CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 21.-The dip omatic relations between Turkey and Montenegro are strained almost to the breaking point, and the Porte has withdrawn her Minister from Cettinje.

The whole trouble grew out of the trip of a Montenegrin war vessel up the Boy ans River. This action, seconding to the Turkish Foreign Office, was in direct violation of the treaty of Berlin, and Ahmed Fevzi Pasha, the Turkish Minister, with his entire legation staff, was recalled. garian agent in Paris, made the follow ment today:

"I can give the most formal assurance that Bulgaria has more than ever resolved to do nothing to compromise the peace. It is with great satisfaction we have seen the powers elaborate a plan for reforms in Maccdonia, and we wish, without any resrvation, the reforms realized. Above all, at this moment, when the powers are following with anxiety the events in the Far East, Bulgaria will avoid doing anything that would cause the belief that she proposes to profit by the crisis. The Bulgarian people have unanimously expressed warm sympathy for Russia.

"It is unfortunate that Turkey persists in her regrettable hostility. Beannoying police measures she has taken against our people, our commerce suffers serious obstacles; and finally, the contin-ued concentration of Turkish troops along our frontier and the mobilization of troops at strategic points is menacing us."

M. Zoltovitz said there is a war party in Constantinople which has a preponderating influence, and quoted from consular reports to the effect that the Turks fear a military insurrection it was with Bulgaria. military insurrection if war with Bulgaria

"In the light of these facts," M. Zoltowitz concluded, "it is natural that Bulgaria, too, should be preparing."

FRICTION WITH CHINA.

Japan Demands Expulsion of Russlan Gunboat From Shanghai.

SPECIAL CABLE TO THE LONDON TIMES

AND PORTLAND OREGONIAN.
SHANGHAI, Feb. II.—There is a possibility of complications arising over the action of the government in consenting to permit a Russian gunboat to be dismantled and tied up here to wait the end of the war.

Last evening the Japanese Consul personally visited the Chinese Governor of Shanghai and demanded that he direct the Commander of the Mandjur to leave the port in 24 hours. The Taotal (Governor) went at once to the Russian Consul and told him that the warship must leave port within a reasonable time, as it was a viotold him that the warship must leave port within a reasonable time, as it was a violation of neutrality for her to remain, even though her guns were removed and she were tied up for the remainder of the war. The Russian Consul repiled that he had no authority to order the vessel to sail and referred the Chinese officers to the Russian Minister at Pekin.

Later he informed the Taotal that the gunboat was in the harbor under an arrangement approved by the Chinese government and that she must be allowed to remain.

Under the arrangements, he declared, the Mandjur was to be considered a non-combatant and would remain stationary through the war.

The Japanese Consul was notified of this arrangement and expressed his dissuitification in emphatic terms. He declared the action of China in permitting the vessel to remain in port was without precedent and in direct violation of neutrality. The Japanese Consul maintained that the pressure of a Russian warship in a neutral port was prejudical to the re-establishment of regular merchant services. ice with Japanese ports. The Taotal has taken no action on this latest protest.

The Russian authorities insist that there is no truth in the story that 1000 Japanese, landed at Pigeon of Dove Bay, had been annihilated. Port Arthur is said to be entirely out of beef and vegetables and is drawing on Doiny for a slight supply. Troops are being rushed towards the Yalu with all expedition possible. The Minister is quoted as having said:
