CREDIT FOR CANAL TREATY

Secretary of State Said to Have Done Nothing.

SENATE MAY TAKE ACTION

Member of Foreign Relations Committee Says Since Minister is Interested in Canal Stocks, an Investigation is in Order.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—(Special.)—The Panama Minister, M. Bana-Varilla, and his attorney, Frank D. Pavey, are being criticized today by certain State Department officials and many of the leading lawyers in the Senate because of reflection cast upon them in a statement which appeared in the papers today containing an interview with Minister Varilla and Lawyer Pavey, in which the latter is quoted as saying in regard to the dispatch with which the new treaty was drawn up and signed by Secretary Hay and Minister Varilla:

"The other treaty was a hodge-podge affair with clauses that would have caused trouble sooner or later. We began our work of making a new treaty on Monday at noon, and it was ready for Secretary Hay on Tuesday. Not 20 words were changed in the document. The rights of the United States are now set forth in a straightforward and clearer way."

A Senator, and, by the way, a member of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, said tonight:

"It is that statement is true, it is important. I was under the impression that the drawing of a treaty was the business of the Secretary of State and that Secretary Hay was fully competent to do the job. I think I shall ask the Senate to inquire into the matter and see who drew this Panama treaty. Minister Varilla has stated in the newspaper that he is heavily interested in Panama Canal stock, and, perhaps this treaty, if it was drawn by him and his lawyer, will not suit us."

High officials of the State Department would not discuss the matter today beyond saying the treaty was prepared by Secretary Hay and his assistants in the State Department. They pointed out, however, that the treaty signed by Minister Varilla is almost three-fourths the way for the Hay-Herran treaty and that the only changes made were those necessary to make the old treaty conform to the change of ownership of the territory and the change in the character of the lease of the canal.

FRENCH ENGINEER INDIGNANT

Would Refer Matter to The Hague as Last Resort.

PARIS, Nov. 22.—Bonsaparte Wrysa, the French engineer to whom Colombia granted the original concession for a Panama canal, addressed a long letter to the Reclaire, in which he says:

"The impudent attitude of the Washington Government should have the effect of rousing France and bringing about a common action by the European governments against the American people; also of proving to the most incredulous the immense importance of piercing the isthmus."

After calling attention to the interest which every European power has in the question, the writer says: "A reasonable understanding between the powers of Europe should suffice to maintain the sovereignty of Colombia, and prevent from following to its logical end the dangerous course on which the government of that country has started."

"This great people," says the writer, "though carried away by exuberance of temperament, possesses much common sense, and a discreet warning would be sure to bring it to a more reasonable view. This would not mean that Colombia should be allowed to oppose the construction of the canal, which ought to be accomplished by those who began it. If France should finally renounce her rights the United States might play the leading part on conditions that indemnify the interested parties."

Having regard to the dignity of Colombia, M. Wrysa suggests that if diplomacy should fail, the question at issue might be submitted to The Hague. He points out that Colombia's efforts to regain the isthmian territory might meet with difficulty. It would be impossible to send troops overland, and should they be sent by sea, American ships would be required to transport them. He suggests an escort of European warships to the Colombian troops would prevent this. Finally, the writer says that if the United States should resort to the employment of "brute force" Colombia would be justified in resorting to reprisals and seizing the United States Minister at Bogota and other American residents of Colombia. When we have to deal with dangerous lunatics or highwaymen, says M. Wrysa, it is rendering a service to all to defend oneself even by excessive means."

M. Wrysa insists that arbitration by The Hague tribunal is the only proper solution of the questions at issue.

WILL RISE TO A MAN.

Colombian General Declares Panama Is Guilty of Treason.

PANAMA, Nov. 22.—General Victor Salazar, who during the last revolution was supreme commander of all the Colombian forces on the isthmus, has been requested to give his opinion concerning the present trend of affairs on the isthmus, and telegrams as follows from Palmira, in the Department of Cauca:

"I consider the movement unpatriotic and unpatriotic. I deplore it deeply because in each Panamanian I see a friend and brother, and because for that land I would with only days of glory and well-fought the road it follows leads to suicide, and even now it is not too late to reflect and save Panama from the horrible consequences."

"The Departments of Cauca and Antioquia and the whole of Colombia, without political or social distinctions, will rise like one man to defend the national integrity. General Crie-Urbe, General Benjamin Herrera and all Liberals have offered their services to the government. An army of 100,000 men is now being organized to be commanded by both Liberal and Conservative leaders, will soon march on the isthmus.

"The fact that American help was asked for and accepted by Panama characterizes the movement as treasonable to the fatherland, misleading in sentiment and offensive to the national dignity."

"VICTOR SALAZAR."

Since 1902, when Admiral Caceres refused to permit the transportation of the Colombian troops on the Panama Railroad, General Salazar has entertained a bitter dislike for the people of the United States. At that time he called through the Associated Press a sensational protest to the world against the action of Admiral Caceres.

General Salazar is most infamous to the younger element of Colombians. He is courageous and energetic, but of a quixotic nature, and probably believes his statement that an army of 100,000 is being organized will stun the people of the new Republic.

