

PRAY FOR A SEWER

Brooklyn People Appear Before Executive Board.

SULLIVAN'S GULCH BRIDGES

Action Delayed Again and Council is Asked to Do Business- Streets to be Sprinkled With Electric-Car Sprinklers.

Brooklyn wants a sewer. South of Division street, in a territory occupied by nearly 5000 persons, there is not a foot of sewer pipe.

Before the Executive Board yesterday afternoon appeared a committee of Brooklyn men who were out sewer-hunting. Partial plans have been made by the City Engineer for the largest sewer system of the city, costing nearly $200,000, but adequate to drain a wide district.

The committee was composed of Edward Gunderson, Charles E. Malhot, Sylvester E. Wells and H. W. Wells. An explanation was read to the Executive Board that out of the 1000 or so households, eight, who had been the most clamorous for sewer, had apparently been overlooked and notified that their cesspools were obnoxious.

After Mr. Wells had repeated the request of the commission, W. L. Boise moved that this be done. Messrs. Curtis, Boise and Wortman will try to straighten out the tangle surrounding the Brooklyn sewer. According to Mayor Williams an Executive Board to hurry along the project.

It is the fault of this board that we do not take advantage of the ordinances as they have been passed," declared H. Goddard. "Very few of the people in this district are opposed to the bridges."

City Auditor Devlin explained that here is another case where the cost of adding every lot in the assessment district, as provided by the charter, would amount to a thousand dollars.

The appointment of James Higley as Deputy Poundmaster was confirmed. John Beebe was reported discharged by Poundmaster Hood. A petition passed on the table at the thought of the recent fight between Reed and Reeves, very close in the time Reeves left in city's employ.

On motion of Mr. Boise, a third ward roller, weighing ten tons, was ordered. More street sprinkling will be done by car sprinklers. The cost of carting to cents per hour will be run over the lines of the Portland Railway Company and the City & Suburban. The Oregon Water Power & Railway Company is agreed to supply a sprinkler for $5 a year.

The driveways through the streets recently laid out by the City Engineer on both sides of the river will be put under a boulevard rule prohibiting heavy vehicles from raising the pavements for the use of pleasure vehicles.

A request for a committee for 100 new fire hydrants was held up pending the action of the Water Board, which, according to the desires of Mayor Williams and the Executive Board, should pay for the hydrants.

A request for permission to connect the standpipe of Cordray's Theater with a water main has been passed from one body to another for a third time. General Beebe, who was present yesterday for the first time in two months, suggested that a recommendation be made to the Water Board. Boise said that he is afraid the august Water Board will be offended if we make a recommendation," said W. L. Boise, so no instructions were given.

SELLWOOD FERRY LAUNCHED.

Craft is Floated to Portland to Receive its Machinery.

The Sellwood ferry was floated from the ways at the foot of Spokane avenue last evening and brought down to Portland, where the craft will receive her machinery at once. J. M. Nickum, of the ferry committee, says that the boat is one of the best ever built in Portland, and that the hull is filled with solid timbers. The machinery is completed at the Willamette Iron Works and all that remains to be done is to get the boat aboard. Mr. Nickum also said that work would be started at once on the approaches and that the ferry at Sellwood will be in operation in the early part of June. The cable is expected in a few days.

North Mount Tabor Needs School.

Residents in that portion of the Mount Tabor School District north of the Base Line road are very anxious for a schoolhouse. They asked L. S. N. Morsman, of the Board of Directors, if the erection of a separate district out of that territory would be practical, and were informed that if that were done the new district would have to take its proportion of the $15,000 indebtedness the district now carries, besides shouldering the burden of purchasing ground and erecting a building. He advised them to appeal to the taxpayers of the whole district to give them a suitable schoolhouse. This will probably be done. The West-avenue building is crowded to its utmost capacity.

Lectured on the Moon.

