Prominent Nonconformist Layman Disagrees With Rev. Campbell.

LONDON, Murch 24.-Consternation has been caused in British Nonconformist circles by a speech of Robert W. Perks, Liberal member of Parliament for the Louth division of Linconshire, delivered at opening of a Methodist bazaar at Louth, in which he vigorously criticised the Rev. Reginald John Campbell, minister of the City Temple here. Both men are pillars of Nonconformity, one of them being practically the head of the ministry, and the other one of the most minent laymen. The two main points of Mr. Perks' attack were the Rev. Mr. Campbell's recent presentation at court by the Bishop of London, and the projected surplicing of Mr. Campbell's choir of the City Temple.

"I was sorry," said Mr. Perks, "to see few days are when Mr. Campbell a few days ago, when Mr. Campbell wished to go to court, that he asked the Bishop of London to present him to the King. What would have been said in the days gone by if Puritan preachers, per-secuted, not by Farliament, as they are now, but by a feeble Stuart King, had nsked Archbishop Laud to present them to King Charles? Mr. Campbell would have been far better advised if he had asked the veteran leader of Nonconform-ism, the Rev. James Guiness Rogers, to Introduce him to King Edward, instead of going to a levee hanging to the apron-strings of an Anglican bishop." Referring to the surplicing of the men and women of the choir in gowns and velvet caps, Mr. Perks said: "Ritualism is a steep and slippery slope. Possibly the next thing we shall see is Mr. Campbell marching around the aisles of the City Temple, followed by his sur-pliced choir, chanting a processional hymn, with the reluctant deacons behind. These are days when Nonconformity is confronted with a severe struggle. We expect our preachers to march with fearss, buoyant steps, and not become camp ollowers in the Anglican army."

The Rev. Mr. Campbell declines to discuss Mr. Perks' remarks.

Trying to Make Directors Testify. TRENTON, N. J., March 24.-Walter J Knight, receiver of the Tennessee Oil, Gas & Mineral Development Company, filed in the Court of Chancery today a bill of complaint against William A. Dunn and other directors of the company, asking that they be required to give festimon concerning the true status of the com-pany's property.

Receiver Knight asserts he has been unable to find any property representing anything like the value of the $1,00,000 worth of stock issued. He charges that the company was organized purely for speculation.
