TO TALK ON MINING

Mass-Meeting of Citizens Is Called for Tonight.

ARRANGING FOR CONGRESS

Executive Committee of American Mining Congress Will Prepare Programme and Address Business Men.

The mass-meeting to be held at the Commercial Club this evening in honor of the officers of the American Mining Congress promises to be one of the most enthusiastic and spontaneous gatherings of Portland's citizens held in years. Al-though it has been arranged on short notice, assurances are coming in from every direction which indicate that the meeting will be thoroughly representa-tive. Seven hundred postal card invita-tions have been sent out, and it is probable that the capacity of the clubrooms will be taxed

Governor George B. Chamberiain will breside, and addresses will be delivered by Mayor Williams, President J. H. Richards, of Bolge: Vice-President Fhomas Ewing, of California, and Secretary Irwin Mahon, of the Congress. The Immittee in charge, which consists of L. Morris, P. W. Custer, O. M. Crouch, Mosessohn and W. E. Coman, has been very active in the brief time allowed them for arranging details. The meeting is of the utmost importance to Portland and the state, and it is imperative that everyone interested in the upbuilding of the community realize this.

The Mining Congress is, in all probability, the greatest National organization which will ever visit this section. It represents hundreds of millions of capital and the best brains of the country. Men of international reputation as ora-tors and financiers, Cabinet Ministers, members of the National Legislature and industrial experts will lead the discus-sions. The railroads have offered alluring rates and thousands of delegates and visitors will be drawn here for the ses-sion. It will serve to magnificently advertise the city, state and the Lewis and Clark Fair. The sessions will occupy a week at a time when Portland is at her best and to make it the red-letter week of her history, the citizens should rise to the occasion and be satisfied with nothing short of a triumph. The various commercial bodies have taken the inlative calling tonight's meeting, which will be the opening of a five months' cam-paign to make good the challenge that Oregon, and Portland in particular, are the best places on earth. Colonel Ewing stated the case last evening when he said: "This coming meeting is the most critical one in the history of the Congress. It will be a turning point and the most important surning point and the most important mession, by long odds, which we have ever held. Matters of the highest importance will be considered and acted upon. Every responsible mining man in the country will want to come, and an army of them will be here, along with representatives of the Government, of transportation companies and financial concerns. It will do more to bring this city and state into prominence than a and state into prominence than a half million dollars spent in advertising. I know Oregon thoroughly. Her mineral resources have only been scratched. This state has more undeveloped mineral deposits than any similar area in the civilized world. You want capital to know the facts. Oregon's pesources, particularly her mines, will be featured by the Con-gress. If you people take hold properly, millions of dollars can be brought into the state for development purposes, which in turn will yield multiplied millions in products. Portland, as the center and distributing point, will derive untold benefits from the awakening which will follow our sessions. Within 20 days I have been told by responsible men in the Black Hills District that between four and or responsible men in the Black Hills District that between four and five millions of dollars have been invested in South Dakota as the direct result of our meeting at Deadwood last year. These figures can be doubled at the belief that he is a musician in some variety theater. rebief here, if you people will take advantage of the opportunity and go in to win. One day of our session will be devoted to the 1966 Fair, and it will be advertised as it could not possibly be in any other way. At Dendwood last year any other way. At Deadwood inst year I did everything in my power to bring this meeting here. My heart is set upon making it the greatest ever held and I believe your people are public-spirited enough to justify my faith in them."

A conference of the executive committee of the Congress will be held this afternoon at the Portland Hotel. The programme of the National session will be outlined and a triple vice-resident. outlined and a third vice-presid will be elected to succeed the late Colo-nel John T. Grayson. J. Frank Watson, who is filling the place by appointment of the Church in Idaho. ing," said Judge J. H. Richards, of Boise, who stands at the head of the bar of that state, will in all probability be the paxt Governor, and is here in the ca-pacity of president of the American Mining Congress, at the Portland last even-

There is nothing remarkable in the fact, and it is not especially startling. The Mormons cast about one-third of the votes at our elections, and they are a prominent factor in our development. While some of them have moved over from Utah, by far the greater number are proselytes from other states and from Eu-rope. They are generally good citizens, and I see no reason to regard them as a menace. The reason for the increase in membership is easily found when one understands the interest the church takes in the material welfare of its members. "For instance, its missionaries in Sweden find a young man who has recently married and is anxious to get on in the world. He is young, strong and industrious, but poor. They offer him a farm in Idaho and every opportunity to improve his fortunes. They bring him over, put him on 80 acres of good land, the tithinghouse supplies him with a team, wagon and implements, the neighbors help him to build a log house and the bishop ad-vises him in matters of business. He is bound to succeed and he naturally looks upon the church as his best friend. There says he solid two solid gold watches and are no very poor in our Mormon settlements. Everybody works and the church has a paternal care that those who may be unfortunate are helped and protected. erally practiced among them and in the rare instances where it does exist the plural marriages were entered into years ago, long before the manifesto. I have visited in their homes and had many dealrisited in their homes and had many dealings with them, and have found them good people. As I say, they cast a third of our vote and could hold the balance of power if they voted as a unit; they do not do so. While to a certain extent the church officials advise their people in political matters, they do not require them to act together and do not use undue influence over them. I do not regard them as corrupt. The only danger as I see it is in legislative caucuses where they usually not together for the best in-tests of the church.

