Wash., Oct. 22.—Deputy Fish Warden H. Reif, of Seattle, seized eight fishnets today from a party of anglers in these waters. O. Aben is under arrest. Other arrests are to follow.

Colonel Baillinger Bound Over.

EVERETT, Wash., Oct. 22.—Colonel Baillinger, father of Judge Baillinger, of Seattle, was bound over to the Superior Court today by Judge Cleopatra Smith to recover about $40. The defendant in the case conducts a confectionery store in this city, and the plaintiff alleges that he loaned her $40 in money and paid bills amounting to $40.
