WASHINGTON, Jan. E.-The Senate today heard further discussion on the question of appointments to office made during Congressional recesses, listened to a speech on the isthmian canal question by Mr. Morgan, and passed a number of bills of a semi-public character.

As a result of the debate on the applications of the debate on the applications.

C. was passed. A resolution asking for similar information concerning the nom-ination of Brigadier-General Wood and other Army officers went over until to-

When the Senate met, Culberson intro-When the Senate met, Cuinerson intro-duced a resolution drawn by a committee appointed at a recent Democratic con-ference, for the purpose of getting addi-tional information concerning the Panama situation. The members of the committee were Senators Gorman. Culberson, Car-mack and Cockrell. The resolution follows: "Resolved, That the President be requested to inform the Senate whether all the correspondence and notes between the Department of State and the Legation of the United States at Bogota, and be-tween either of these and the Government of Colombia for the construction of an isthmian canal and all the correspondence and notes between the United States and any of its officials and representatives and the government of Panama concerning the separation of Panama from Colombia have been sent to the Senate, and if not that he be requested to send the remain-ing correspondence and notes to the Senin executive session

When the resolution had been read, Cullom with the other Republican members of the Senate committee on foreign rela-tions, decided not to oppose its passage, if the Democrats would consent to an amondment providing that the President shall send the information "if not incom-patible with the public interest." The res-olution now is mandatory and Democratic nators say if amended it will be as ef-Senators say it among it is factive as other resolutions on the same subject which are on the calendar. The resolution went over ander the rules.

Crum Apportionment Called Up. Tiliman called up his resolution, asking the judiciary committee to report what constitutes a recess of the Senate. Hale argued that the December nomination of Collector Crum was not a new appoint-ment, and the Controller of the Currency would meet the question of the right to draw salary when the matter came be-fore him. He said the original nomination shows that the President has not committed himself to any contructive recess between the extraordinary session and the at assulpn of the Senate, Mitchell interposed that the nominations sent in do not give the nominees (meaning Col-lector Crum, General Wood and others) the right to hold office.

Tillman read a letter from Secretary of the Treasury Shaw, reciting the various appointments of Mr. Crum to the Charleston S. C., Collectorship, and giving the version that the last appointment was made precisely at 12 o'clock noon, on the first Monday in December, when one sesnded and another began.

Hale said the matter was not of special significance, and the question is not a new one, and that Mr. Crum is still serving on his appointment.

Tillman said that Mr. Crum is holding office just the same, and added: 'I notice, too, that Mr. Leonard Wood is sending out dispatches from the Philippines, singing hmiself Major-General, and he is not a Major-General."

Continuing, he said his resolution was consideration, and not the nomination of Crum or Wood.

Tilman then presented a resolution, which was agreed to without debate, requesting of the Secretary of the Treasury questing information regarding the four appointments of W. D. Crum to be Collector of Customs at the Port of Charleston, S. C. More Clerks or Shorter Hours.

Morgan then addressed the Senate on his resolution instructing the President to enter into negotiations with the govern-ments of Nicaragua and Costa Rica lookments of Nicaragua and Costa Rata ing to the construction of a canal via the Nicaragua route. He contended that the protocols with Nicaragua and Costa Rica negotiated by President McKinley were binding on the United States. The piedge then given, was, he said, a sacred thing and to violate it would not only be con-tempt for McKinley's memory but for Nicaragua and Costa Rica. The agreements could not be obliterated, he said, by closing our eyes to them, but on the contrary they would live to reproach us if we permitted the President to violate

Morgan declared the President had willfully violated the Spooner act requiring him to turn to the Nicaragua route in case of failure to secure desirable concessions for the Panama route. House Passes Bill Carrying Approximately $75,000,000. WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.-The House today passed the Army appropriation carrying approximately $75,000,000, after adopting a number of amendments.

The provision for the consolidation of the Adjutant-General's department and the Record and Pension Office of the War Department into one bureau, to be known as the Military Secretary's Of-fice, was stricken from the bill on a point of order raised by Grosvenor (O.).

The item of $400,000 for the construc-tion of an Army general hospital at Washington also went out on a point of order, as did the paragraph providing for the construction of a submarine cabl from Sitka to Fort Liscum.

A resolution calling on the Secretary of State for information as to the number of carriages maintained by the Government for the State Department was adopted. Adams (Pa.) reported the reso Hitchcock (Dem., Neb.) sought to amend the resolution so as to make it read "during the calendar year," saying the omission of these words would leave a loophole, but Adams demanded the previous question, and on this Hitchcock called for yeas and nays, which were

"I should think," Hull replied, "that the time never will come when the United States would not have troops in the Philippines any more than the time had come when we have not had troops in the State of New York and the State of Illinois."

The provise fixing the limit of the cost ginson. of construction of any hospital at $50.000 went out on a point of order raised by Hemenway (Ind.), the present legal limit being $20,000.

The paragraphs appropriating $400,000 for an Army general hospital in the District of Columbia, and creating a fund from the sale of ordnance and ord-nance stores, and making it available for replacing such stores, went out on points of order as new legislation, and a like fate met the provision for the con-solidation of the adjutant-general's de-partment and the Records and Pension Office of the War Department into a bureau to be known as the Military Secre-

The Thursday wednesday according Secretary Root has learn will day evening preceding, Senator Alger will give a reception in honor of the retiring Secretary, at which Governor Taft will

The fact has developed that Secretary Root himself originally selected Governor Taft for the important post of Governor of the Philippines, and the reasons for the choice are interesting. Mr. Vanderbilt had purchased abroad the big steam yacht Conqueror, and when the vessel came to New York the customs collector sought to impose a heavy duty on her as an imported article. Mr. Vanderbit retained Mr. Reot to defend the case. The present Secretary and Mr. Taft, then Solicitor-General, met in the legal arena of the Supreme Court of the United States, where Mr. Root won his case. The argument made by the Solicitor-General, however, excited his admiration, and when Scoretary Root cast about for the best man for the delicate and difficult post of Governor of the Philippines, he hose Mr. Taft.