S. U. Downs, principal of the Sellwood School, delivered the closing lecture of the series before the Sunnyside School Alumni Association last night in the assembly hall, his subject being "A Trip to the Moon." He was introduced by the president of the association, Edward D. Curtis, principal of the school, who was present and welcomed the audience. Mr. Downs' lecture was full of interest to the close and was appreciated. This concludes the lecture course for this year.

East Side Notes.

Milwaukee Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, will hold an all-day session today. A large pavilion tent has been spread on the corner of East Seventh and Clay streets, in which services will be held by

"God's Church" until the completion of the new meeting-house now being built on this site.

Miss Elizabeth Stoltz is very sick at the home of her parents, Beech street and Williams avenue.

The Oregon Water Power & Railway Company has just completed two handcar coaches at the terminal grounds south of Hawthorne avenue.

A concert was given last night in Firemen's Hall, Sellwood, for the benefit of the Methodist Church of that place. An appreciative audience was present.

The Portland Fruitgrowers Association will hold a meeting this evening in the Russellville schoolhouse. Five directors are to be appointed at this meeting.

Arrangements are being perfected by a committee from the Mary Church, in Albina, composed of Rev. W. A. Daly, Henry Allichop, John Meehan, John Duff and John Marport, for the annual picnic at University Park on May 30.

There was an enthusiastic local option rally, held at the Mississippi-Avenue Hall, in Multnomah Addition, last night. The meeting was addressed by F. McKerscher, A. F. Fiegel and B. Lee Page. Music was furnished by the Seville quartet, of Sunnyside.

Officer Quinton was connected with the police force for a number of years and is one of the best-known and most popular officers on the force. His duty kept him on Washington street near Fourth until the strike, and he is regarded as one of the most efficient officers in the Police Department.

There is a city ordinance prohibiting persons leaving horses standing in the streets without being tied, but the enforcement of this law is given about as much attention as numberless other ordinances, with the result that the public is continually suffering from the effects of those who are supposed to guarantee safety to citizens on the public thoroughfares.

PLEA FOR SECOND TRIAL

THE WOODS RENEW ATTACK ON JUDGE'S RULINGS.

His Construction of Conspiracy Law is Main Point in Their Motion-Sentence is Again Delayed.

T. A. Wood and Hosen Wood, convicted of conspiracy to defraud the Government in pension cases, yesterday filed a motion for a new trial in the Federal Court, and they will not be sentenced until the motion has been argued and passed upon by Judge Bellinger.

The question of overt acts constituting a conspiracy is revised in the motion for a new trial. The defendants take exception to the ruling of Judge Bellinger that the jury could find a verdict of guilty if the members believed the overt acts constituted a conspiracy. The defense maintains that it is necessary to prove a conspiracy before a conviction can be secured. The motion on this point states:

The defense takes exception to allowing the Government to give testimony overt acts set out in the indictment without first requiring the Government to prove the existence of a conspiracy. It is necessary to do so, after submitting the proof of the overt acts.

The defense also takes exception to the court's instructions to the jury as to alleged irregularity in the proceedings of the court by which the defendants were prevented from having a fair trial; insufficiency of the evidence to sustain the verdict; and errors in law occurring at the trial and excepted to by the defense. The motion is signed by Carey & Mays and Dolph, Mallory, Simon & Gearin, attorneys.

NEITHER PARENT HAS THEM.

Van Houten Children Go to Boys' and Girls' Home-Divorce Suit Pending.

The Van Houten children, Hazel and Agnes, were surrendered temporarily to the custody of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society yesterday by Judge George. David Van Houten is in the county jail serving a sentence imposed upon him by Judge Hogue for beating his wife, and today Mrs. Van Houten will commence suit against her husband in the State Circuit Court for a divorce on the ground of cruel treatment. A. R. Mendenhall will appear as her attorney.

Judge George, in passing upon the application for custody of the children said: In a case of this sort the tender age of the children might be a cause for granting them to the mother, but Mrs. Van Houten is not asking for them, desiring rather that they be turned over to the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society. She is apprehensive that the father will spirit them away to Montana, where he has a sister residing.

