

WILL VISIT FAIR

Editors Decide to Enjoy Great Excursions.

GOOD WORK OF OREGONIANS

Every State Will Be Urged by Press to Exhibit.

OTHER AID IS PROMISED

National Association Will Hold Its Business Session in Guthrie, Okla., Then Journey on to Portland.

ST. LOUIS, May 20.—(Special.)—The National Editorial Association will come to Portland during the 1906 Fair on an excursion. This means 500 editors from every state in the Union will visit the great Fair. Furthermore, all have agreed to devote much space in their columns to exploiting the Exposition and to urge their states to make exhibits.

When the matter was brought up in convention, the praises of Oregon were loudly sung. Representative newspaper men were present from 37 foreign countries.

Colonel Henry Watterson had just delivered a masterly address. He was followed by Homer Davenport, who gave Oregon a great advertisement. Ex-Governor Gear secured suspension of the rules and had a strong Lewis and Clark resolution passed. B. B. Herbert, of Chicago, made a ringing speech in favor of the Fair.

Oklahoma and Boise were among the candidates for the convention, both promising an excursion to the 1906 Exposition. Oklahoma pleaded with Oregon to aid the territory struggling for statehood, promising the support of the entire press for the Exposition and a territorial appropriation.

Edith Weathered asked the editors to come to Oregon. Will J. Clark, of Geneva, chairman of the delegation, started a stampede for the Oklahoma-Oregon meeting by changing Oregon's vote to Oklahoma, thus insuring the Portland trip. The result means 500 editors from every state in the Union will visit Portland's Exposition, and, prior to the visit, will urge their respective states to make an exhibit there. The association will meet in Guthrie, hold its business session, then go on to Oregon.

AMBUSH BRITISH

Thibetans Attack Infantrymen Escorting the Mail.

SPECIAL CABLE. GHANGETRE, May 20, via Klaton, May 21.—A party of mounted infantry, acting as escort with the mail bags, was ambushed yesterday two miles from here. The 18 members of the escort fought gallantly, but lost one killed and two wounded. These casualties resulted before Captain Outley, with a relieving party, reached the scene. Twelve to 15 Thibetans were seen dead.

Captain Outley drove off the enemy, giving pursuit, but found the Thibetans in great numbers occupying villages on both sides of the river four miles south of Ghangetre, and he was compelled to retire. During the engagement one heavy mail bag was lost.

The point now occupied by the British is Chunglo, a distinguished from Gyangetre. On account of the Thibetans along the line of communications, as evidenced from yesterday's ambush, it is possible the daily post will be discontinued. It has been only by good management and good fortune that it has been maintained during the 14 days of bombardment.

NOT THE LIVINGSTON JEWELS.

Hobo, However, is Captured With Gems Belonging to De Peysters.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 20.—Results of raids by the Albany police last night and today on a resort on South Lansing street, intended to break up a "krowler gang," were believed until tonight to form a sequel to the recent looting of the family tomb on the old Livingston estate below Hudson.

Jewels worth many thousands of dollars and of priceless value as heirlooms were found on the person of Thomas Kink, one of the vagrants and concealed about the house.

The arrival of Chief of Police Maloy, of Tivoli, on the Hudson tonight, explained the tomb robbery theory, but brought to light that the family residence of General Frederik de Peyster at Tivoli was looted Monday night in the absence of the family, and Chief Maloy identified nearly all the booty as belonging to the De Peyster family.

Chief Maloy said it was not known that no jewelry was embossed with Lady Mary Livingston or members of the family, and neighbors who were present at her funeral, had long ago said that the only thing with her in the coffin was a bunch of roses.

BRITAIN DISPATCHES WARSHIP

Morocco Will Find It Must Act for American Held by Bandits.

GHORALTAR, May 20.—A British torpedo boat, No. 38, sailed today for Tangier in connection with the kidnapping of an American citizen named Perdicaris and his step-son, Cromwell Varley, a British subject, by armed Arabs, headed by Raisoul, the notorious brigand chief.

