PLENTY OF TURKEYS

But Prices Will Be Good This Thanksgiving.

RECEIPTS BEGIN TO INCREASE

Puget Sound Buyers in This Territory--Market Is Overloaded With Chickens-Plenty of Eastern Eggs on Hand.

There will be enough turkeys to go around this Thanksgiving, but they will command a good price. That is the concensus of opinion Front-street jobbers and commission men. Some are not of this view and a few a little anxious as to their supply, but from reports received from the country it is dieved there are plenty of fowls to fill all local requirements. However, it is all more or loss guess work now and the exact situation till not be known until after the opening of next week. Several large lots have been engaged by local tradesmen, some of whom have ayers at work in the interior. One country and a number of other loss slightly smaller have been contracted for.

Quotations in the Portland market yester were 16817 cents for five and 18819 dressed, with few of the latter yet on hand. Those who predict good prices base eir opinion on the increase in population of the city and the fact that Sesttle and Tacome houses are already buying in this terri-Still, there is nothing to warrant an assertion that quotations will be any higher than they now are and some dealers even believe there will be a slump in prices before the end. So far as can be learned, no Eastern turkeys will be brought in this fall.

TENDENCY TO HARDEN

UPWARD MOVEMENT MAIN-TAINED IN STOCK MARKET.

Steel Preferred Again the Most Active issue-Light Buying for Foreign Account.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 .- Prices in the stock market showed a tendency to harden slowly again today. The most active stock was United States Steel preferred and the late strength of that stock saved the market from any reaction caused by profit taking on the part of traders and made the closing strong at top prices and quite active.

There was nothing in the news of the day to account for the strength in United States Steel preferred, but the identity of the brokers most largely concerned in the buying caused the inference that they were acting for the preferred stock conversion syndicate. Reports circulated in the day seemed to show that this buying was incident to the closing of the syndicate operations preparatory to its disso-lution. The second bonds rose vigorously 2% on this report. The strength of the bonds seemed to be unaffected by an intimation that a new syndicate would be formed to take over the bond holdings of the present one and underwrite them at 65, presumably with the purpose of disposing of them at a profit to the public. Nothing official was forthcom-ing regarding the syndicate operations before the market closed. United States Steel preferred may have been affected by the session of the trunk line officials to consider the re-quest of the steel manufacturers for a reduction on export steel freight rates. It was intimated, on export steel freight rates. It was intimated, however, that the railroads were holding out for a reduction on steel rails. Very discouraging reports were in circulation regarding the rate of earnings on the present output of United States Steel and rumors are very persistent of the entry of large interests in the old steel companies into some of the independent combinations. The advance of 1% in Bequitible Steel preferred was a reflection of Republic Steel preferred was a reflection of Light buying for foreign account was a actor in the strength of the flay's market. The reientian of the present rate of discount by the Bank of England helped the foreign markets and the advance in exchange rates here indicated that our pressure for gold was relaxed. The outgo to the interior from the subtreasury was on a moderate scale again.

Minor railroad stocks maintained their conspicuous position of the last few days in the market. The consummation of the Seaboard settlement was a favorable influence on this class of stocks, pointing to the possibility of absorption and consolidation growing out of the recent troubles and losses caused by the extensive shrinkage in stock market values Minor railroad companies, which have a strat-egic value or position in the making of rates, even where their earning power is small, are considered to be destined for ultimate absorption by the larger railroad systems.

The bond market was notably firm and be came decidedly more active. Total sales, payalue, were $4,184,000. United States bond

HONOLULU, Nov. 19.—The Territorial grand jury, which has been investigating charges of corruption made in connection with the recent election, has pre-sented two reports. The majority finds that the accusations were unfounded, and that the election was conducted prac-tically without fraud, and three native members of the grand Jury dissent and declare indictable offenses were com-mitted. The minority members, however, signed both reports.

The Federal grand jury has returned 85 indictments against Japanese and one against a white attorney. All are charged with conspiracy to violate the statutes of the United States regarding the im-

The accused Japanese are alleged to be members of the Japanese Brothers' Protective Association, which, it is charged, collects monthly assessments amounting to $500 from female victims. The books and records of this association are now in the hands of the United States District Attorney. Twenty of the indicted men have been arrested.

Boston Officer Tries in Vain to Get Alleged Swindler in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19 .- Police Inspecto Cleary, of Boston, who has been in Chicago for a month trying to secure H. R. Kendall, a paimist and clairvoyant, who is wanted in the Eastern city on 16 indictments charging swindling, returned today without his prisoner.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—At the risk of his life in the icy waters of the Hudson, Albert H. Clarke, a well-known portrait-painter, rescued his wife from drowning today. Mrs. Clarke has been ill for sev-"Professor" Kendall was arrested here on October 12. Inspector Cleary arrived October 17 with requisition papers and copies of the indictments. Cleary then went to Springfield to secure the Governor's warrant and signature, but Governor Yates was not there. Meanwhile Ken-dall had been released on bonds. His attorney sent a telegram to the Governor asking him to delay signing the warrant. Inspector Cleary then telegraphed to Boston to Miss Smith, one of Kendall's alleged victims, asking her to come. did so and went to Springfield and identiied a photograph of Kendall. Hearing of the case was continued by Governor Yates and Kendall was taken to Dekalb and surrendered to Sheriff Rompf, of that place. A habeas corpus proceeding heard before Judge Bishop secured the man's release yesterday. In speaking of the case, Inspector Cleary last night said:

"The Judge ruled arbitrarily against us. Instead of being tried in Chicago, the prisoner was smuggled away to Dekalb County. As my papers to the Governor were all right, the prisoner should have been turned over to me."

rate. Exportation of barley is materially decreasing, but with insproved crop prospects and continued low freights, there may seen be a more active movement. Wheat and barley were lower today, owing to the rain. Cash prices for chipping wheat were reduced 1½ cents, but milling was steady through the city. Flour is moving well on export account. Bran is steady and hay fair.

The fruit market is quiet. The Portland steamer took a moderate quantity of grapes and small vegetables bought at firm prices, as supplies were light. Naw crop oranges were more plentiful and easy. Ripe bananas were in excessive supply. Apples are moving well, but stocks are ample.
