

Georgia Democrats Have a Red-Hot Fight. ONLY EIGHT VOTES TO SPARE. Delegation for Jurist as Long as He Has a Chance. THE UNIT RULE IS ADOPTED. Convention Long Debates the Question of Whether its Representatives Shall Be "Request-ed" or Instructed.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 1.—After a red-hot fight over the question as to whether the word "request" or "instruct" should be used in resolutions favoring the nomination for President of Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York, the State Democratic Convention, at a late hour this afternoon, adopted resolutions, by a vote of 1094 to 1076, which were made unanimous by a motion, by which the delegates to the National Convention are "instructed to cast the vote of this state for Judge Parker, the nominee of the Democratic party for President, as long as in the opinion of a majority of the delegates there is a reasonable probability of his nomination, and that said delegates shall vote as a unit on all questions at all times in the Democratic State Convention, and Georgia's big four is composed of one Congressman, one farmer and two newspaper men as follows: Congressman John D. Maddox, James M. Smith, James B. Gray, editor of the Atlanta Journal, and Charles R. Pendleton, editor of the Macon Telegraph. The four named will go to the St. Louis convention as delegates at large.

HEARST MEN ARE ROUTED. Michigan Convention is Easily Controlled by Campau. DETROIT, Mich., June 1.—The anti-Hearst element in the Michigan Democratic convention, headed by Daniel J. Campau, of Detroit, National committeeman from this state, triumphed over the Hearst supporters at all times in the Democratic State Convention held here today to select delegates to the National Convention, and an unopposed delegation goes to the convention. While there are some Hearst men among the district delegates to St. Louis, the delegation was instructed to vote as a unit.

Named for Congress in Missouri. ST. GENEVIEVE, Mo., June 1.—The Republicans of the Fourteenth Congressional District nominated M. E. Rhodes for Congress. Fourth Maine District—R. W. Pittingill, Democrat. WYOMING FLOOD COSTS LIVES. Great District is Flooded and the Loss Will Be Large. GREEN RIVER, Wyo., June 1.—Floods in the Green River and tributaries have cost at least two lives and much damage to property. A messenger has just arrived here with news from the inundated district. It is his opinion that the death list may be greatly increased when complete reports come in. The known dead: FRANK WOODRUFF, stage rider. WILLIAM EUBANK, stage driver. Woodruff was foreman of the Circle cattle outfit and was drowned while fording Silver Creek, a tributary of Green River. His horse was swept from its feet and rolled over him, fracturing his skull and rendering him incapable of making a fight for life. His body was recovered. Eubank was drowned in Green River near Burns Postoffice. His body and that of his horse were swept away, and have not been recovered.

Ranchers Will Lose Heavily. CHEYENNE, Wyo., June 1.—Word has just reached this city of a terrific flood which swept down the valley of Horse Creek, 20 miles north of Cheyenne, yesterday afternoon. The flood followed a tremendous fall of rain about the headwaters of the creek within a short time the creek was transformed into a torrent from 200 yards to half a mile in width. It is said that the damage to ranch property will be immense. There is no report of loss of life.

BRYAN WRITES IT. (Continued from First Page.) have come back to the same place ten years later to ratify the act of that convention. Since that time the Democratic party of this state has followed the leadership of a man who is a patriot contending for great principles, and not a politician seeking office; a man who would rather go down to defeat a hundred times than wear upon his neck a yoke of slavery. Forty or fifty years from now, when he shall have gone to a higher democracy, his mantle will fall upon a hundred thousand patriots throughout this land who have followed the path of his true character and lofty principles. Yes, he has scattered the seed throughout this Republic that will spring up in the noblest manhood and will carry on the work that he has so nobly begun.

Party Wants Miles to Talk. Prohibitionists Cannot Nominate Him Unless He Comes Out Plainly. CHICAGO, June 1.—Oliver W. Stewart, chairman of the National Prohibition committee, said today: "General Miles would without a doubt be nominated by the Prohibitionists at Indianapolis June 2, if he were known to be identified with the Prohibition party. His record in opposition to the Army canteen is one of which Prohibitionists are proud. They desire to a great admiration for him. If he were to state publicly that in the coming campaign, as a patriotic citizen, he would affiliate with the Prohibition party and support its ticket, my judgment is that there would be no other name proposed in the National Convention. However, General

Miles has made no public statement to the effect that he intends to co-operate with the Prohibition party. He has suggested that we postpone our convention until after the National Democratic Convention at St. Louis, on the ground that possibly the Democrats may take such action as will make a nomination by the Prohibitionists unnecessary. "This is unsatisfactory to the rank and file of the Prohibition party. We are confident the Democrats will make no such move and propose to go ahead with our convention and make our nomination. Since General Miles is not with us to the extent at least of being willing to make an open public statement to that effect, it has become the settled conviction of the most thoughtful of the Prohibitionists that we must look elsewhere for our candidate. The prospect is that the convention at Indianapolis will be more largely attended than any gathering that has ever been held by the Prohibition party."

Hearst Will Get Wyoming. CHEYENNE, Wyo., June 1.—It is considered in political circles here practically certain that the Wyoming delegation to the National Democratic Convention will be instructed for Hearst for President by the State Convention, which meets in this city tomorrow. The only business to come before the convention is the selection of six delegates to the National Convention. The Democrats will hold another convention later in the summer to nominate candidates for Congress, Governor, State Treasurer and Supreme Judge.

