

a jewelry store in Forty-third street, un-der the name of Henry Jorgan. He also has used the names of William Jordin, Henry Miller and Francis.

porary ship were on my shoulders as they used to be, I would never have countenanced in any degree the insolent attitude of the Tammany leader who undertook to get along without the co-operation of Kings County in the make-up of the ticket. It would be under the necessity of getting along without the Democratic vote of Brooklyn on election day.

sence of the cashler of the London a Daence Bank, Morrison, it is alleged, fied to the Continent. The theft aroused the London bankers, and Weston was put on the case. The detective started for the Continent only thirty hours after Morrison, but the ficeing man had sailed at once for Canada. There he bought a ticket for New York. In New York Morrison lived at a small alley.

boarding-house for at least two months. Becoming nervous, he left the city and went to Boston, where he invested in a fewelry store. The fugitive did not stay long in Boston. He went to Marion, O., where he invested in a business venture. Weston came to Marion, where he learned the embezzler had left only a few hours before for Chicago. Weston arrived in Chicago only a few days later than Morrison. When arrested, the fugitive con-sented to return to England without extrarison. dition proceedings.

Jury Trying Mayor Can't Agree.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 27.-After being out l night, the jury in the sult against Mayor William B. Hays disagreed and it was discharged this morning. The case will be retried, but when is not known. The charge against the Mayor is mis-demeanor in the removal of Samuel Moore, a Civil War veteran, from the employ ment of the city without just excuse, which is alleged to be in violation of an not of assemblage passed for the protec-tion of soldiers.

American Proves Innocence.

BUDA PEST, Oct. 27 .- Adolph Friedmann, the American who had recently nducting a Summer garden here and who was arrested in this city yester-day at the instance of the United States authorities on the charge of fraudulent bankruptoy in New York, has been re-leased from custody. The evidence was produced to show that he was not guilty of the charge brought against him

Millionaire Probably Kidnaped.

BRISTOL, Tenn., Oct. 27 .- The report that the body of Edward T. Wentz, the young millionaire who disappeared some weeks ago, has been found is an error. The whole territory within many miles has been searched by organized bands in-cited by the large rewards. The belief that Wentz was kidnaped and is being held for ransom has gained general credence as no trace can be secured.

Wealthy Stockmen Are Indicted.

BASIN CITY, Wyo., Oct. 27 .- The grand jury investigating the lynching of Gorman and Walters today returned an indictment against George Saban, a prominent stock-man, and ex-partner of Colonel J. L. Torrey. Saban was arrested. It is understood that indictments have been fo against two other wealthy stockmen.

ALASKAN DECISION WILL HELP

Mellen Says the American Railways Will Profit Greatly.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27 .- Charles S. Melien, who has turned the presidency of the Northern Pacific Railroad over to How-ard Elliott, is taking a brief rest in this Mity before assuming the presidency of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, to which position he expects to be elected next Saturday. Speaking of the orthern Pacific, Mr. Mellen said: "I believe that the Northern Pacific is in as good physical condition as any road ntry. It is a fine road and Howard Elliott, the new president, is a fine

"The Alaska boundary decision will be of decided benefit to the American rail-

WORDS HELD UP AGAINST HIM

In the Provincial Legislature Houston Called McPhillips a Fool.

VISTORIA, B. C., Oct. 27 .- A political ensation has been caused in British Columbia as a result of the refusal of the Lieutenant-Governor, Sir Henri Joly, to accept the recommendation of the Pre-mier, Richard McBride, to appoint John Houston, Conservative member for Nelson, a Cabinet Minister. The Lieutenant-Governor is said by Mr. Houston to have stated that his refusal was due to an incident which occurred in the Legislature last session, when Mr. Houston stated that he considered Mr. McPhillips a "d-d fool."

LEADING DEMOCRATS CONFER.

Bryan, Hill and Towne Among Those at a Meeting in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27 .- Through the covery presence of several leading men in the Democratic party in this city, it has been learned, says the Herald, that a confer-ence at which were present William J. Bryan, David Bennett Hill, ex-Senator Charles A. Towne, of Minnesota; Frank Campbell, chairman of the New York Democratic Committee, and J. N. Carlisle, chairman of the Democratic Executive nittee, has just been held. It is as-

PROMINENT HAWAIIAN JURIST DIES

HONOLULU, Oct. 27 .--- United States District Judge M. M. Estee died here this morning of prostration, following an operation performed two days ago for kidney trouble.

