Mc-Cune, who sells papers on the streets, finds her little home on the water-front in the hands of Constable A. D. Keenan, of the East Side Court. Mesars. Huston and Wright claimed the shed, but Mrs. McCune refused to give it up, and they brought suit for possession and $5 dam-ages because she retained it. As Mrs. McCune did not answer, judgment by de-fault was obtained, and yesterday she appeared in a supplementary proceeding. She admitted she owned the house, although it stands on leased land, with the result that an order was issued instruct-ing Constable Keenan to take possession. The amount of the judgment and costs is small, but large when paid out of her

LARGE GAIN IN BIRTHRATE-The baby ess in Portland is looking up. During April 146 births were recorded, an inorease of 20 over the number of births exceeded the deaths by only two; in April the difference was 29. The monthly report of the City Board of Health is responsible for the figures. Eleven persons between the ages of 80 and 100 years died in April, while only four bables died dur-ing their first 30 days. Pulmonary tuber-culosis heads the list of causes of death, sensitiv stands second, while valvular heart disease and pneumonia tie for third place. The city has been comparatively free from contagious diseases, scarlet fever being the most prevalent, with 10

Towing & Transportation Co.

A forger, evidently bent on launching into the business on a wholesale scale, stole some blank checks from the office of the Western Transfer & Towing Company, at the foot of Oak street, Saturday night, 8 o'clock yesterday evening and a gold watch was stolen. Mr. Versteeg was and immediately commenced to cash them about 200 yards distant from the house in. The checks, which were consecutively numbered from 1916 to 1930, inclusive, were signed by F. W. Leadbetter, president of the company, but were not countersigned by M. Conant, the secretary. The only check that has been cashed has been cleverly forged, and the company fears that more unsuspecting people will fall victims to the bogus checks. Officer Carpenter was assigned the case as soon as it was reported to the police, yesterday morning, but up to last night had learned nothing that would give any idea of the thief's identity.

"My Wife." John Davis S. M. Griffith Mrs. Davis Georgia Francis Augusta Edna Clisbee Rarold Stone Albert Brighton

Beatrice StoneJulia Walcott
Lillian TuzeleMolies Campion
Buttons Vin. Moore Neal BrowningWilliam Seavey SheriffWilliam Bradford St Hicks John Doublets

The Platt-Stevenson company presented "My Wife," a four-act farce at Cordray's last night. The play relates the diverting misadventures of a country banker, a burlesque actress, the banker's jealous wife and a number of other persons of lesser importance. The company works hard to make "My Wife" funny and deserves commendation for its efforts.

"What Happened to Jones." Anyone who is foolish enough to miss the opportunity for one great big laugh lasting nearly three hours, such as he would get by attending the new Neill-Morosco Company's performance of that funniest farce, "What Hap-pened to Jones," at the Baker this week, is simply overlooking the good things of this life when they are held right up before his eyes. It is an op-portunity to laugh, pure and simple, forget all the worries and tribulations, and probably afterward go home to enloy a good night's sleep, which to many people of care and worry is a rare blessing in itself.

AT THE VAUDEVILLE THEATERS

Portland's brand-new 10-cent continuous vaudeville theater, the Lyric, threw open its doors for its premier last night and many people were turned away, although the auditorium has a seating capacity of 700. The Lyric is a pretentious place of amusement, and its managers, Messrs. Keating and Flood, display excellent taste in the matter of interior finish and furnishings. The stage is roomy, the lighting excellent and the exit arrangements nota-

For the first week of its existence the new house provides a vaudeville bill of eight high-grade acts, and, judging from the applause last night, the new theater should become very pouplar with local theater patrons. The programme offered last night consisted of the Traviolas, marvelous hoop-rollers and head-balancers; Andy Rice, a clever Hebrew impersonator; Arthur and Carllele, in a comedy sketch; the great Walstien, champion roller skater; Raymond G. Baldwin, a baritone soloist; the De Garros, who do things in fixing rings; the vitascope and Nellie Bruce, who dances well.

There is an especially good bill at the Arcade this week, as those who attended the performances yesterday can testify. The management of this popular continuous house has set a high standard, and is office yesterday by C. H. Prescott, C. A. Alicky and A. B. Croasman, capital stock $10,000. The objects announced are to prospect for, locate and develop oil wells, etc.

BATTALION CHIEF ON LEAVE.—J. E. Young, battallon chief of the fire department, is on a leave of absence, having been relieved by Captain Frank Dowell, of Truck I. R. Masson is occupying Captain Dowell's regular position during Chief Young's absence.

LOCAL OPTION MASS MERTING.—The local stitute the offering.

