Santa Is Swinging 'Round the Circle

Forty hours from the moment we open our doors to the Christmas shopping throngs this morning old Kris Kingle will silently alight on Portland's roofs, descend the chimney and fill the Xmas stockings with gladness Yuletide cheer. The time for Christmas shopping is growing short. The Star of Bethlehem is rising in the East and the Wise Men have already gone forth. The eleventh hour is at hand, and the generous breath of Christmas spreads over all Christendom, warm from the nostrils of its patron saint. What does it breathe? "PEACE ON EARTH, GOOD WILL TOWARD MEN." Yes, that's the Christmas spirit—generous, free, forgiving, open-hearted hospitality to all the world. Let us all lay aside all personal enmities and prejudices and unite now in one grand Christmas anthem. Let the gift-giving spirit pervade. If careless, unscrupulous stores choose to allow their paid pensioners to grovel in the slime of falsehood, billingsgate and vituperation—pass them and theirs by on the other side. "The wounded bird flutters," gasps, and falls into the barnyard stench and filth of slander and oblivion, and the Public cares not. WHAT'S THE "DIFFERENT STORE" DOING TODAY? IS THE QUES-TION. WHAT'S THE LATEST CHRISTMAS NEWS FROM PORTLAND'S BEST HOLIDAY SHOP? Well, it's good news—of great savings—if you'll be wise and shop before 12 o'clock—this noon.

A GOOD NEWS STORY TOLD AGAIN—It is said that John Wesley, the founder of Methodism, once said to his wife: "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" His wife answered: "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." Susanna Wesley unwittingly created an aphorism that is at once forceful and correct—"ONCE TELLING IS NOT ENOUGH." So we tell you again the reason for these WON-DERFUL MATCHLESS HOURLY MORNING BARGAIN SALES!
In order to somewhat ease the strain and better divide the day's business we make it worth your while to DO YOUR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING THIS MORNING between the hours of 8 A. M. and NOON by offering the following GRAND BARGAIN SPECIALS—on sale only during hours specified in each item—BUT BEAR IN MIND, NOT ONE OF THE ADVERTISED SPECIAL HOURLY SALE BARGAINS CAN BE BOUGHT ONE MOM-ENT BEFORE OR AFTER THE HOURS SPECIFIED HERE AT LESS THAN REGULAR PRICES. IT WILL PAY YOU TO SHOP HERE BEFORE 12 TODAY—after that comes the regular holiday business.
