Gray's Harbor Mills May All Be Shut Down.

PROBABLY BY FIRST OF MAY

MOUNTAIN, Wash., April 5—(Special)—The lumbering in the midst of a national park is to be curtailed. Prominent officials of the South Pacific have given a rule to the Williams Valley Company, which operates in the park, that it will be shut down on or before the first of May. The lumber company was notified that the rule would be enforced if it did not comply in time. The lumber company has agreed to comply with the rule and to shut down its operations on or before the first of May. The rule is a necessary one to protect the national park and its resources.