Pursuit is Almost Impossible.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Mr. Perdicaris, the wealthy American resident of Tangier, Morocco, and his step-son, a British subject, who were captured by brigands, have been carried into the mountains, where pursuit is almost impossible. The State Department has been advised to the effect by Mr. Gummere, United States Consul-General at Tangier, in cablegrams reaching the department over night. He also reports that no terms have been received from the brigands. Mr. Gummere said the Moorish authorities are assisting in every way they can, and adds that a war vessel will be of great assistance. Consul-General Gummere further requested, in connection with the dispatch of a warship to Tangier, that one of large size be sent so as to make a better impression. Word had been received that a British torpedo-boat destroyer was already en route to Tangier, so that the foreign residents there will have some protection. Senator Keen, of New Jersey, has telegraphed from Elizabeth to Acting Secretary of State Loomis, asking him to do everything possible in behalf of Perdicaris, who is his intimate friend.

It is learned at the State Department that Ion Perdicaris is really a native-born American citizen. His father was a Greek resident in Trenton, where Ion was born 41 years ago. He was with a few Americans who visited Tangier. He was on good terms with every element in Morocco, and indeed, it is said by a person who knew him well, that he gave frequent refuge to the very bandit chieftain who kidnaped him.

France Will Not Intervene.

PARIS, May 20.—The French government does not intend to send a warship to Tangier, or otherwise intervene in connection with the capturing of Messrs. Perdicaris and Varley by brigands. The right of France to intervene would raise a direct issue with the Sultan of Morocco concerning the exercise of police powers. Moreover, the government's advisers are that Mohammed El Toros, the representative of the Sultan, has promised to meet the brigands' demands in order to secure the prisoners' release. Unofficially, however, it is said that Mohammed El Toros has already recalled the Moroccan troops, as the brigands demanded.

Also Assaulted the Women.

PARIS, May 20.—United States Consul Gummere, at Tangier, Morocco, telegraphs confirming the reports that the brigand band, which captured Perdicaris, an American citizen, and Cromwell Varley, a British subject, is the same that captured Mr. Harris, the London Times correspondent, last week. Besides capturing the men, members of the band assaulted the women of the Perdicaris party.

The British and American representatives at Tangier are taking energetic measures to secure the release of the captives, and the Moorish authorities are assisting them.

Sends for Supplies for Captives. TANGIER, May 20.—Raisoul, the brigand chief, who captured Perdicaris and Varley, has sent a number of his men to obtain bedding and linen for the prisoners.

BALLOT WILL BE SECRET.

Club Women Object to Plan to Have an Oral Vote.

ST. LOUIS, May 20.—In the convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs today the first order of business was the consideration of the report of the committee on elections. Owing to the hearing on the election of president that the change in rules would entail, the majority of the delegates were on hand early.

Those interested in the candidacies of several of the women whose names are mentioned in connection with the presidency make claims of pledges, but refuse to make known the strength of their respective candidacies.

A substitute for the recommendation of the committee on methods of election, providing that ballot-boxes be used instead of sending individual ballots to the platform to be counted by the tellers there, caused a storm of objection. The substitute provided for an oral vote by states, the ballot of each delegation being announced from the floor by the State Federation president. Mrs. Williams of Minnesota, declared that the oral method of voting destroyed the secrecy of the ballot, and this view was supported by many members.

The substitute for the amendment was defeated, and the amendment providing for the using of ballot-boxes was unanimously carried.

Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, of California, presided at the morning session, at which industrial topics were considered.

WANT RATES ADJUSTED.

Pacific Coast Jobbers Meet With Hill and Harriman Officials.

CHICAGO, May 20.—Committee representing the jobbing interests of San Francisco, Portland, Seattle, Tacoma and Spokane, today met for a joint conference in Chicago with officials of the Harriman and Hill lines with a view of obtaining an adjustment of rates. Today the traffic men met a committee of 12 Spokane men and two from the other Coast cities. The various cities have conflicting interests and there is apparently little common ground. Some of the things that the strictly Coast cities desire would be of injury to Spokane, and if Spokane should receive what it desires the Coast would be greatly injured. Further complicating the situation are the contending interests of the North Pacific Coast cities and San Francisco, each of which is anxious to preserve its present jobbing territory, if not to enlarge it.