Elkin Will Try for Senator. HARRISBURG, Pa., June 1.—It was reported here tonight that John P. Elkin, Republican candidate for Supreme Court Judge, will be a candidate for United States Senator to succeed Mr. Quay, on condition that Insurance Commissioner Durham will support him. Mr. Durham is now on his way East from California, and on his arrival at Philadelphia, Mr. Elkin will have a conference with him.

Dover to Begin Convention Work. CHICAGO, June 1.—Elmer Dever, secretary, and A. Fisher, a member of the Republican National Committee, arrived in Chicago today, and were in conference with William F. Stone, sergeant-at-arms for the convention. Tomorrow they will take possession of the headquarters established at the Coliseum Annex, and begin the work of assembling state delegations and preparing a roll of delegates.

New Denver Mayor Inaugurated. DENVER, Colo., June 1.—Mayor Robert W. Speer, Democrat, and the other city and county officials chosen at the first election under the new charter of Greater Denver, were inaugurated at noon today with public ceremonies in the Taber Opera-House.

Oedell and Porter Meet in Paris. PARIS, June 1.—Governor Oedell of New York, called at the United States Embassy today and had a long talk with Ambassador Porter. No mention was made of the nomination for the Governorship of New York.

Frick Not Candidate for Senator. PITTSBURGH, June 1.—Henry C. Frick denied today that he was a candidate for United States Senator to fill the vacancy caused by the death of M. S. Quay.

Frenchman Declares Fear of America and Asia Will Force Issue. CHICAGO, June 1.—A union of the majority of the nations of Europe into a great federation has been predicted by Anatole le Roy-Beaulieu, the French economist and sociologist, in a lecture on "The United States of Europe," given under the auspices of the Alliance Francaise.

TERRIBLE SUFFERING. THIS YOUNG WOMAN APPEALED IN VAIN FOR HELP. When Hope Had Almost Settled Into Utter Despair Relief Came From an Unexpected Source. Mrs. Emma Heidebreder, of No. 1223 Joy street, Burlington, Ia., whose husband is an employee of the Rand Lumber Company, tells a story of pitiable suffering.

"For about five years," she says, "I had a host of physical ills that kept me an invalid and puzzled the doctors. Some of them thought that I was going into consumption. At times I was so weak that I could not comb my hair or even wash my face. Then excruciating pains ran suddenly up my thigh and had to be carried to bed screaming in my agony. I could no longer do my work, and the drain upon my husband's purse was very heavy. I craved food, but what I ate only gave me discomfort. My liver was torpid, and often I had to be carried to the door for air to save me from suffocating."

"The worst was the pain, which seemed as if my thigh were being pushed out of my body. The best doctors could do was to desensitize it by narcotics. Once they thought I could not live for more than two days. In one of my worst attacks a friend said: 'Why don't you try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills?' They are the only thing that ever helped my rheumatism. 'I took his advice. After using one box I felt better, and I continued to use the pills for three or four months with steady improvement until I was well. For four years I have been able to do all my household work, and no longer have to take medicine for any serious trouble. I gave one box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to a man on crutches because of rheumatism and advised my market woman to buy a box when she was complaining of the same trouble. I heard that he was soon able to throw his crutches away, and she told me she had got rid of the rheumatism by the use of one box, and could not thank me too much."

Testimony multiplies as to the magnificent curative powers of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People in cases of rheumatism, neuralgia, nervous headache, palpitation of the heart and all forms of weakness, in either male or female. They are sold by all druggists throughout the world.

PREDICTS EUROPEAN ALLIANCE. Frenchman Declares Fear of America and Asia Will Force Issue.

CHICAGO, June 1.—A union of the majority of the nations of Europe into a great federation has been predicted by Anatole le Roy-Beaulieu, the French economist and sociologist, in a lecture on "The United States of Europe," given under the auspices of the Alliance Francaise.

In this union, which the professor thought was sure to come about, though possibly not in the 20th century, these nations, he said, would not be included: England, because it would combine instead with the United States; Russia, because it would form a great independent nation by itself; and Turkey, because it would be an absorbed country by the coalition and lose its identity. The union would be a necessity, the speaker said, to resist American aggression and the "yellow peril."

The lecturer said he had perceived that this country has a "tendency to look upon Continental Europe with the same regard that children have for superannuated parents, whose usefulness has come to an end."

"Europe," said the speaker, "is in danger. The United States is pressing hard upon the old countries in all lines of activity, not only in the material, but in the artistic and scientific. It is this not a sufficient cause, there is another in the Far East. The progress of Japan will mean the awakening of China. The United States makes the theme of the yellow peril, but it does exist."

Monster Dislodgment Sale!

Circumstances entirely beyond our control compel us to make the greatest sacrifices of our entire mercantile career. We bought generously for this season, with the expectation of a larger-expanded store. The builders delayed, and the annex that was to have been ready in March is just now being completed. Right in the midst of a busy season—the busiest in all our history of nearly three decades—the orders come to start to tear out and dismantle old departments for enlargement and expansion and make ready for new. Merchandise is piled mountain high—all new, stylish, dependable goods, the sort for which this store is noted. The walls between the buildings must come down. Dust and mortar will fly. The buzz of saws and ring of hammers will soon greet the ear. We've neither time nor inclination to move the stocks—except out to you. This we've resolved to do by making the