COLOMBIAN PRESS WAXES WARM

Roosevelt and Congress the Targets of Violent Denunciation.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The press of Colombia continues severely to criticize and denounce the American Government for its action in isthmian matters and the recognition of the Republic of Panama. This is shown in a dispatch received at the State Department last night from Minister Benaura at Bogota. President Roosevelt, the United States Congress and the American people are the targets of violent denunciation. No uneasiness is felt by the department for the Minister's personal safety.

Hon. Henry L. Wilson, the United States Minister to Chile, in a dispatch to the State Department, reports that the action of the United States in isthmian affairs is receiving the support and sympathy of the press and leading politicians and citizens of that country.

The Panama Commissioners, Dr. Amador and Mr. Boyd, left the city this morning, presumably for New York, where M. Bana-Varilla, the Minister from Panama, has preceded them.

The Colombian Commissioners from the State of Bolivar, Doncebo Jimenez and Antonio Blanco, who came to the United States by way of Galveston, Tex., arrived at Washington today. The party went at once to call on Dr. Herran, the Charge of the Colombian Legation, with whom they spent the greater portion of the evening. The Commissioners have no diplomatic functions whatsoever, said Dr. Herran tonight, and whatever report they take back to their own country will be made to the Governor of Bolivar only.

APPEAL MADE TO NICARAGUA

Colombia Asks for Its Moral Support in Dealing With Panama.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Nov. 22.—President Marroquin, of the Republic of Colombia, has sent a circular to President Zelaya, of Nicaragua, asking for his moral support in dealing with the present situation on the isthmus. President Zelaya has telegraphed to the Presidents of all the Central American countries proposing to them that they combine with him in an answer to President Marroquin. The idea has been accepted by the various executives, but it has not yet been decided what form the combined answer shall take.

President Zelaya was recently President Marroquin's bitter enemy, openly aiding the Colombian Liberals in their efforts to overthrow Marroquin during the last revolution.

German Diplomat Banquets.

BOGOTA, Nov. 22.—The German Minister today gave a banquet to the Colombian Ministers for War and Foreign Relations during which he said he deplored the occurrences on the isthmus of Panama.

Discussing the situation, the Bogota press says that in case an amicable agreement should be requested between the Government of Panama, that the canal treaty be ratified and political and administrative autonomy be granted to Panama, the former department remaining in the United States of Colombia only for the purpose of dealing with international questions.

Malcontents Invited to Leave.

COLOM, Nov. 22.—A proclamation published on the street corners here today invites all malcontents to leave the country at the expense of the republic.

COST OF VOTES.

Big Bill Devery's 2935 Averaged $13.63 Apiece.

New York Press.

Devery spent $40,000 on his majority campaign. He got 2935 votes. That made each vote cost him $13.63. His official report as to his expenditures may not confirm these figures, but they are correct. They were furnished by one of his constituents.

Of course, the "philosopher of the pump" never had an idea he could be elected, but that doesn't alter his charge. He did expect to make a good showing, and he would have wagered a fortune that more than 2,000 ballots would be cast for him. There's a lot of self-conceit in the "chief," and it was a shock to him when he realized that, who knew so much about "graft," had been milked by a lot of grafters who took his money, shouted and hurraed for him and then voted for Tammany.

Devery realizes also that he is nothing but a joke. He took himself seriously for a long time, but those 2935 votes awakened him to the truth.

Some things Devery brought to light in the late campaign gave an idea of the amazing amount of money he has used in political fights. He bragged that he gave $50,000 to the Bryan fund in 1900, $25,000 to the Shepard campaign fund in 1901, and said he refused to comply with a demand for $150,000 for "Legislature party" while he was Chief of Police. Devery spent $25,000 on his first fight for the Tammany leadership of the Ninth district and $8000 in his second fight. His trip to Saratoga to the Democratic State Convention cost $500, for he took nearly 400 of his "boys" with him. This, with the $40,000 he spent for the Majority race, makes a total of $137,500 he has gotten rid of within three years on politics. Those who ought to know say this doesn't begin to cover his expenditures, for he has had half a dozen lawyers to assist him in his legal battles over the leadership of the Ninth district and controversies connected with his political tangles.

If the spending of this great sum has affected Devery financially he gives no evidence of it. Real estate men say he has more than $500,000 worth of unencumbered property, and in addition to this he is understood to have about $200,000 in good securities.

Whatever may be the public belief as to how Devery got his wealth, he insists he got it this way:

"I had money when I was 14 years old. I then owned a tenement-house at No. 213 East Fifty-fourth street. Thirty-five years ago my uncle, 'Steve' Geoghegan, the man who gave 'Dick' Croker his start, died and left me $40,000. That gave me my start. It was on account of friendship for my uncle that Croker pushed me along in the Police Department. Croker never forgot a friend. Graft? There's lots of it in the Police Department, but there was nothing 'dein' with Mr. Devery."

TERM IT DEEP PLOT

Employers Charge Death of Men to Miners.

