CHANGES IN A. O. U. W. BUILDING.-It has been suggested by several persons as been suggested by several persons during the past month or two that the A. O. U. W. Building at the corner of Second and Taylor streets could be changed into a good hotel. The building fronts 100 feet on Second street and 80 feet on Taylor and six stories in being and is evened by the German Abi height, and is owned by the German Aid Society of San Francisco. The sug-gestion has struck many as a good one nd not long ago it was currently reported that the change was to be made. Yesterday it was reported that arrangements for the alterations had been completed and the contract let, and that the occupants on the ground floor had received notice to vacate. On floor had received notice to vacate. On investigation it was found that this is not the case. The occupants of the stores have received no such notice, and it was further learned that one of the stores has just been leased. Some of the occupants who had heard the rumors applied to L. Goldsmith, agent for ghe building, for information and were told that, the building was not to be made into a hotel at present, but that the halls which had been occupied by societies as lodge rooms, were but that the halls which had been occu-pied by societies as lodge rooms, were to be cut up into rooms for lodgers, and the whole supper part of the building was to be whanged into a rooming or ledging house. This change is to be made under charge of Architect Krum-bein. When this is completed the build-ing will be in better shape to be used as a hotel. The upper stories of the three The upper stories of the three story brick adjoining the A. O. U. W. hall on Second street and owned by C. A. Dolph, are used as a lodging house, and one reason why the hall is considered so suited for a hotel is that the adjoining building might be utilized for an extension if necessary.

BEARS VISIT LOGGING CAMP,-H. C. Jackson, who is running a logging camp on the Lower Columbia, in the Svenson District, was in the city yesterday to procure supplies, and he was in a great hurry, for he said his men had nothing to eat still he got back. Bears are plentiful about his camp, and as there are no fish trage near to supply them with "cultus" salmon, they have to hustle for a living. His cook had to go across the river Thursday, and did not fasten the cabin which werves as a boarding and lodging house for the loggers, and when Mr. Jackson returned to camp early that evening to get dinner for the men under way, he found nothing to cook, but coffee and matches. A bear or two had entered the cabla during the day and made a general inspec-tion of the contents. The supply of four was spread over the floor, and the outter had been swallowed and the spigot had been knocked out of a keg of syrup, and the contents had run over the floor on the flour. The bears had eaten what they could of the sweet mixand had tracked it about, and in their efforts to reach a side of bacon suspended from a rafter, they had daubed the mess over everything. Mr. Jackson said he did not stop to clean up, but caught a boat that evening and came to Portland for supplies, and he knew that the men would be looking anxiously for his ratter.

SEARCHES FOR METEOR .- A. W. Miller, who is a student and observer in geology, mineralogy, meteorology and other ologies, is going to Oregon City to examine the alleged meteor which is being exhumed on a farm near that place. When Mr. Townsend, 543 Third street. on a farm near that place. When Geo. P. Merrill, of the National Muse was here some months ago he directed Mr. Miller to keep a look out for meteors Mr. Miller to keep and if any such came to light here, to secure them for him if possible, as such things were needed for the National Museum. Mr. Miller is M., in Alisky Hall, corner Third and Morrison streets. A committee has been approached to atrange for a smoker after the street of the next three parts of the ne for the National Museum. Mr. Miller is somewhat dubious about the meteor said to have been found near Oregon City, as he says no real meteor has ever been as the says no real meteor has ever been as the says no real meteor has ever been the meeting, when refreshments will be served, and the members given an opportunity to become better acquainted, and the best to mercors, and metoric stones, as was the case about a year ago, when a meteor was seen blazing across the atmosphere, and a piece from it fell near Oswego, which proved to be only a bit of slag from the iron furnace there.

PROMINENT EXPORTER RATURNS.-Mr. Peter Kerr, of the firm of Kerr, Gifford & Co., returned Wednesday from a three months' visit in Europe. He spent most of his time enjoying life in Scotland and England, and forgetting busi-ness in America, and accordingly is not in a position to discuss Mr. Chamberlain's free trade policy, the boundary dispute or any of those other great questions that come under the head of on the other side of the Atlantic. While forgetting the grain business of Portland and Ignoring the dilemma of Mr. Chamberlain, Mr. Kerr succeeded in the in picking up a few points on golf which he stands in readiness to clucidate for the benefit of his fellow exporters who remained in Portland to wrestle with the ject of wheat values.

SENDS CURIOS TO COLONEL HAWKINS .-Col. Hawkins untiring efforts to establish a free museum in the City Hall are not forgotten by his friends who remove to other states. D. F. Sherman, who a few years ago removed to Rhode Island, where he is Vice President of Providence & Danielson R. R. Co., has sent to Mr. Hawkins, a photograph and a piece of wood of the original "Rhode Island Greening apple tree." people are familiar with the ning" which has been a general Most people favorite among apple growers and con-sumers all over the country for no one knows how long. SCAPPOOSE ENTERS APPLE RACE.-Hood River Orchardists will have to exert River Orchardists will have to exert themselves to retain the laurels of that section as the best apple producing region in the state, as Scappoose is coming to the front in a style which is likely to "yank the bun." The finest apples seen at the permanent exhibit this season, and the equal of which Secretary Lamberson says cannot be found in the city, is a box of three-tier Northern Say, sent in to be preserved for exhibisent in to be preserved for exhibi-by Asa Holaday, of Scappoose They are perfect in shape and color, and They are percect in snape and coor, and entirely free from scab, scale or codlin moth, and as for size, the fact that three tiers in width and depth fill a regulation box is all that need be said. If Hood River can show a finer box of oples, now is the time to do so. Mr Holaday's orchard is still young, but he supplied much fine fruit from it to be forwarded to Commissioner Dosch at Buffalo. He has never been obliged to spray his trees for protection against the codlin moth, nor has he been troubled by San Jose scale or other insect pests. There are some old orchards at Scappoose which have never been troubled by such pests, and it is thought that there is a strip of country there in which these pests are not likely to get a foot-hold, owing to some exposure to the breezes of the Columbia. A sight of this box of three-tier Northern Spy ap-ples and a breath of their spicy aroma will repay any admirer of fine fruit for a visit to the permanent exhibit. To DEVISE STREET REPAIR SYSTEM.-The special committee appointed Wednesday by Mayor Williams to devise a system of street repairs, consisting of Councilmen Fingel, Albee, Rumelin and City Engineer Elliott, held a meeting yesterday and prepared a rough draft of a proposed ordinance to solve this vexing problem. The members of the committee feel that the time is ripe for a better organized system of caring for the streets after improved by the property owners. It is probable that a recommendation will be made that the street sprinkling and cleaning department be consolidated with the repair forces. It was also decided to invite suggestions from all interested or acquainted with the methods adopted by other American cities in making street repairs. These addressed in care of the City Auditor will reach the committee and will be carefully considered. BARRBALL TODAY, 3 P. M.