The Pacific Coast insists that they should be allowed to go as far East for trade as the Eastern jobbers can go West at equal freight rates.

Spokane is demanding terminal and distributing rates, such as are granted to Tacoma, Seattle and Portland.

JUROR ACCUSED OF PERJURY.

Man Who Saved Bank Cashier From Being Convicted in Trouble.

TROY, Kan., May 20.—The jury in the trial of the first of five counts of forgery against J. E. Marcell, cashier of the Rockwell Highland Bank, disagreed today, after being out 48 hours, and was discharged. The jury stood 11 for conviction and one for acquittal. John Alfrey, the juror who held out for acquittal, was arrested after the discharge of the jury on a charge of perjury. It is alleged that Alfrey made the statement before he was selected as a juror that he would vote for acquittal to the last. The Highland Bank owed over $200,000 when it failed last year.

Banker Found Guilty of Larceny.

NEW YORK, May 20.—David Rothchild, ex-president of the Federal Bank, was today found guilty of grand larceny in the first degree. He was accused of inducing persons to deposit money in the bank after he knew it was insolvent. He was remanded until Monday for sentence. The penalty of the crime admits of a term of ten years in prison.

Speaker Guilty of Mutilating Records.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., May 20.—The Supreme Court today found Speaker James H. Whitecotton, of the House of Representatives, as attorney in a murder case, guilty of mutilating the record in the case. The Attorney-General may now institute disbarment proceedings against Whitecotton.

IMPERSONATOR IS KNOWN.

Low Dockstader Had Moving Picture of Roosevelt Made.

NEW YORK, May 20.—Low Dockstader, the misstrel, today turned over to the police the moving-picture films that were used in a camera yesterday in the Capitol grounds at Washington, when photographs were made of a man made up to the case. The Attorney-General said he had a negro lying on the ground. The films are yet undeveloped.

Dockstader's action followed a visit from a police inspector, after a secret-service

GRAND ARMY STIRRED

Camp Fires Blaze With Joy Over Escape of General Bedell's War Orderly from a Paralytic's Fate.

When Mr. Ross C. Duffy, of No. 18 Russell avenue, Nashua, N. H., was suddenly prostrated by a paralytic shock, the deepest concern was felt throughout the town, in which he had been a prominent official.

Grand Army men were especially so. In the Civil War Mr. Duffy had acted as General Bedell's orderly while serving with Company F, Third Regiment, New Hampshire Volunteer Infantry, and after the war he became a member of General Foster Post, G. A. R., and rose to be department vice-commander.

The general anxiety felt about him after his sudden shock in the latter part of 1902 was slightly relieved by the news that he had come out of a state of unconsciousness which had lasted for five days, but as week after week went by and he made no further progress, one leg remaining paralyzed, it was concluded that the highly honored veteran must at best remain a cripple for life.

Suddenly, to the surprise and delight of every one, Mr. Duffy appeared on the street in unmistakably robust health and was overwhelmed by congratulations and inquiries.

"The regular treatment," said Mr. Duffy, "didn't do a bit of good, so far as my paralyzed leg was concerned. My left leg remained cold and dead, and I had been too active a man to be content to be housed up with one dead leg if there was any possible way to cure it. I finally stumbled on help by the merest chance. I got my clew out of a Boston paper from the story of a war comrade, John Hunter, of Chico, Cal., who had been cured of a desperate attack of locomotor ataxia by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I sent for a box of the pills at once, and in less than a month afterward I, too, became a perfectly well man as the result of using them, and I have remained so ever since. No more vertigo, no more trouble with my stomach, none with my kidneys; in fact, every organ seems to be doing its proper work. I certainly have good reason to be thankful to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills." These pills are sold by all druggists throughout the world.

officer from Washington had made a call at the detective bureau and stated that the Washington police wanted the films.

"I wished the pictures for a new monogram," said Dockstader after leaving the inspector's office, "and I am sorry that my venture should have caused such a commotion."

"It is not true," said Dockstader, "that I was made up to look like Booker T. Washington, although the other man was meant to resemble President Roosevelt. It was with my most innocent intentions that I had the pictures made up as the President."
