Chinese Bandits Extremely Cruel to Christians.

MINISTER CONGER CALLED ON

Legs of Missionaries Who Would Not Pay Blackmail Were Broken and Several Have Died From the Injuries Received.

PEKIN, Jan. 11.—Missionaries of the American Board of Foreign Missions complained strongly recently to United States Minister Conger that their converts in the District of Pao Ting Fu were being looted by bandits who professed to be Catholics, and that a reign of terror prevailed in the district. The Chinese officials feared to act, and several Christians who refused to pay blackmail were tortured. Their legs were broken and some died from their injuries. Minister Conger requested the Chinese government to suppress the bandits, but his demand was without apparent result.

Secretary Williams, after a week's personal investigation, effected an arrangement with the officials of the district, who promised to protect the people, if Minister Conger would cease to make complaints, which injured them at the seat of government. Secretary Williams is not satisfied that the bandits are Catholics. The Catholic bishop disclaims them.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—It is understood that the President will not reappoint H. Smith Woolley as assayer for the Boise City, Idaho, office. Woolley was named by the President for the Boise assayer's position last September, a recess appointment.

Subsequent to the time of the appointment charges were filed against him by two editors of Boise newspapers. The charges were brought to the President's attention, and as they were of such a nature and from such a source as to demand consideration he directed the Treasury Department to institute an investigation of them. The investigation was completed today. A brief was made of the case by the Treasury officials and presented to the President. It is understood that while the brief does not contain a specific recommendation it practically sustains the charges made against Woolley.