Delicate finesse and subtlety mark the presentation of "Sherlock Holmes," a melodrama in four acts, and played last night at the Marquam Theater for the first time by an excellent, talented com-pany, headed by Herbert Kelcey and Effic Shannon. The story is taken from Sir A. Conan Doyle's "A Scandal in Bohemia," the dramatization being by the author of the book and William Gillette. A large audience was present, and gave the attraction an enthusiastic welcome. It pleased the people who sat in evening dress downstairs, and, remarkable to state, aithough it is a detective story in which there is not one pistol shot fired or a vil-lain stabbed, it earned the approval of the critics in the gallery. The play was written to star William Gillette, and was first produced in New York state, in the Fall of 1899. Then it became a success in the Garrick Theater, New York, and afterward met with a glad welcome in London. In September, 1992, "Sherlock Holmes" was played by Mr. Kelcey and Holmes" was played by Mr. Kelcey and Miss Shannon, in Pennsylvania, and they have since presented it on the road.

Mr. Kelcey and Miss Shannon last appeared here about four years ago in "The Moth and the Flame." He is well known as the leading man who for 12 years starred at the old Lyceum Theater. New York, where Miss Shannon also played. In those days Henry Miller played suborditions. those days, Henry Miller played subordi-nate parts at the same theater. Previous-ly. Mr. Kelcey, who is an Englishman, played with E. S. Willard at the Princess Theater, London, in Wilson Barrett's

"Sherlock Holmes" is a play which ap-peals typecially to educated, round peo-ple. It is full of kaleldoscopic effects, with a quiet, delicious comedy vein run-ning through it. Miss Shannon, as Alice Faulkner, does not have as much work to do in the play as one might expect, and the chief interest is centered in Mr. Kelcey, as Sherlock Holmes, the gentie-man detective, who reads almost the secrets of souls by his weird, uncanny pow ers of intuition. The motif is the pos-session of love letters written by the royal lover of a sister of Alice Faulkner, and both Holmes and professional thieves strive ceaselessly to get these letters. All the acts started amid darkness, and finer light and shade effects have not been seen here for years. Both stars, of course, received ovations for their fine work. Next to them in point of merit came the Professor Morlarty of David Davies. Charles Canfield was an able Larabee, a professional thief. The most thrilling experience in the play is the gasse scene, where Holmes cleverly beats enemies. In the last scene, the faces his enemies. of the two stars are shaded in limelight, and fade and fade away until black dark-"Sherlock Holmes" will be played at the Marquam this and tomorrow evening, and at the matinee tomorrow afternoon.

Arcade Theater. Six star acts, ranging from the dizzy fance to the side-splitting comedy sketch, dance to the side-splitting comedy sketch, are put on five times daily at this dainty little playhouse, directly opposite the Im-perial Hotel on Washington street. Tourists and shoppers find this an ideal place to be amused in intervals between sight-seeing expeditions and the crush of department stores. From 2:39 o'clock in the afternoon until 4:30 and from 7:30 to 10:30 in the evening continuous vaudeville of mirth-making variety holds

> Getting Their Money's Worth. Nearly everything that is good in vaude-ville is to be found on the Empire Theater's programme this week. A singer of unusual worth tops the bill, Arthur Cunningham, California's favorite baritone.

> The acrobatic act presented by the three Malverns is short but excellent and well worth witnessing. Hazard, the ventriloquist, has cut adrift from the cut-and-dried traditions which are attached to this class of work, and as a consequence his act is one of the most laughable turns in the business. Leonard and Drake offer a hilarious playlet, which is composed of crisp comicalities and many effective imi-tations of different animals. Belle Williams, the saucy souhrette, and Lew Welles, add to the gayety, and Empire audiences this week are getting their

Edward Garvie is stout, but nimble and nergetic; fat and funny. "Mr. Jolly of Jolist" could not have been much jollier, inless he had been jollying. Broadhurst and Currie generally put on productions at which it is natural to laugh, and consequently a laugh was expected out of Mr. Jolly. In consequence, the Crescent Theater was like a bazaar in Constantinople. The crowd lapped over. and that part which lapped over the door-way had to remain outside. Clever Comedy and Good Music. The bill announced by the Empire Theater for the week beginning Monday even-ing. October 26, is replete with features that will be attractive to every seeker of amusement in the city. Among the new acts will be Volkyra, one of the best hand balancers known to vaudeville; Coniey and Klein, a sketch team who are known as the "antidote to grief"; the La Moines, a musical duo who can make instrumental music of many kinds, and James Hennessy, the monologist. Arthur Cunningham, California's premier vocalist, will sing three famous baritone
