

KNOX IN THE RACE

Attorney-General Wishes to Be Senator.

LEADERS TO CONFER TODAY

Robbins Also Looms Up as Man to Succeed Quay.

THREE OTHER CANDIDATES

H. C. Frick Goes to Philadelphia in the Interest of Knox-John Mitchell a Factor in the Contest.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—Interest was added to the Senatorial situation today when it was announced by H. C. Frick, of Pittsburgh, who arrived in the city today, that he is here in the interest of United States Attorney-General F. C. Knox.

The other candidates are: William A. Finis, a Pittsburg leader; Francis L. Leason, Robbings, president of the Pittsburg Coal Company, one of the largest bituminous coal-producing concerns in the country; ex-Attorney-General John P. Eikin, of Indiana County, who is the party nominee for Justice of the State Supreme Court, and Richard R. Quay, a son of the late Senator.

The candidacy of Mr. Robbins loomed up strongly yesterday, principally through a visit paid to Senator Penrose by John Mitchell, president of the Miners' Union. Senator Penrose and Mr. Mitchell were together less than a half hour, and after the conference was over, Senator Penrose refused to talk. Mr. Mitchell, however, said he came here in the interest of no candidate for the Senatorship.

BECKHAM IN THE SADDLE.

Blackburn Speaks in Vain Against Alleged Machine Rule in Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 8.—What promises to be a bitter contest for control of the State organization came up in the Democratic State Convention here today. The result of the first struggle, the election of a temporary chairman, was a decisive victory for the administration forces, led by Governor Beckham. Governor Beckham was elected to the temporary chairmanship by a vote of 117 to 82 over John Penke, of Shelby County.

The fight against the administration was led by Senator Blackburn, assisted by Senator McCreary and Congressman D. H. Smith. When the convention opened State Chairman Alce Young made a long speech in which he attacked the methods of the administration. At the close of Chairman Young's speech, Congressman Ollie James placed Governor Beckham in nomination for temporary chairman.

Senator Blackburn nominated Judge Penke. Senator Blackburn made a remarkable speech. He asserted that the Democratic party in Kentucky was falling into the grasp of a machine and out of the control of the voters. He declared that he and his associates would contest the efforts of the administration men to elect Lewis McQueen chairman of the State Central Committee.

Governor Beckham, in his speech accepting the temporary chairmanship, announced that the full control of the party was not of his seeking. He denied Senator Blackburn's assertion that a machine and not the voters controlled the party.

The work of organizing the convention was rapidly proceeded with and the temporary organization has been completed. The convention took a recess until 8:30 o'clock.

The district meetings in each of the 11 districts were held for the purpose of naming delegates to the National Convention. Only one district—the fifth—declared for Parker. Of the 29 delegates named at the other ten district meetings, three are regarded as possible Hearst men, six are for Parker and 11 declined to express a preference.

There was a spirited debate in the committee on resolutions over the platform, five of the members of the committee demanding the reaffirmation of the Kansas City platform. In order to prevent a contest on the floor of the convention, a compromise was effected by adopting the following opening clause:

"The Democratic party of Kentucky, in convention assembled, affirms its faith in and adherence to the great and fundamental principles of Democracy as expounded by Jefferson, exemplified by Jackson, and ably defended by Bryan."

The course of Governor Durbin, of Indiana in refusing to surrender, on requisition from the Governor of Kentucky the persons of William Taylor and Charles Finley, fugitives from justice, charged with the murder of William Goebel, was denounced as a violation of the constitution.

At the night session the majority report of the committee on organization was adopted, carrying with it the election of McQueen as chairman of the State Central Committee, and Senators Blackburn and McCreary, Governor Beckham and Congressman James as delegates-at-large. The adoption of the report of the committee on resolutions was followed by a heated wrangle over a resolution indorsing Judge Alton B. Parker, for President, introduced by Congressman Buckley, of Louisville. The convention, by a vote of nearly three to one, declined to consider the resolution, all the delegates from the country districts voting not to suspend the rules to consider it.

A CRUSHING BLOW

FELLED LIKE AN OX AND DIZZY AND SLEEPLESS FOR WEEKS.

Rough Experience of E. C. F. Ward, of Girard, Kansas, a Veteran of Co. H, 55th Indiana.

A reporter who was seeking for Mr. Ward to get his confirmation of a statement that had been made concerning him by a fellow-townsmen found that stalwart carpenter engaged in putting a new window frame in an old house. In response to an inquiry the robust workman dropped nimbly to a seat on the window bench, and said:

"Yes, I owe my recovery to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I am always glad to tell the story for the sake of others. In fact, I think there are only two kinds of medicine worth buying—at least only two kinds that ever did me any good—and one of them is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."

