Russia Regards It as a Powder Magazine.

LESSAR MAKES DAILY REPORT

Pekin Still Maintains She Will Observe Strict Neutrality and Is Trying to Keep Down Anti-Foreign Sentiment.

ST. PETERSBURG, May & The effect of the disaster to Russian arms on the Yalu upon the Chinese is being watched with keen interest and considerable apwith seen interest and connectable ap-prehension. The Russian government ap-pears to be satisfied with the situation for the moment, and Paul Lessar, the Russian Minister at Pokin, is making daily reports to the Foreign Office. The report received from the Minister today contained nothing disquieting.

The Pekin government, according to Russian reports, seems to be acting in perfect good faith, and insists it is intent upon preserving neutrality. It is turning a deaf car to the appeals of anti-Russian leaders, who want China to throw in her lot with Japan, and is doing all possible suppress anti-foreign agitation among the people,

Nevertheless, the Russian authorities regard China as a powder magazine.
They realize the danger and necessity for constant pressure. The danger of an anti-foreign movement throughout the Chinese Empire exists, not only for Russta, but for all the powers, and Russia has at least three times since the outcak of the war addressed the powers on the subject, the last time being less than ten days ago. The answers received uniformly show a full appreciation of the need of exercising a restraining influence on Pekin, and all the powers are co-oper-ating to this end.

AMERICA GETS PART OF LOAN.

Japan Will Place $25,000,000 of Its Bonds In New York.

LONDON, May 5.—It was definitely arranged this afternoon that one-half of the Japanese loan will go to the United States. and it is understood that Kuhn, Loeb & Co. will handle it in America. The stock exchange put a nominal premium of 1% on the projected loan this afternoon. The will be for $50,000,000 and will be loan will be for $6,00,000 and will be issued next week. It will take the form of seven-year 6 per cent bonds, and the issue price probably will be $3\frac{1}{2}$. the security being a first charge on the Japanese customs. The loan will be issued simultaneously in New York and London.

M. Takashi, the Japanese financial service is London, and the money will not

M. Takashi, the Japanese financial agent in London, says the money will not be sent to Japan, but will be employed in paying the balance of trade. He adds that in his opinion no other ioans will be required by Japan before the conclusion of the war.

Russian Loan Nearly Made.

PARIS. May 5.—Parties connected with the negotiations for the Russian loan give the following statement. The loan is not the following statement. The loan is not yet signed, but it is certain that it will not be long deferred. M. Hottinguer, representing French finances, is now at St. Fetersburg, arranging details. A representative of one of the banks forming the syndicate underwriting the loan said:

"We consider the loan closed in principle, but some details remain to be settled. The amount will be $200,000,000, and as previously annuunced at 5 per cent for thed. The amount will be $200,000,000, and as previously announced at 5 per cent for five years. The selling price is slightly above 98. The entire amount has already been taken. Besides the French banks subscribing, a number of Belgian banks have also subscribed. The entire issue will be made at one time, not in three parts as reported."

NURSES FOR PROUD POOR.

At the annual meeting of the Visiting Nurse Association, held at Trinity Chapel yesterday afternoon, the reports of the various officers, the visiting nurses, and warlous other members of the institution, showed a great amount of good work ac-complished. Mrs. Morrison, acting presi-dent, reported the second year's work as most satisfactory, and she voiced the sentiment expressed by all present in the matter of two nurses being required to do the work in the future. The association's work ever grows, and the untold Funds are necessary to carry it on and subscriptions are asked from the public.

The membership fee is but $3 per year, and all charitably inclined citizens are asked to join. The necessity for providing for that class of patients who require the ervices of a trained nurse but who cannot afford to pay the regular price and who will not go on the free list is a problem that can only be met through increased funds, and the association is most desirous of accomplishing this as soon as the treasury will permit.

lutions were adopted thanking the business houses for their liberal donations during the year; to arouse public sentient as to the necessity for a city hospital, and indorsing the establishment of a sanitorium for consumptives. The fol-lowing board of directors for the ensuing year was elected: President, Mrs. B. H. Trumbull; vice-president, Mrs. A. A. Mor-rison; directors, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. George McBride, Miss Virginia Wilson, Mrs. S. S. Wise, Mrs. R. J. Marsh, Miss Falling, Mrs. W. D. Burke and

The report of the friendly visitors and the trained nurse brought out many de-tails of the work accomplished by the asciation which were most gratifying to the members. Thomas Strong gave a most interesting address from the business standpoint, Dr. Holt Wilson talked from the physician's point of view, and the Rev. A. A. Morrison gave his views as a clergyman.

POLICEMAN IS SUSPENDED.

