

PANAMA MEANS IT

Colombia Told She Will Never Come Back.

EVERY OFFER IS REJECTED

Delegation Headed by General Reyes Departs—Request to Land for a Tour of Colon Has Been Cheerfully Granted.

COLON, Nov. 20.—The Panama Commission conferred at length today with the Colombian Commissioners, headed by General Reyes, which arrived here yesterday from Savannah on the French steamer Canada.

The conference was continued informally until 2 o'clock in the afternoon, when a document was drawn up and signed by all the Commissioners setting forth the details of the conference.

General Holguin, of the Colombian Commission, asked finally if the Colombians could do anything whatever to regain the isthmus, and Senor Reyes answered it was decidedly and absolutely impossible.

The Colombian Commissioners asked permission to disembark for a promenade through the streets of Colon. Governor Melendez communicated the request to the junta, and it was promptly granted.

General Reyes is what is termed locally "president in campaign of Colombia."

Reyes Discourages War.

During the trip down the Magdalena River General Reyes was everywhere received with enthusiasm.

General Reyes is today the strongest and most intelligent figure in the Republic of Colombia.

Excitement is Subsiding. The excitement at Barranquilla and Cartagena and along the river is subsiding.

DANGER OF SHIPS BEING SEIZED Colombia Has Designs on Steamers for Use as Transports.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Navy Department today made public the report of Commander J. H. Hubbard, commanding the Nashville, on the recent operations of the man under his command at Colon since the revolution on the isthmus of Panama was started.

COLOMBIAN DELEGATION COMES Charge at Washington in the Dark as to Object of the Mission.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Secretary Hay has received a dispatch from the Colombian Consul-General at Galveston, advising the President that the Colombian delegation from Colombia, which is on its way to Washington.

German Ships Were Not Stopped. WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Navy Department received a cablegram from Admiral Coghlan, at Colon, replying to a question whether there was any truth that the German steamers Markomania and Scotia had been stopped at Colon by American men-of-war.

China Enters into Relations. PANAMA, Nov. 20.—The Chinese Vice-Consul yesterday visited the junta and officially the latter that China recognized the de facto government of Panama.

SOVEREIGNTY OVER THE CANAL Text of the First Five Articles of the Convention.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Although the entire Hay-Bunn-Varilla treaty has, in substance, been published, the Associated Press publishes herewith the text of the first five articles of the convention, which have to do with sovereignty.

and will maintain the independence of the Republic of Panama.

Art. 2. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of the zone of land and water under the construction, maintenance, operation, sanitation and protection of said canal.

The Republic of Panama further grants to the United States, in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of any other land and waters outside of the zone above described which may be necessary and convenient for the construction, maintenance, operation, sanitation and protection of the said canal or any auxiliary canals.

Art. 3. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of the zone of land and water outside of the zone above described which may be necessary and convenient for the construction, maintenance, operation, sanitation and protection of the said canal.

Art. 4. As rights subsidiary to the above grants, the Republic of Panama grants in perpetuity to the United States the right to use the rivers, streams, lakes and other bodies of water within its limits for navigation, the supply of water or water power for other purposes, so far as the use of the said rivers, streams, lakes and bodies of water, and the waters thereof, may be necessary and convenient for the construction, maintenance, operation, sanitation and protection of the said canal.

Art. 5. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity a monopoly of the construction, maintenance and operation of any system of communication by means of canal or railroad across its territory between the Caribbean Sea and the Pacific Ocean.

Art. 6. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 7. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 8. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 9. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 10. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 11. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 12. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 13. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 14. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 15. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 16. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 17. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

TO MAKE WAR ON AMERICA

(Continued From First Page.)

formation of New Granada and while what was known as "Greater Colombia" included only the Colombia of today, Venezuela and Ecuador. The isthmus was separated and was governed from Spain directly.

It is probable this fact will be advanced as a reason for the denial of the request expected to be forthcoming from the foreign bondholders.

ECUADOR WORKING FOR GAIN

Independence of Panama Causes Her to Try to Sell Islands.

PARIS, Nov. 20.—Agents of the South American Republic of Ecuador, who are at present in Europe trying to sell the Galapagos islands, are not discouraged by the rebuff with which they have met in France.

The preliminary statement of the bureau for the October exports shows the value of cotton exports exceeded $300,000,000, namely, 1901, $313,673,443, and 1902, $316,130,429.

These figures, either those of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, or those of the 12 months ending October 31, 1902, show a larger total than in any preceding year in the history of the country.

At the Ecuador Legation this morning the officials declared their government has not informed them that such an enterprise was no foot, but asserted the government of Ecuador was not likely to have acted without overture on the part of some continental power.

Art. 18. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 19. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 20. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 21. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 22. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 23. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 24. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 25. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 26. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 27. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 28. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

TO MAKE WAR ON AMERICA

(Continued From First Page.)

minago, October 20, furnishes the first official explanation of the existing revolution in the island. It is stated that General Morales, Governor of Puerto Plata, became disgruntled because he was refused a cabinet position by President Wozny oil and petroleum companies.