"You see, it was this way: I was at my work in 1892, when I felt as if I had been struck on the head by a sudden blow. My heart seemed to stop, and the doctor said it missed every other beat. I went through the battle of Richmond, Ky., but I never had been through anything like this before. I thought surely I was going to pass in my checks this time."

"After that I had very trying dizzy spells. I had to give up work altogether and spend every other day in bed. For two months I did not leave the house. I could not concentrate my eyes on any object; I was in a state of extreme nervousness all the time. I would lie awake at night from 9 o'clock until daylight. My circulation was bad and my feet always cold. The doctor admitted that his medicine was not doing me a bit of good."

"Then I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, about which I had read in an advertisement. After three or four days' use I realized that they were helping me. I began to take them in January, 1893. By the middle of February I was out, and in March I resumed work as usual. I sleep without difficulty, my dizziness has never returned, and my feet are always warm when they should be. You may say that I think Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can't be beat for nervousness and difficulties of the blood." They are sold by all druggists throughout the world.

Race for Governor Very Close.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 8.—Returns today from the second Democratic state primary assure the nomination of J. P. Fallisferro to succeed himself as United States Senator and of Frank Clark as Congressional Representative from the Second District. The race between Congressman Davis and Captain Broward for the Governorship is very close, and the official count will be necessary.

Prohibitionists Eulogize Miles.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., June 8.—The Prohibition State Convention today adopted with great enthusiasm a resolution eulogizing General Miles, and declaring the Prohibitionists would feel honored in having him as their leader in the campaign.

South Dakota Prohibitionists.

STUPENDOUS SACRIFICE OF A MONSTER, BELATED PURCHASE OF WOMEN'S SPLENDIDLY FASHIONABLE READY-TO WEAR AND TAILORED HATS!

THE CLIMAX-CAPPING MILLINERY EVENT OF 1904'S SEASON

98 Cents for $2.00 to $4.00 Values

FRIDAY ONLY!

None before at the price. See the beauties in a large Washington-street display window. Fortune smiles again upon our patrons with her kindest beam of the entire year. We closed a fortunate purchase, embracing the entire stock of Tailored and Ready-to-Wear Hats remaining in the salesroom of a prominent manufacturer, at a small fraction of their worth, as he is ready for Fall operations. Unfortunate circumstances delayed their delivery to us until now. We could conscientiously refuse them, but a further concession from the makers was too strong a temptation to resist, for it enables us to distribute among our patrons such values as even this store never gave before in the history of millinery selling.

A word of the Hats: They are every one the very newest and latest of the advance Summer styles. The immense purchase embraces French Sailors, Turbans, Continentals, etc., in all the season's most popular colors, which include champagnes, white, navies, browns, reds and black. Hats that become every face, equally charming and stylish on miss or matron. A superabundance of styles in the vast choosing—positively the greatest aggregation of chic, smart hats ever brought to Portland at an underprice. Under usual conditions there's not one but would bring twice to four times Friday's price. Not a hat that could be sold under $2 and bring back the money it cost. Most of them are grand values at $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00.

WE PICTURE AT THE HEAD OF THIS ANNOUNCEMENT PERFECT REPRODUCTIONS OF A FEW OF THE STYLES IN THE GREAT BARGAIN CONVENTION OF HEADWEAR. NUMEROUS OTHERS EQUALLY CHARMING AND WORTHY ARE HERE. VALUES TO $4.00, AT 98¢.

Sale opens Friday morning at 8 o'clock. Positively none before. Hats for hundreds, but the first hundred usually pick the best hundred.

AN UNENDING SUCCESSION OF STUPENDOUS AND MATCHLESS QUALITY BARGAINS MARKS THE PROGRESS OF THE MONSTER DISLODMENT SALES AT PORTLAND'S LARGEST AND BEST APPAREL SHOP—Second Floor.

Suits at Half Price—Tremendous Cuts on Waists

Dislodgments and reconstructions hit us hardest of anywhere here. The entire department is to be stripped bare, remodeled throughout, enlarged to twice its present size—already the largest department in the Northwest devoted exclusively to the selling of women's fine outer apparel. It seems a shame to sacrifice profits and costs so relentlessly as we are doing, but quick-step marching is inevitable to give room for the carpenter. Stocks must soon be condensed to cramped quarters pending the raising of the walls between the buildings that now form what will soon be Portland's greatest thoroughfare store. The losses now are slight compared to what they might be later, were stocks allowed to step over through the dust and upheaval of reconstruction and removal. So stocks must submit to monster sacrifices. We spur on the laggards this way—