REWARD FOR DYNAMITERS

Colorado Outrage Causes Governor to Reinstate Adjutant-General Bell as Commander of the Militia—Trouble Brewing in Utah.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., Nov. 22.—Sheriff

Robertson, after investigating conditions in the sixth level of the Vindicator mine, where Superintendent Charles McCormack and Shift Boss Melvin Beck were killed yesterday by an explosion, coincided with the statement of the officials of the Vindicator Company that a deliberate attempt had been made to wreck the shaft with dynamite. The executive committee of the Mineworkers and Operators' Association has offered a reward of $500 for evidence leading to the arrest and conviction of the perpetrators of the crime. In a published statement the committee says:

"The killing of Superintendent McCormack and Melvin Beck, of the Vindicator mine, was one of the most diabolical crimes that ever darkened the annals of Colorado, and is another step in the trail of blood which has been made by the Western Federation of Miners in this state."

"The time has passed for selecting fine terms in which to speak of these matters, and we do not hesitate to say this crime was devised and executed by the inner circles of this organization."

"This statement is made only after a careful investigation of the facts, which show conclusively that these men met their death through a scheme so cunningly devised and carefully executed as to tax the ingenuity of the most experienced criminals."

"Of late the district has been filling up with this class of men, who openly boast of what they propose to do. Not a single circumstance surrounding this crime is compatible with the theory of accident and with any other theory than that of premeditated murder."

The district executive committee of the Western Federation of Miners characterizes the explosion as a "lamentable accident regretted by all," and adds:

"But prejudiced individuals, who rarely know anything of what they talk about, have already passed judgment and denounce it as a cold-blooded murder. Experience teaches, however, that these people are not above making capital out of any public misfortune."

In consequence of this outrage, Governor Peabody has reinstated Adjutant-General Sherman M. Bell in command of the militia forces in this camp, succeeding Colonel Edward Verdeckburg, who has been in command since Bell's retirement at the close of the court-martial trial of General John Chase.

The military authorities at various hours today, by order of General Bell, who is now in the Cripple Creek district, made the following arrests in connection with the plot to disable the Vindicator Mine on Bull Hill: Charles G. Kennison, W. J. Eastery, W. F. Davis, John Schoolcraft, Gus Johnson, P. J. Isabell, Bob Rowland, Victor Poole, Harry Williams, Ed. Fleming, H. P. Jones, Sherman Parker, Frank Craze and Bode R. Adams. Adams is a brother of Stephen Adams, the miner who was arrested last night. Sherman Parker is chairman of District Union No. 1's strike committee, and Kennison and Davis are also members of that committee. Nearly all of the men arrested are members of the Miners' Union and are charged either directly or indirectly as accessories to blowing up the mine.

UTAH SHERIFF WANTS TROOPS

With Lawlessness From Strike.

SALT LAKE, Nov. 22.—Sheriff Wilcox, of Carbon County, has appealed to Governor Wells to call out the state troops to protect the coal mine districts of his county, which are included in the recent strike order issued by the United Mineworkers of America.

"The local police authorities and Deputy Sheriffs are not sufficient and are powerless to cope with the lawlessness and protect life and property and maintain law and order," Sheriff Wilcox says in his telegram to the Governor.

"My resources are exhausted, and therefore I believe it my duty to call upon you, as Governor of the state, for aid and assistance at Scofield, Castle Gate and Sunnyside."

Sheriff Wilcox says he has already arrested several parties who were carrying firearms for the purpose of intimidating men who wished to work, and reports that at Scofield men have been assaulted and threatened with death if they persisted in working against the strike agitators. Brigadier-General John Q. Cannon, commanding the state National Guard, left

Miners Resent the Action of the Agents of President Mitchell.

TRINIDAD, Colo., Nov. 22.—The beginning of the third week of the coal strike in the southern coal fields find both sides determined to fight to the end.

It is the intention of the United Mineworkers of America to put up a strong fight against the application for temporary injunction sought by the Victor Fuel Company, and set for hearing on the 25th. They believe if the injunction is granted, and later made permanent, the strike is absolutely lost to them.

Trouble has broken out in the ranks of the strikers. It leaked out today that Grant Hamilton, of the American Federation of Labor, was here last Wednesday and got the consent of the strike managers for a settlement of the strike in the Northern Colorado coal fields. He telegraphed this information, together with the statement that he would leave for Denver that noon, accompanied by Chris Evans and J. F. Beam, who represent John Mitchell in the conduct of the strike. "Mother" Jones and President Howells, of District 15, United Mineworkers, followed on the next train and went to Louisville, where they united all that Mr. Hamilton had accomplished. The action of "Mother" Jones and Howells in persuading the strikers to remain on strike, is taken here to indicate that there is a feeling of revolt against the continued reign of Mitchell. The feeling is growing so strong that it threatens to disrupt District 15 of the organization.

Bates Arrives to Investigate.

DENVER, Nov. 22.—General John C. Bates, U. S. A., arrived in Denver today to investigate the strike conditions in Colorado. Upon his report depends whether the War Department will comply with Governor Peabody's request to send Federal troops to Telluride.

After a visit to General Baldwin, commander of this department, General Bates said in an interview that his being here was no indication on General Baldwin's part of any intention to send Federal troops to Telluride.