"The fight which Benator Dubois is mak-ing on the church is the fight of his life. He is making his campaign for re-election three years hence and will keep it up until three years hence and will keep it up until that time. He is a consummate politician, and has enlisted many powerful influences in his cause. If there is corruption in the Mormon Church in Utah and elsewhere, as he maintains, he will turn it upside down before he quits. If he can succeed in splitting both the political parties in Idaho on the religious question he will be returned to the Senate, but, if he falls, he will be down and out forever. He he will be down and out forever. He knows this and makes no secret of the fact that his political existence depends on the present fight.

"The confirmation of Woolly as Govern ment Assayer in our state is generally satisfactory to the people. The opposi-tion to him was entirely personal, and was not nearly so strong as outsiders have been led to believe. The Mormon ques-tion did not enter into the case to any considerable extent."

MAP OF RAILROADS.

Senate Committee Reports BIII to Have Government Prepare It.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Wash ington, March 20.—It is quite proba-ble that Congress will pass the bill recently introduced by Senator Elkins, of West Virginia, authorizing the director of the geological survey to issue a railroad map of the United States. It was the purpose of Senator Elkins in introducing this bill to have an official map showing all lines of railroad in the United States. Nothing of this sort has ever been published before by the Government, and shipping interests have been obliged to rely upon maps prepared by the rail-roads themselves. The inaccuracy of the average railroad

The inaccuracy of the average railroad map is everywhere recognized. In order to show all of the railroads in the United States and to designate each line by its proper name it will be necessary to make a map on a scale of 16 miles an inch, which would make a wait map 15% feet long and 10% feet high. To prepare plates to put out the first edition of the railroad map will cost $50,000.

WILL MODIFY GAME LAW.

Wilson Says New Alaska Legislation Will Then Be Unnecessary.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, March 26.—in a letter to Senator Ankeny, Secretary Wilson, of the Agri-cultural Department, expresses the opin-ion that no further legislation looking to the protection of game in Alaska is nec essary at this time. The Secretary be-lieves that ample protection can be at-forded under the present law, if the exist-ing regulations are modified. It is his purpose to extend the open season on bears to cover practically the whole year, to extend the open season on deer by at least two months, and to also extend the open season on water fowl. On the other hand, it is proposed to shorten the season for the killing of walrus and to further restrict the issuance of per-mits for the shipment of trophics from the Kenzi peninsula. With this regula-tion in force, the Secretary believes there will be no further complaint on account of the game laws in Alaska

The Associated Press In Asia.

The Associated Press, the chief ergan zation for news-gathering in America had nine trained war correspondents at strategic points in the East when fighting began, and immediately dispatched three more. Melville Stone, general manager of the Associated Press, obtained an au-dience with the Czar, and was promised that in the official dispatches by way of that in the official dispatches by way of that in the official dispatches by way of the Trans-Siberian telegraph line should be put at the service of the American company as quickly and extensively as the situation would allow, and Howard Thompson, a voteran war correspondent, was hurried to St. Petersburg to take charge. Consequently, New York has had the benefit of a number of Vicery Alexthe benefit of a number of Viceroy Alexieff's official reports only a few hours after they were received in St. Petersburg. Similarly, Mr. Egan, the Associated Press staff correspondent in Tokio, is persona the causes leading up to the war, Mr. Egan spent $3000 in cable tolls to get this document before New Yorkers' eyes a few hours before it would be given out through the Japanese Embassy in Washington, and succeeded in easily beating the official channels.

White Men and Japanese at War. William Armstrong and Charles Barr were arrested on a charge of assault and battery yesterday afternoon. The com-plainant, Gonji Nii, a Japanese, has two black eyes as evidence of the assault. The trouble occurred in a North End house on Friday night and the Japunese com-menced to make it too hot for Armstrong and his companion, who were forced to run without their hats. Armstrong and Barr rejurned for the hats yesterday aft-ernoon and were arrested by Officers Batty and Adams. Barr promptly furnished $20 ball and says he was not pres ent at the time of the trouble and will

Southern Democrats were never enthus astic over Bryan, nor did they originate the free silver demand, though they felt the need of more currency and it was generally believed among them that free colnage would supply the needed circula-tion. The South therefore gives up the Nebraska man without much of a pang, and a canvass of the Georgia State Com-mittee shows that is of the members are for "a sound, conservative candidate," six for Cleveland, five for Gorman, four for Parker, three for Hearst and three for anybody but Hearst. Georgia Democrats are certainly "same and dangerous."