Masonic funeral services will be held tomorrow over the remains of the dead jurist. All the courts in the city will be closed, and their of. ficers will attend the funeral. The National Guard will not as an es After the services the body cort. will be conveyed to the steamer Alameda, which will sall at noon for San Francisco. The remains will be accompanied by Mrs. Estee and Miss Ryan, secretary of the late Judge.

The Federal Court, over which Judge Estes presided, has at present a heavy criminal calendar.

(Morris M. Estee for many years took a prominent part in the development of California. He went to California in 1853, and after several years of mining and study of law was admitted to practice in 1859 He was prominent as a Republican leader, and in 1888 was chairman of the convention that nominated Benjamin Harrison for President, twice candidate for Governor of California, but each time was defeated. he was appointed District Judge for Hawall by President McKinley.)

Judge M. M. Estee.

ere, was asked what he knew regarding the matter. "It must be a coincidence," he said. "I m here from Washington for three or four days on private business." Bryan Postpones European Trip. way.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 27 .- William Bryan today said that he had post-oned his trip to Europe, he having ex-octed to have sailed from New York toorrow, and would not make any definite plans until after Judge Cleveland , had rendered his decision in the Bennett will case. He further said that the court had stated that possibly a week would elapse before the decision would be made public.

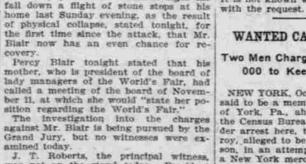

MAY LIVE TO FACE CHARGES.

Ex-Consul Blair, in St. Louis Fair Scandal, Has an Even Chance.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 27 .- The physicians ttending James L. Blair, who has been in a very precarlous condition since his fall down a flight of stone steps at his home last Sunday evening, as the result sition regarding the World's Fair." The investigation into the charges against Mr. Blair is being pursued by the sended that the meeting convened in the rooms of an uptown hostelry, occupied by Mr. Hill, but nothing could be learned, as to the subjects discussed or the result.

Senator Teller, of Colorado, who also is Mr. Blair, ex-general counsel of the corporation, and the Exposition were at an "The secretary a week ago sent Mr. Blair the acceptance of his resignation," said President Francis. "He is no longer connected with the Exposition in any

Two important features of the part that the police are playing in the investi-gation of the Biair story came to light tonight. One is the fact that James T. witness. berts told his story to Chief of Dete tives Desmond before he gave it to the srand jury last Friday. The other is that Chief Desmond has been trying for a month or more to locate Carey M. Blair, a younger brother of James L. Blair, but has not been successful.

Mrs. Blair began today the sale of the magnificent horses and carriages which made the Blair stables the finest in the vicinity of St. Louis. Evan Dick, of Dick Bros. & Co., of New York and Philadelphia, and George S. Grahams, the firm's attorneys, have been asked by the Circuit Attorney's office to appear before the grand jury here and give testimony in the Blair investigation. It is not known whether they will comply

WANTED CASH FOR SILENCE.

Two Men Charged With Asking $10, 000 to Keep Firm's Secrets.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27 .- Joseph D. Stins NEW YORK, Oct and Stand of A wealthy family of York, Pa., and formerly attached to the Census Bureau in Washington, is under arrest here, together with H. B. Gilroy, alleged to be the accomplice alleged to be the accomplice of Stin-in an attempt to extort $10,000 from a New York mercantile agency. The general manager of the concern, in his com-plaint, alleged that Stinson threatened to sell secret records of the agency to a rival agency.

Stinson, it is alleged, secured the records while working in the Chicago office of the agency. It is charged that he first made his demands ten days ago in Chicago, but was sent here to consult with the head of the organization, Gilroy was announced at an uptown hotel. The missing records were found in the safe of the notel and turned over to the police.