W. J Bullus Pleads Illness and Then Is Seen on His Beat.

When Policeman W. J. Bullus reported for duty at the police station yesterday evening, he found awaiting him a letter from Chief of Police Charles H. Hunt, imparting the information that his serv-ices were no longer desired on the Portland police force. Bullus' suspension is the result of his failing to report for duty on Wednesday, and failing to give a sat-isfactory, excuse for this breach of dis-cipline to Chief Hunt.

When Captain Moore read the rollcall Wednesday evening, there was a hush instead of the usual "here" after Bullus' name was called. A brother-officer informed the captain that he had seen Bullus at Third and Pine streets, and that he (Bullus) asked him to tell Captain Moore that he was sick with fever. Another officer, when questioned, stated that he had seen Bulquestioned, stated that he had seen Builus at Third and Washington streets the same afternoon, and when another inquired Bullus' condition at his home Wednesday night, the sick man was not

FAMILY POUNCES ON TEACHER Mother Armed With Horsewhip and Father With Bare Fists.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., May 5.-(Special)-Armed with a horsewhip, Mrs. J. B. Dunham attempted to punish Pro-fessor G. S. Bond, principal of the Sharp-stein School, for a shaking administered to, her daughter. The professor would not accept the thrushing and the father used his fists and was arrested for it.

Bond, who was formerly County School Superintendent, says the pupil was unruly and that he did not punish her severely, merely "giving her a shaking." The girl implained to her parents, and the whole unham family rose and marched against and, the mother carrying a horsewhip.

The teacher tried persuasion as a weap-on against them, but it did not prove effective, and Dunham struck him with his fist. Bond did not retaliate in kind, but secured a warrant for his assailant's arrest, after consulting the directors.

Principal Bond is popular here, and the assault on him has created a sensation.

STAGE GOES OVER PRECIPICE.

Tourists in Yellowstone Park Get Off

With Bruises. LIVINGSTON, Mont., May 5.—Advices received here last night from the Yellow-stone National Park tell of the thrilling escape of a party of tourists from being dashed to death in a chasm along the Golden Gate Road, leading into the park from Gardiner.

Driver August Getz, in charge of the Driver August Getz, in charge of the coach, and five passengers, all Easterners, encountered a had piece of road, sloughing the stage to one side and precipitating it over the side of the precipice.

As the vehicle rolled over it was caught by brush and its descent stayed for an instant, during which the passengers managed to extrict themselves and escane.

Fair to Reduce Its Force.

ST. LOUIS, May 5.-The maximum nur ber of laborers employed on the World's Fair grounds has been reached, and from now on the number will be diminished daily as the Exposition approached com-pletion. Secretary Stevens tonight made the following statement:

"Instead of having places for more salaried employes, the various departments of the Exposition are now every day rapidly reducing the number heretofore ployed. Very soon nundreds will have been laid off. By making this fact gen-erally known, the press will save many worthy people from wasting their time and money, and at the same time confer

GREAT UPROAR IN THEATER.

London Gallery Makes Sir Charles Wyndham Very Angry.

LONDON, May 5.—The fall of the curtain on Arthur Law's new comedy, "The Bride and Bridegroom," at the new theater tonight was the signal for the noisiest scene witnessed in a London toater for many years. A storm of "boos" and hostile remarks from the gallery brought Sir Charles Wyndham to the footlights, prepared, he said, after several ineffectual attempts to gain a hearing, "to face the music."

There were cheers from the boxes,

There were cheers from the boxes, stalls and dress circle, followed by renewed "boos" elsewhere and shouts of "we all know you hate the gallery," etc. Finally Sir Charles pointed his finger angrily at the gallery and called the police to remove the offenders. Brooklyn for three years, has been found at last. While agents of his father's executors were looking for him all over the West, he was tossing in delirium in a bed in the Sacramento County Hospital, in Sacramento, Cal. He is still in that institution, slowly recovering from a long run of typhoid fever. Miller does not know his father is dead.

The search for Miller was brought to an end today, when a friend in Brooklyn received a letter from the young man, telling of his long illness. The letter was taken at once to the executor of the Miller estate, and the young man will be brought home as soon as he is able to travel. Miller has sisters to share with him the fortune of his father, which is him the fortune of his father, which is esumated at nearly $1,000,000.

COAL STRIKE IS TO END.

Colorado Men in Southern District Can Get No More Ald

PUEBLO, Colo., May 5 .- From a telegram received from H. M. Simpson, secretary of the Victor Fuel Company, in this city, it is inferred that the coal strike in the southern coal fields is declared off. No details are given, but it is understood that the reason for declaring the strike at an end is the failure of the National organization of the United Mineworkers of America to further support the Colorado strikers. No communication has yet been received from the headquarters of the National organization.
