

Operations Avoided

Hospitals in our great cities are sad places to visit. Three-fourths of the patients lying on those snow-white beds are women and girls.

Why should this be the case? Because they have neglected themselves. Every one of these patients in the hospital beds had plenty of warning in that bearing-down feeling, pain at the left or right of the womb, nervous exhaustion, pain in the small of the back. All of these things are indications of an unhealthy condition of the ovaries or womb.

What a terrifying thought! These poor souls are lying there on those hospital beds awaiting a fearful operation. Do not drag along at home or in your place of employment until you are obliged to go to the hospital and submit to an examination and possible operation. Build up the female system, cure the derangements which have signified themselves by danger signals, and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved thousands of women from the hospital. Read the letters here published with the full consent of the writers, and see how they escaped the knife by a faithful reliance on Mrs. Pinkham's advice and the consistent treatment of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

READ THE FOLLOWING LETTERS:

"I was taken sick very suddenly July 13th with severe cramps, or pains. I summoned a doctor and was in bed a week lying on my back all the time. The pains left me very sore. In a few weeks I was feeling better but was soon taken sick again with those pains and had another doctor. This one said I had neuralgia pains of the stomach and ovaries. He injected morphine and eased me again, but I remained sore and weak from the pains and continued to flow for one month and three days without stopping for one day.

"The doctors wanted to scrape the womb, saying the lining was inflamed. I had a pain at times in my right ovary and felt weak nearly all the time. Am only twenty years old, never was sick until this sickness in July. Menses never lasted more than four days and never an ache or a pain.

"I began the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon was feeling better. I am now well and strong again. Your medicine has relieved me of the pain in my side and stopped my flowing which the doctors could not do.

"I feel very grateful to you and can recommend your medicine to all suffering women."—LUCILLE A. GAINES, 2348 Pine St., St. Louis, Mo.

"I suffered with female trouble for over eight years, had womb trouble and painful menstruation. Have been under the care of doctors who said I would have to submit to an operation before I could be cured. I suffered everything.

"One day I picked up a paper and noticed your advertisement and a testimonial from a friend I knew, stating your medicine had cured her so I thought I would try it. I told my husband I would give up all doctors and try your medicine. I began using your medicine just two months ago and cannot say enough on its praise. Menstruation comes freely now without pain.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health, joy and happiness to me. My advice to all suffering women is to try your Vegetable Compound."—MRS. FRANK McNAUGERON, Box 401, Breckenridge, Minn.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Russians Suffer Disastrous Reverse on the Yalu.

JAPANESE CROSS THE RIVER

Vladivostok Squadron is Believed to Have Regained the Harbor, Slipping by the Enemy in a Fog.

SHANGHAI, April 28.—P. M.—It is reported here that the Russians have suffered a disastrous reverse after two days' fighting on the Yalu River. The Japanese forces crossed the river and the Russians retreated.

FLEET REGAINS VLADIVOSTOK

Russians Slip by the Japanese During a Fog.

LONDON, April 29.—The Daily Telegraph's Tokyo correspondent asserts that the Russian cruisers slipped past the Japanese squadron during a fog and regained the harbor of Vladivostok. This is the only additional news that has reached London concerning the Vladivostok squadron.

No further details have been received regarding the sinking of the Japanese transport Kinshu Maru. There is some inclination to criticize harshly the action of Rear-Admiral Yezzen, but most of this morning's papers prefer to await particulars of the affair before passing judgment upon it.

The report that the Japanese have occupied Khasilancheng has not yet been confirmed.

According to the Standard's Tientsin correspondent, the whole country outside the great wall is abnormally flooded, and any movement of the land forces is impracticable for the present.

A special dispatch from Port Arthur says the demonstration made by Japanese torpedo-boats, covered by a Japanese squadron off Fort Arthur yesterday morning, was for the purpose of creating a scare and inducing the batteries to waste their ammunition, but the Russians refrained from answering the Japanese fire.

The Copenhagen correspondent of the Morning Post says there are rumors that Russia is negotiating for the purchase of the Danish liners Hekla, Norge and Island.

SAYS JAPAN MUST HOLD ALOOF

Member of Army Staff Holds That America is Not Her Friend.

LIAO YANG, April 28.—Major Togo Tazozero, a member of the general staff of the Japanese army, who is a prisoner here, having been captured at Wiju, where he has lived since January last, said to the Associated Press today:

"The Russians will be driven as far as Balka. Further than this we do not wish to go, but we will return to Manchuria and open it to the trade of the world.

"Our people are certain that they can beat the Russians, but I think we began hostilities 50 years too soon. We are not prepared for such a serious war.

"Japan wishes, above everything else, to command the sea, and she will then be free from fear of invasion and loss of territory. With the complete destruction of the Russian fleet, we believe the war will end.

"Japan's alliance with Great Britain was a stupid act, and it will be of no service to us.

"We know perfectly well that the Americans were never our friends, because our opponents. We are afraid that if Japan is victorious the British and the Americans only will benefit. It would be foolish for Japan to ally herself with Japanese Report Two Small Engagements on the Yalu.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The following cables from Tokyo have been received by the Japanese Minister here:

"The commander of the Japanese detachment sent to the Yalu reports that the detachment arrived on the 26th at the mouth of the Yalu, and while ascending the river the Russian artillery fired upon the detachment from the bank opposite Yongsampo, but without effect. Russian cavalry appeared at the delta of the river, but retreated upon being fired upon by the Japanese naval detachment. About 100 Russian cavalrymen fired upon the Japanese steam launches, whereupon the Japanese torpedo-boats answered, and the enemy fled behind the hills, leaving many wounded. There were no casualties on the Japanese side.

"About 6 o'clock on the afternoon of the 26th the enemy again fired upon the Japanese from the direction of Antung. The Japanese replied, and the Russians were silenced after about an hour's fighting. The Japanese sustained no loss."

Part of Gunboat in Engagements.

TOKIO, April 28.—The Japanese gunboat Maya, accompanied by several torpedo-boats, entered and ascended the Yalu River on Monday, April 25, and fought a series of small engagements with the Russian land forces on Monday and Tuesday. Admiral Hosoya, who is in command of the third squadron, has sent in a report of his operations, in which he says:

"Our detachment reached the Yalu on Monday. While going up the stream the enemy's field guns opened against us, without effect. We discovered a force of the enemy on an island in midstream. We fired upon them, whereupon they fled. On Tuesday the enemy's cavalry, 100 strong, attacked us. Our launch and our torpedo-boat No. 64, replied to their fire and the enemy fled into the mountains, leaving several wounded behind them."

"At 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon the enemy opened fire on us from Antung. We replied and silenced them after half an hour. There was no casualty on our side."
