

LONDON, Oct. 26.—According to a cir-cumstantial account published this morn-ing, two foreigners were seen making their way toward the Thames soon after the murder of Sagouni. As a foreign sloop disappeared immediately afterward it is balance the murder ar second therein. believed the murderers escaped therein.

of the jury in returning a charge against Mr. Moody, accusing him of withholding this letter from Mrs. Conroy, is looked upon by his attorneys and friends as wholly unwarranted. His counsel state that he did not withhold the latter, but acted in the transaction solely at her own request and without any interest what-is drawn makes it an offense for a person to take a letter from the postoffice or mail-carrier, or that has been in the postoffice, with design to obstruct the corre-spondence of the person to whom it is addressed, or to pry into the secrets or and jury put an unfavorable construc-tion upon these facts, that it was an en-tirely innocent transaction, and that the indictment is the result of purely mall-cloue and personal enmity against him, and that Mrs. Conroy is a more instru-

to trial as soon as possible and vindi-cate himself. Those who know Mr. Moody and the circumstances of the case feel that it will be an easy matter for him to prove that there are no foundations for any such charge as the one returned.