Concerning the truth of the testimony offered against Mrs. Van Houten's claim, the court knows nothing, nor can it decide upon its merit. It appears that the best disposition that can be made of the children is to the Aid Society, and the petition of the mother is therefore granted.

It is understood that the parents have in mind divorce proceedings, and until such proceedings are terminated the children will remain in the custody of the society. They will then be awarded to the parents as the court may see fit.

DREGS OF DEAD ROMANCE.

Married Couples Whose Great Ambition is to be Separated.

C. C. Grimes was granted a divorce by Judge Frazer yesterday from Sarah A. Grimes, to whom he was married in Texas in 1871. The litigants have conducted the old Grimes Hotel at Seaside for years past, and they have settled their property rights. Grimes testified accusing his wife of infidelity and named Charles Brooks and William Bowen as co-spondents. The Grimes have been endeavoring to obtain a legal separation for several years past. They tried it previously before Judge McBride and failed. Anna Asher was divorced from John Aaher by Judge Frazer yesterday because of desertion in 1886. The parties were married in 1883 and there are three children, aged respectively 20, 15 and 15 years, who are with their mother.

A divorce was granted to Mary Alexander from Wynndham Alexander because of infidelity, by Judge Frazer yesterday. The plaintiff and her daughter testified that the defendant admitted the facts charged in the complaint. The litigants were married in Iowa in 1883. Alexander was connected with the Eastern & West-

WIN GREAT VICTORY

Colored Troops Excel in Vancouver Sports.

DEFEAT INFANTRY AT BALL

Three Firsts Are Captured in Athletic Events-Today the Walla Walla Team Meets the Light Artillery.

YANCOUVER BARRACKS, May 20.-Today was Black Friday in the three days' athletic meet of the Department of the Columbia. The colored troopers of the Ninth Cavalry, from Walla Walla, had everything their own way, winning three firsts in the field sports and defeating the Nineteenth Infantry in the baseball game 22 to 0. Their victories were only equalled by the enthusiasm with which they took them.

The ball games would have been slow if two white teams had been playing, but with the continuous elation and enthusiasm of the colored troopers, though they made two and three-baggers and home runs constantly, the game was a crisp. The Nineteenth was in no form and has not been so far this season. After two or three innings the men lost heart and often did not take the usual chances on long throws, for fear they would make active as well as passive mistakes.

The colored troopers play the Light Artillery stationed here tomorrow, and they will have no walkover. The Light Artillery won from the crack Fort Flagler team yesterday in the 11th inning, and are reputed here to be much better both at the bat and in the field than the infantrymen. Their hopes lie, tomorrow in getting the colored men going as the infantrymen were today, and not allowing them to do a thing. This is the final game of the series, and the biggest crowd of spectators is expected. Today there were several thousand people present all day, but tomorrow being the last day, there will be many more.

The field and track events have proved interesting beyond expectation. Competition has been very strong and the participation of sympathizers has made the men do their best. Men winning events in this meet will be proud of the medals long after they are out of the service. The colored men have proved themselves efficient in field sports as well as on the ball diamond. In the standing high jump today they won first and second. In the running broad jump they took first. In the 200-yard hurdle they captured all the places, and at the rope-climbing they were close second and third.

The Eighth Battery did well, taking first and second in the shelter-tent pitching. In other events of the day was the rope-climbing. The structure used for this much resembled a gibbet with half a dozen ropes dangling. The men sat on the ground and the ropes themselves ran over hand to the crosspiece 30 feet from the ground. This feat was done by Private Thompson, Company A, Nineteenth Infantry, in 11.45 seconds, with two colored cavalrymen hard after him.

The bicycle race, a form of sport now little favored, proved interesting as formerly when so common. Only the best of the Portland Club, to recover $150 on account of gambling losses, was submitted to the jury at noon yesterday by Judge Sears. At last accounts the jury was still backed up, unable to agree.

