TODAY THE FIFTY-SEVENTH GRAND WEEKLY
FRIDAY "ECONOMY SALE"
THE MOST ASTOUNDING VALUES EVER OFFERED IN PORTLAND'S STORE HISTORY!
THE GREAT AND REMARKABLE DISLODGMNT SALE

Brings Price Revelations on High-Grade Merchandise that stagger Competition. No use "shopping 'round" now, when every sort and kind of new and desirable merchandise may be had at Slaughter Prices, all under one roof. And that roof covers the most reliable and progressive, aggressive and down-to-date retail house in the Northwest. Everything in this house (with the bare exception of contract goods, on which the makers control price) IS REDUCED AS NEVER BEFORE. No, not in the history of Portland retailing—the January sales are eclipsed—competition o'ershadowed. One might as well try to stem Niagara or to lift oneself in a basket as to block the charge of such mighty values as meet you here at every turn. We know full well 'tis paralyzing all other similar lines of business about us, but we've no alternative; one more month and this store will become a vast mechanics' shop, filled with artisans who'll ply the hammer, saw, trowel and plane; the walls will be torn down between the old store and the new, the mammoth elevators will be installed, the largest on the Coast; bricks, mortar and dust will fly. Old departments will be torn out, some moved, all enlarged—'tis a monster expansion. No use trying to care for the goods or move 'em. We'd rather do business one month at a loss and give our patrons the benefit than to lose on goods damaged. All incoming new goods go direct to the bargain tables. We can't afford to cog the wheels of a business like this by cancelling orders. Our standing in the market is without a flaw today, and must be kept that way. So come and take away the goods to your homes, and remember how the "Old Homestead Store" helped you to save when a larger store is ready to hold our larger patronage. The story today—"Everything in the house reduced"—is augmented by a matchless list of Friday Specials for today only. Also every advertised bargain of the week goes today.

Today's Sale
Brings the Biggest Petticoat Bargains in Town

To vehemently assert a thing is one thing, to prove it, another. We're going to prove the assertion at the top of this paragraph, today, to the unquestioned satisfaction of every woman who will compare values offered. These Petticoats were made to our order in one of the best under-muslin factories of America. Under hygienic conditions, by skilled needlewomen, with even more skill and care than you could possibly exercise yourself in home sewing. They were made to sell at $2.00, and contain full 200 cents' worth of value, each and every one. To further demonstrate our leadership in value-giving over all other Portland stores, we shall offer them today—buy as you wish, at, each, 89c. See them in Fifth-street windows. A word of description:
