BLOW TO HEARST

Convention Refuses to Instruct for Him,

BLINDERS OF HIS MEN

Oregon Democrats Lay True Deplorables for a Precocious Trumpet

The Democrats in the State Convention assembled, yesterday, and disposed of the motion to instruct the delegates to the national convention to vote for William Jennings Bryan for President. The measure was killed by a vote of 82 against 19.

The Democratic platform denounced trusts and brought up the question of the Albany convention. The platform also denied that any party of any kind had the right to name the candidates for national offices.