Has Not Paid for His Music.

M. R. Wells commenced suit in the State Circuit Court yesterday against A. J. Coffman to recover $750 balance due for an electric bell sold and delivered in August, 1902. The purchase price was $500 and the complaint states that Coffman has only paid $150 on the instrument.

TRAINED-ANIMAL ACTS.

They Made and Still Make Norris & Rowe Shows Famous.

Though Norris & Rowe have enlarged their act big shows until they have grown to the proportions of a huge circus, with two rings and an elevated stage, they have not neglected the trained-animal acts, which for so many seasons made for an electric bell sold and delivered in August, 1902. The purchase price was $500 and the complaint states that Coffman has only paid $150 on the instrument.

The events of tomorrow will be the final of the bicycle race, the quarter-mile run, the 200-yard hurdle, the potato race, the obstacle race, the last ball game of the series, between the colored troops, winners of today, and the Light Artillery, winners of yesterday.

FIVE HUNDRED ICE CREAM TUBS; BIG YELLOW PACKERS ARE HERE

Amazing Growth of Wholesale Trade in Frozen Confections -Ship Thousands of Miles.

Five hundred more ice-cream tubs—huge affairs weighing from 25 to 35 pounds apiece—were received by the Hazelwood Cream Company yesterday at their new plant, Fifth and Oak streets. The big tubs are to be used in shipping ice cream out of the city, and the fact that so many of them will be needed during the season shows the proportion to which the wholesale ice cream business is growing.

Ice Cream Across Continent. One of the big yellow tubs, reserved for the use of the Hazelwood agency last year, made 45 trips during the season of 312 miles and return, covering a distance equal to more than half the circumference of the earth. Hazelwood ice cream has been shipped across the continent from the Spokane plant of the Hazelwood Company.

Surmount Many Difficulties. The development of the wholesale shipping ice cream business during the last few years has been phenomenal. Thousands of men are employed in this business throughout the United States, and the industry has grown to mammoth proportions. No class of freight or express is so perishable as ice cream, and the difficulties which are surmounted in its shipment are innumerable.

Reached Big Territory. These tubs go back and forth daily to and from stations within a radius of from 200 to 500 miles of Portland. Northern California, Southern Idaho and Eastern Oregon, as well as the more contiguous parts of Oregon and Washington, are now being supplied with Hazelwood ice cream from the big Portland plant.

Made for Hard Wear. Yellow is the color which all the Hazelwood packers are painted, and the hundreds in transit daily throughout the Northwest, on station platforms and in baggage cars, overflowing with crushed ice, are making the Hazelwood name well known in every corner of the state.

The tubs are substantially constructed affairs, made for hard wear and countless vicissitudes during a strenuous existence of from five to ten years.

KNOCKS OUT CANOLE

"Battling" Nelson Lives Up to His Reputation.

MILL GOES EIGHTEEN ROUNDS

It is a Battle Between a Clever Boxer and a Hard Slugger, and the Man With the Punch is the Victor.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.-If ever a man lived up to his sobriquet, "Battling" Nelson of Chicago, did so tonight when, after 18 rounds of terrific fighting, he knocked out Martin Canole, of Fall River, Mass.

It was a battle between an exceptionally clever boxer and a hard slugger of wonderful staying powers, and the man with the punch won. With the exception of the sixth round, in which he was sent to the floor, Canole held his own by a good six or eight points up to the 11th. He had landed five times to Nelson's once, though without much effect. Beginning with the 12th round, however, Nelson's greater staying powers began to assert itself, and he backed Canole all over the ring. The latter landed when he pleased, but his blows were powerless to stop the younger man from coming back and bleeding badly and several times was in distress.

In the 18th Nelson went for his man with a rush and landed a left flush to Canole's jaw. He went down in the count, and after a dazed condition, Nelson quickly whipped his right to the face, and the fight was over.