The Orpheum.

The Orpheum entered upon its third week last night with a gratifying patron age. Some of the acts put on were of a very high order of excellence and the en tire bill seemed to appeal to the audince. Battle of the Yalu.

Thrilling moving pictures of the first clash between Russian and Japanese troops on the Yalu River are shown at the Arcade Theater. The Russian firing-line is seen, the Japanese sharpshobting in the distance, and finally the impetuous charge of the plucky Japa, who force the Russians to retreat at double-quick. The soture of a Russian battery of two guns is also a thrilling scene, the Japs charg-ing up a steep snow-covered hill under a sharp fire to rout their opponents, many of whom bite the dust.

The Bijou.

The Bijou is a cosey little theater, and is offering a great, big dime's worth of en-tertainment for those whose fancy lightly turns toward continuous shows. There was a complete change of bill yesterday and for the ensuing week the following are the inducements offered: Lombard brothers, who do a conversational turn; Zara and Zara, athletes, Louise Du Pont, in illustrated songs; the Campbells, who juggle all sorts of things well, and motion

"The Red-Eyed Monster." Olvio, one of the cleverest contortion

BOER GENERALS TONIGHT.

General Joubert and Captain O'Donnell to Speak at the Marquam.

Tonight at the Marquam Grand Theater the Boer officers, General Joubert and Captain Sheridan O'Donnell, will give an Illustrated talk on the Boer War, General Joubert will give a 46-minute talk on "The Boer Settlement In South Africa." Captain O'Donnell will give a 25-minute talk on "The Tactics and Humorous Incidents of the War." The following societies have secured seats and will at-tend: The United Irish Leagus, Holland Society, German Aid Society, Catholic Order of Foresters, Gaelic League and the Ancient Order of Hibernians. Popular prices will prevail.

"East Lynne" Thursday.

Beginning Thursday night and continu-ing three nights with a matinee Saturday afternoon the Piatt-Stevenson company will present "Bast Lynne" at Cordray's will present "Bast Lynne" at Cordray's Theater. This bill, although old, is one of the best drawing cards now on the beards on account of the heart interest which it possesses. It is conceded to be the greatest emotional drama ever written and has without question been the cause of more tears and damp handkerchiefs than any other piece. The producchiefs than any other piece. The produc-tion by this company is said to be espe-cially strong and at the Summer prices now prevailing the houses hould be well filled throughout the run.

SHAW TURNS OVER WARRANT Morgan So Arranges Matters That Banks Are Out Only $2,000,000.

NEW YORK, May 9.—Secretary of the Treasury Shaw was at the Sub-Treasury today arranging the final details of the Panama Canal payment. He made the following statement as to the transfer: "J. P. Morgan & Co. were this morning appointed special distributing agents and their security was approved, the warrant for 140,000,000 was delivered. This was presented during the day and paid as follows: 15,000,000 in cash and Sub-Treasury orders aggregating 25,000,000. as follows: $15,000,000 in cash and Sub-Treasury orders aggregating $25,000,000. Will be drawn in favor of Morgan & Co. These, in turn, are to be deposited by Morgan & Co. with their various banks to Morgan & Co.'s credit and will be collected through the clearing-house tomorrow. Meantime, the banks had brought to the Sub-Treasury their respective checks, aggregating a little over $27,000,000. The warrant was delivered to Mr. Steele

The warrant was delivered to Mr. Steele personally. It was on a piece of white paper engraved in green ink and was made payable to J. P. Morgan & Co., as special disbursing agents.

"Half a score of clerks at the Sub-Treasury were busy some three hours counting the bonds deposited by Morgan & Co., as security for the warrant. These checks were accepted for collection, and will be collected through the clearing-house tomorrow. In this way the banks of New York City will pay into the Sub-Treasury $27,000,000, and will receive from Morgan & Co. oh deposit $5,000,000. Both the payment to the Sub-Treasury and the deposits will be effected through the clearing-house at the same time. Thus the banks will lose in the transaction only $2,000,000 cash balance; the remaining $15,000,000 is paid to Morgan & Co. directly from the Treasury."

In an informal statement the Secretary added that this method of paying for the Panama Canal would have a reassuring effect upon financial conditions in general. There were present at the Sub-Treasury when the warrant was delivered Charles S. Steele, George W. Perkins, E. T. Stotes-bury and Temple Bowdoin, of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co.; Assistant Treasurer Fish, J. H. Edwards, private secretary to Secretary Shaw, and George F. Baker, president of the First National Bank, The securities deposited by Morgan & Co. were largely municipal bonds.
