FIRST SKIRMISH ON THE YALU Admiral Hosoga Makes an Official Report to Tokio.

TOKIO, April 12.—Details of the first skirmish on the Yalu River, which oc-curred last Sunday, arrived today in the official report of Admiral Hosoga. The text of the report follows:

"In accordance with my instructions, the Captain of the cruiser Kasaga directed Lieutenant Yamaguchi with five men to scout in the mouth of the Yalu. They ac-complished their work and safely returned to the Kasaga on Monday. They entered the river in a Corean junk and at 2 o'clock Sunday discovered a party of Russians leaving the right bank of the river near Tosuyho in a junk. Lieutenant Yamaguchi attacked them, a patrol of mounted Japanese troops on the left bank of the river joining in the attack. In the meantime, another large Russian junk joined the first one and opened fire on the Jap-anese. The Russians retired and reached the bank. They then fied inland. The exchange of fire lasted one hour and 20 min-utes. The enemy hah one killed and two wounded. We had no cusualties. Four hun-dred empty cartridges were found in the Russian junks. We believe the Russians were a cavalry patrol watching the river."

Ex-United States Senator Warner Miller then introduced the resolution introduced at the last National Convention by Senator Quay, asking Congress to investigate the alleged disfranchisement of negroes in Southern States. The resolution follows:

"The permanency of a republican government is based upon a pure and free ballot. We are opposed to either its corruption by money, or its limitation by depriving any citizen of the United States anywhere of the right to deposit his vote except for causes permitted by the Adjournment was then taken until 4 o'clock. The committee on resolutions met immediately and Chairman Burnett read the draft of the platform. An attempt was made to insert the resolution offered by Mr. Miller, but Mr. Burnett said there was a clause in the platform that touched on the subject.

Representative Sereno E. Payne was made permanent chairman. His speech was received with great applause.

When the chairman read the instructions to the delegates to "use all honorable means," to bring about the nomination of President Roosevelt, enthusiasm again broke forth and three cheers were given in the President's honor, Senator Platt joined cordially in the applause which followed the tribute to Governor Odell, which was followed in kind, when immediately thereafter Senator Platt was given recognition.

THE PLATFORM.

Devotion to the Principles of the Party Is Reaffirmed.

NEW YORK, April 12.—The platform adopted by the State Republican con-vention reaffirms the devotion of the nce in the principles of their party. It declares that the election and inaugura-tion of William McKinley and the restoration to power of a party pledged to the neouragement of domestic activity, and onest system of finance, and the expansion of our commercial interests, was followed by the enforcement of these poli-cies. The Democratic party, the plat-form asserts, with imperialism and mili-tarism as its slogan, attempted to mis-lead the people into the belief that territorial aggrandizement was the ultimate object of Republican policy, and offered the fallacy of free sliver at the ratio of 16 to 1 as a substitute for the basic prin-ciple of the gold standard and an honest dollar, and with numerous mischievous and untried theories of government en-deavored to demoralize public confidence and shatter the faith of the people in he party in power. Continuing, the resolutions say: "The tragedy that deprived the Nation of the exalted services of President McKinley shadowed every heart with sorrow but emphasized nevertheless the truth that though men perish the Republic still lives. "Believing in his loyalty to the prin-ciples of the Republican party, relying on his devotion to the interests of American citizens and confiding in his wisdom, his courage and his statesmanship, we hereby direct that the delegates this day chosen use all honorable means to bring about his nomination for President at the National convention to be held in June."
