RICHARDS

Restaurant and Bachelor Apartments,
Most Artistic and Handsomely
Appointed Tavern
in the West.

Richards' Restaurant and bachelor apartments, which were thrown open to the public December 24th, last, is the culmination of a ten-weeks' trip that Mr. T. I. Richards made for the purpose of visiting the principal cafes in the various cities throughout the country in order to get the latest ideas and fancies for his establishment. The building, which is on southeast corner of Alder and Park streets, was modeled after the most approved and latest designs. The result is that in a limited way "Richards" represents Delmonico's, Marchand's and the Touraine; that is, ideas from these cafes of national note have been incorporated in "Richards."

The restaurant is Colonial in style and is the most exquisite cafe in point of artistic taste and appointments to be found in the West. The artist who had charge of the decorations was brought from New York; and according to the opinion of connoisseurs of art, the scenes depicted on the ceiling and walls are true to life and are par excellence. On the rear wall is a beautiful Southern scene, which instantly attracts the eye. The picture bursts forth in a profusion of tropical trees, plants, and foliage. In the foreground is a mansion overlooking a beautiful, placid stream; and in the distance is a "gondola" and from here the scene passes into the realm of imagination. The ceiling represents the figure of Bacchante in all her radiance; attended by cupids and sirens. The color effect is natural and striking. From the ceiling hangs a chandelier emitting a subdued light, and from the embellishment spring forth numerous incandescent lights of varied colors. On either side of the cafe are other Colonial scenes, which suggest pleasant thoughts and memories of "ye olden times."

The apartments are elaborately fitted up. Each room has a distinct color scheme, which is carried out to the minutest detail, the furnishings and fresco work harmonizing in a pleasing manner. To the guest is assured the most cordial and courteous treatment, as Mr. Richards' reputation for being an agreeable and pleasing host is known from Portland to New York.
