BOOSTER GAVE INFORMATION

City Swarmed With Gamblers and Games Under Wide-Open Policy Instituted by Mayor-Fugitives Caught at Trains.

PENDLETON, Or., Feb. 12.—(Special).—Quietly and without any warning whatsoever District Attorney Thomas G. Halley, in company with Sheriff T. D. Taylor and Deputy Sheriff C. P. Davis, armed with 64 warrants, swooped down on the gambling-houses this afternoon and closed every game in the city. The raid was thorough and tonight there is not a single back room or little game of any kind going on in the gambling-houses.

Mayor Runs Wide-Open Town.

T. G. Halley, the District Attorney, was formerly Mayor of the town, and was elected on the anti-gambling ticket. During his administration gambling was forced upstairs and almost completely stamped out. Last December W. F. Minklock was elected Mayor, to succeed Halley, on a gambling ticket. When he assumed control of affairs the first of January the word was passed around that the town would be wide open.

Gambling games sprang up like mushrooms over night, and every house was running full blast within a day or two. The boss gamblers, eight in number, were brought up before the City Recorder and fined $100 each, it being understood that amount would entitle them to run for three months. Gamblers stocked in from all parts of the Northwest, and the town became fast.

When Halley's Charge Came.

District Attorney Halley threatened to close them, but could not get sufficient evidence. He wanted to make a clean sweep or none at all. Chance favored him, and one night a booster in Lester Swagart's gambling-house sat down and played faro, beating the bank out of something over $100. He then gathered up his winnings and started to pocket them. The dealer called a halt, but the booster said he had been playing his own money.

The matter was reported to the police, but they could do nothing, so to get even the booster went to District Attorney Halley, and gave the names of every boss gambler and dealer in the city. Circuit Court convenes here Monday, and Mr. Halley prepared the informations and they were filed this afternoon.

Arrested Every One in Sight.

The informations were recorded about 3 o'clock and by 4 o'clock the officers were quietly walking into the gambling places armed with the necessary papers and arrested every man either running games or playing at the table, regardless of whether or not they had the warrant. Deputy Sheriff Joe Blakely started to herd the men in a cigar store on Main street as fast as they were arrested, but soon the quarters became crowded, and he moved them down the street to the rear of a saloon, which was soon well filled with anxious and frightened gamblers, dealers and boosters.

Will Probably Be Fined.

The entire list will be arraigned before Circuit Judge Ellis Saturday morning, and it is understood that they will be fined $100 each. District Attorney Halley says he is determined to stamp out gambling, and will do so regardless of the wishes of the administration. The gamblers who were arrested tonight were: Ed Noble, William Krebs, O. Gibson, Sam Endicott, Ed Sonder, Al Ogg, Lester Swagart, A. Miller, Sam Miller, Charles Estes, Henry Sparks, Jess Salling, Eugene Stanton, Oscar Rust, George Hinker, Jess Sellers, John Burdett, Andrew Deal, James Roberts, Bill Bogard, Eugene Moran, Asa Rayburn, Lewis Bergavin, Shelly Jones, J. Hayes, Art Hicks, William George, John Rust, Frank Chana, Ed Sauer, John Easter, Charles Johnson, and others.

MASS OF SORES

Awful Suffering of a Boy from an Itching Humour.

CURED BY CUTICURA

Not One Square Inch of Skin on His Whole Body Was Unaffected.

"My little son, a boy of five, broke out with an itching rash. Three doctors prescribed for him, but he kept getting worse until we could not dress him any more. They finally advised me to try a certain medical college, but the treatment did not do any good. At the time I was induced to try Cuticura Remedies he was so hot that I had to cut his hair off and put the Cuticura Ointment on him on bandages, as it was impossible to touch him with the bare hands. I began to think that he would never get well, but after the second application of Cuticura Ointment I began to see signs of improvement, and with the third and fourth applications the sores commenced to dry up. His skin peeled off twenty times, but it finally yielded to the treatment. I used the Cuticura Resolvent for his blood, and now I can say that he is entirely cured, and a stronger and healthier boy you never saw than he is today."

ROBERT WATTAM, 4922 Center Ave., Chicago, Ill., Dec. 30, 1897.

No return in six years. Mr. Wattam writes, Feb. 25, 1908.