Santo Domingo Short of Supplies.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Guellio Bachard has been appointed Commissioner and Chief of the revolutionary forces which are besieging Santo Domingo, says a Herald dispatch from Puerto Plata. President Gil has 1000 soldiers defending the capital. Fighting takes place there daily.

COTTON TRADE IS BOOMING.

Exports for Last Month Averaged Two Millions Per Day.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Two million a day is a snug sum for the total receipts from the sale of a single agricultural product in a single country, even such a country as the United States.

The preliminary statement of the bureau for the October exports shows the value of cotton exports exceeded $300,000,000, namely, 1901, $313,673,443, and 1902, $316,130,429.

These figures, either those of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, or those of the 12 months ending October 31, 1902, show a larger total than in any preceding year in the history of the country.

At the Ecuador Legation this morning the officials declared their government has not informed them that such an enterprise was no foot, but asserted the government of Ecuador was not likely to have acted without overture on the part of some continental power.

Art. 29. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 30. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 31. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 32. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 33. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 34. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 35. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 36. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 37. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

The "Smoke of Peace." The Cream of the Islands. The one cigar you can depend upon being the same in quality whether you smoke one or a thousand. Always 5 cents, and so good the dealer can't afford to cut the price. The Largest Selling Brand of Cigars in the World. The Good is the Smoker's Privilege.

FOE OF THE SHIP SUBSIDY

HANNA BIDS ITS FRIENDS WORK ON THE HOUSE.

Senate is All Right, He Declares in an Address at a New York Banquet.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Speaking tonight at the annual banquet of the Society of the Naval Architects and Marine Engineers, Senator Hanna referred to the shipping bill, which he asserted, failed in the upper house.

It should not be understood from the foregoing statement that the value of cotton exports of the United States averaged $2,000,000 per day for the year ending October 31, 1902, when the total value of cotton exports was $316,130,429.

These figures, either those of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, or those of the 12 months ending October 31, 1902, show a larger total than in any preceding year in the history of the country.

At the Ecuador Legation this morning the officials declared their government has not informed them that such an enterprise was no foot, but asserted the government of Ecuador was not likely to have acted without overture on the part of some continental power.

Art. 38. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 39. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 40. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 41. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 42. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 43. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 44. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 45. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

PERSONAL MENTION.

W. Chambers, a Dayton stockman, was at the Perkins yesterday.

Ed Dunn, a merchant of Condon, is spending a few days in Portland.

Speaker L. P. Harris, of the last Legislature, is in the city from his home at Eugene.

R. G. Cook, general representative of Klau & Eslinger, the so-called theatrical trust, is in Portland.

Henry Erwin, of Weiser, Idaho, is a guest at the Perkins. Mr. Erwin is one of the most extensive ranchmen in Idaho.

President Robinson, of the Mexican Central Railroad, left yesterday for Seattle, but will spend a day in the city on his return to San Francisco.

Professor G. McCann, of Park Place, Or., was operated on at St. Vincent's Hospital yesterday afternoon.

E. Kavanaugh, of St. Louis, Or., was brought to St. Vincent's Hospital and underwent an operation there yesterday morning.

George Easterly, a heavy operator from the Nazina country, is in town on his way East. Easterly, who has been in the city for some time, is a well-known figure.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(Special.)—Northwestern people registered at New York hotels today as follows: J. P. Hyatt, of Tacoma; the Morrion; A. Wright and wife of Seattle; at the Grand Union.

Athletes Built Their Own Clubhouse.

New York Herald.

Compelled to vacate their premises, occupied since 1871, at the junction of Sixty-sixth street and the East river, the members of the Pastime Athletic Club have adopted a novel method to obtain a new home.

While washing a pair of stockings at the Pekin Steam Laundry last week one of the girls made a find when she turned the hose—not a hole in the heel, but a wad of water-soaked something that looked like money.

Art. 46. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 47. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

GRAFT UNDER SULTAN.

He Protects Those "Caught With the Goods."

World's Work.

While the Sultan himself likes to bestow his benefits upon the just and the unjust, the small official to whom he delegates his power is likely to have more eagerness for "graft" than for justice.

The case of the Kurd Mousa Bey is an instance. He was recently mentioned in the newspapers as having escaped from the Hejaz (the Mohammedan Holy Land) in Arabia.

Art. 48. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 49. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 50. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 51. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 52. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 53. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 54. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 55. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

Art. 56. The Republic of Panama grants to the United States in perpetuity, the use, occupation and control of all lands within the limits of the zone above described and in addition thereto, the group of small islands in the Bay of Panama named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Flamenco.

HIGH CLASS DRUGGISTS AND - OTHERS. The better class of druggists, everywhere, are men of scientific attainments and high integrity, who devote their lives to the welfare of their fellow men in supplying the best of remedies and purest medicinal agents of known value, in accordance with physicians' prescriptions and scientific formula.