

RACE MEETING IN AUGUST

Annual Races at Irvington Assured-Attempt to Secure Dates in July Foiled by Seattle's Superior Claims.

The Multhomah Fair Association of Portland is now a full-fledged member of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club, and from now on, with anything like luck, from now on, with anything like luck. Portland will have a yearly race meet that will be worth while. The Portland Racing Association was taken into the Pacific Coast fold at a meeting held in San Francisco on Monday and, while President R. A. Diamond did not serure the racing dates he would have liked. They are those allowed are acceptable. They are t 8 to 20 was no more than to be expected that Seattle, whose race meeting last year was a success, locally if not from the horsomen's standpoint, would have the call when it came to the choice of dates. Mr. Diamond would have liked to get the race date in July. Seattle would have liked to unload upon Port-land dates early in June, but Mr. Diamond was on hand to checkmate this move on the part of A. T. Van De Vanter. To have given Portland the July dates it wanted would have been the means of dividing the Seattle race meet, which could hardly be expected, when it is con-sidered that the coming race meet in Portland is a sort of experiment, while at Senttle it has been proven that a long meeting can and does pay.

Good Meet is Assured.

While it is true that Mr. Diamond went to the San Francisco meeting hoping to get the Portland dates for July, it goes without saying that the associatio accept the August dates given it. Mr. nd's wish to have the July dates is two-fold, first because of the fair weather which usually prevails during the mid-Summer month and, second, because the exodus of Portland soclety does not take place until August. A July meeting would have assured a better attendance, but it is expected that when it becomes known that between 500 and 600 of the best horses racing on the Pacific Coast will be stabled at the Irvington track during the meeting, Summer, vacations will be postponed two weeks in order to attend the races. The dates, August 1 to 20, aside from the fact that a great number of the people go to the seasific, could not have been better chosen. It may conflict a bit with baseball, but who will go to a basebali game when the bangtails are romping over the turf?

Men Who Revived Racing.

Now that the Multnomah Fair Asso-clation is a member of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club, it might be worth while to throw a few bouquets to those men who have made the thing possible, R. A. Dia-mond. Lewis H. Adams and Sanford Hirsch and others. When these gentle-men took hold of the racing problem they were met at every turn with. "You can't make it go." But they did make it go. The brief meeting held last Fall was a success, but the croakers were not silenced. They contended that the racing game in Portland had received a death blow at the hallds of the gamblers who had been fostering it and, no matter what was done or who was back of it, it could not be revived and placed on a sound financial basis. But these men alld revive interest and, what is more, they established a financial' standing among the horsemen that has traveled, not only on the Coast, but wherever rac-ing has been held this Winter. For perhaps the first time in the history of the Irvington track the purses were paid after each race, a thing so surprising to the horsemen that they never tired of talking about it. Some of the harness men who had raced at Irvington several years

Kincald Field to Be Drained.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene March 8.-(Special.)-E. R. Mummery was yesterday awarded the contract to drain Kincaid Field and make ready for the trackmen to begin training. The contract was let for $190, and the work is to be completed within three weeks. urses of six-inch tiling with an 18-inch fall are to be fall across the field at intervals of 20 feet, and a course of larger tilling will be laid around the entire athletic grounds. The plan of drainage is elaborate and will prove effective. It is a source of great satisfaction and encouragement to the track athletes to realize that the students generally are deeply interested in Spring athletics and an enthusiastic squad of strong material is now training in the gymnasium and anxiously awaiting for enough sunshine to permit of outdoor work.

Captain Perkins has received orders from Trainer Haywood, and will take charge of the squad until Haywood ar-rives early in April. Sprinting in the gymnasium and tumbling with an oc-casional cross-country run has been the course of training thus far. Manager Tomlinson has arranged no definite schedule of meets as yet, but he is negotiating for contests with the lead-ing colleges of Oregon, as well as the University of Washington.

Hoguiam Not in the League. HOQUIAM, Wash., March 8.-(Special.)

At a meeting of the Hoquiam baseball team last evening it was decided that the team throw the league proposition aside and proceed to make a schedule with Aberdeen for the coming season. The harbor towns wanted the league to run as it did last season, but Harmon, who has the management of Centralia, has hung out for a 50 per cent division of the gate receipts, to which the harbor towns would not agree. Manager Brewer, of the team, resigned owing to not being able to give it pro-per attention, and Ralph L. Philbrick, who so successfully managed the bunch last year, was elected to the position. The grandstand, fence and other fixtures of the old association will be bought in by the new team, and they will go ahead securing three players for the season. Everything looks good for a prosperous season this year.
