"I think, of course, he would rather have lived; but I am sure he was prepared to die at any time, as all true Zionists are. I think he expected to be healed by our prayers, but as he was taken we feel that his soul has been saved and that he is uninsured. B. B. Rich's news stand is now at peace and awaiting the great end. To be healed by prayer is what Christ taught when He was on earthand if He healed men then why not now? I have seen many wonderful cases of healing with my own eyes, and I know that the sick can and will be healed if earnest and persistent prayer is offered and the suppliant is sincere in his be

"Our belief? Why, we believe just exactly what the Bible teaches us-that Christ is the redeemer of the world, that a otly He walked among men and taught them to pray and bealed them. Why should a believer employ worldly assistance when he has his Christ to go to? No, we are not in any way like the Christian Sci-entists. They do not acknowledge sickness, but we do just as Christ did. But God does not want His children to be sick. He wants them strong and well, m so by praying that they be healed, know of one case where and He puts it in our power to have one case where a woman was converted to our faith who had been a helpless invalid for 13 years, and her hushand was a doctor, too! But he couldn't do her any good, and for all these years she had not walked, but we healed her right away and now she is as well as anybody. I saved my own child twice by prayer, and he has never had a drop of medicine in his life. I could tell you of hundreds of cases that have come under my observation. Noth-ing but the prayer does it."

"How do you account for Dr. Dowie's failure to save his daughter after she was so badly burned?"

"That was an example of punishment for disobedience. Her father told her not to use alcohol in the house, but she did it anyway, and as a result she was burned almost to death. But although had got the flames into her lung and breathed them until her very vitals were burned, by prayer she was enabled to become conscious and talk until the elder's every word presented a strange appearance in the twilight. The shagey, unkempt beards of the men and the un naturally bright eyes of the women were suggestive of fanaticism. At each mention of Dowie's name they would bend a little closer to the elder, and their faces would shine with enthusiasm and religlous fervor.

Another patient is claiming the atten tion of the elder, but the name could not he learned.

BRYAN ARRIVES IN ENGLAND.

Does Not Think He Will Run for President Again.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 18 .- William 3. Bryan arrived here tonight from the United States. He was interviewed by numerous newspaper correspondents, and said he was intensely interested in Eng-lish sociology problems, and that he wanted to hear and learn as much as possible of the fiscal discussion now go-ing on. He has arranged to hear Herbert Henry Asquith speak on this question to-morrow, and to listen to the speech of seph Chamberlain Friday.

Mr. Bryan said he is merely an onlooker so far as the fiscal discussion is con-

Aversion to Friars Dying Out.

ROME, Nov. 18 .- A report has been re ceived by the Vatican authorities from the Philippine Islands giving an account of the epinions expressed by the Mayor of Maulia on the present situation of the friars in the Mayor thinks that with the exception of a few, who are irreparably compromised in the eyes of the Sureka Helena natives, the new American bishops ought to make efforts for the retention of the friars in the islands, as the aversion of the Fillpinos to them is gradually dying out. The Mayor believes that if intelligently employed these friars would be of the greatest use to the Government of the Phillopines, as they are familiar with the language, habits and needs of the people.