A. Clark, past grand master of the Grand Lodge of Michigan, A. F. & A. M. for 29 years, grand lecturer of the same and a 33d degree Mason, died today. body

"In the Heart of the Continent." 11.186 MILES Of rallway east of Chlcago. Peoria, St. Louis and the Mississippi River, with eastern terminals at New York, Boston and Montreal, are YORK CENTRAL LINES

tickets, information, etc., call on W. C. SEACHREST, North Pacific Coast Agent, hird Street, Portland, Or.

133 Third Street, B. Jerome. W. B. Jerome. General Agent. Chicago, Ill.

president. was re eree Stanley W. Dexter. At former hear-ings four witnesses testified that they had under the recent blockade. that as soon as The Hague tribunal has decided the question of preferential treatcertified blindly that the securities depos-ited for the benefit of the creditors by ment the powers chiefly interested will try to place the Custom-House in the hands of the Belgians, as per the article the promoters of a Staten Island Realty Company, who wished Mr. Dresser as president, were worth $350,000, whereas, at of the protocol, on the ground that Castro the time of deposit, they knew nothing of is acting dishonestly. Venezuela is ex-the value of the stocks and bonds delivered in a close package to C. W. Young-man, president of the Corporation Fi-nance Company, Mr. Dresser was the first in an ugly mood on account of the awards of the claims commission.

THE DEATH ROLL. Mr. Dresser told of the overtures to him to become president of the Realty Company, because he was told his name would lend strength to the company, and of the proposition to deposit $55,000 in Widow of ex-Ohio Governor. NEW YORK, Oct. 27 .- Mary Perry Hoadley, widow of Judge George Hoadley, who was Governor of Ohio in 1883-55 and afsecurities to extricate him from his finan-cial difficulties, regarding which, he had terward senior partner in a New York law firm, is dead at her home in River dale. She will be buried in Cincinnati.

cial difficulties, regarding which, he had told the promoters, he would have to cou-sult the receivers of his business and his creditors. After the delivery of the secur-ities to Mr. Youngman, Mr. Dresser said

Mr. Youngman told him he was satisfied with the certification of $700,000 of the se-GARDNER, Mass., Oct. 27.-Word has been received from Cawnpore. India, of the death there of the Rev. Robert Hascurities, and the rest was undoubtedly all right. Afterward M. C. Quimby, chier promoter of the company, gave him a list of the stocks known to be incorrect. Reright. kins, a missionary of the Methodist Church in India, who had labored in that ferring to the report that the names of his sisters had been used to ald the credit field since 1868. Well-Known Clothing Merchant.

of the Realty Company, Mr. Dresser said "I have stated positively and clearly to everybody with whom I have had dealings CHICAGO, Oct. 27.-B. Kuppenheimer, president of the firm of B. Kuppenheimer, everybody with whom I have had costings in the last few years that my sisters, Mrs. George W. Vanderblit and Mrs. J. Nicholas Brown, had nothing whatever to do with my business, and they never would have. I never said they would back me in any of these undertakings." died today, aged 76 years. He was one of the best-known clothing merchants in the the best-kn United States,

A number of questions were asked re-garding Mr. Dresser's connection with the United States Shipbuilding Company and the Trust Company of the Republic, and Mr. Dresser said his failure was due to the loss of $550,000 in the stock of the trust company. His interest in the shipbuilding affairs was only in conne with the trust company. He said that in November he had received about $500,000 each of the common and preferred stock of the shipbuilding company, which he had sold at once for $100,000, and put the money into his business, his credit being curtailed on account of the fall in the trust company's stock from $570 to noth-ing. The hearing will be continued next urnalist and author.

Author A. D. Vandam. LONDON, Oct. 27 .- The death is an-nounced of Albert Dresden Vandam, the

buy Ayer's

Sarsaparilla. Locare

can

inches long, new military effect, elegantly stitched with broadcloth, satin lined prevented the Cuban mall steamer Maria Herrea from entering that port. The Independencia then left Puerto Plata, go-ing towards the American mail steamer Cherokee, coming from Monte Christi, in order to prevent her from touching at Puerto Plata.

Wise

It is believed

Missionary in India.

and don't let your piano opportunity get away from you. Until the day we move, every piano in our store is yours for-well, just call and let us surprise you. Let it be a Knabe, a Hardman, an Everett, a Packard, a Fischer, in fact any make, and we will astonish you with our liberality. We are in our store every evening showing these snaps to people. YOU COME IN.

