

Optimistic Address of President Wilson

BEFORE PRINCETON MEN

Life is Greater Than the Things We Handle.

MEANNESS IS NOT SIMPLICITY

At Student's Request First Layman Delivers Baccalaureate on History of Institution-Ex-President Cleveland in Procession.

PRINCETON, N. J., June 12.—For the first time in the history of Princeton University, a layman today delivered the baccalaureate address, the honor being conferred on President Woodrow Wilson, at the request of the students. In the academic procession was ex-President Cleveland. President Wilson, in the course of his address, said:

"The vast accumulations of wealth, the vast material equipment of civilization in our day ought not to mislead us into supposing that this is an age of ease and material power that has gone before it. It is not.

"Though its spiritual impulses and conceptions and undertakings do not run so exclusively along the old, hallowed and familiar ways of religion, as in some noted days gone by—particularly some days that shine bright and illustrious in the early annals of our own Nation—its spirit of man has waxed as strong in our time as his hand, and has given itself to work as mighty and as influential.

"Many books and homilies have been written for us of late in advocacy of a simple life, and beneath their sentiment lies a noble and enlightening truth. There is a virtue in a plainly furnished room; a little circle of employments, a little group of friends is no certain means of grace. The simple grace may be very mean and bare and unwarding; and what is worse, it may be very selfish and belittling.

"The kernel of the moral is simply that our life is greater than the things that we handle, and that our life is in us, not in our possessions or in our social or business engagements.

"After saying that God is abroad and not shut up behind conventional walls, and that the college men, because of their best training, ought to be the best men, and men of God, President Wilson continued:

"It is no doubt ordained that the world shall be saved, not only by the foolishness of preaching, but also by the courage of action and the satisfying nobility of unimpeachable conduct, and colleges cannot make servicable men unless they make men of brains, also men of principle."

MENACE IN LABOR'S ATTITUDE

Dr. Thwing Fears for Peace and Progress of America.

CLEVELAND, June 12.—The annual baccalaureate sermon to the graduating classes of Adelbert College and the College for Women of Western Reserve University was delivered tonight in Beckwith Memorial Church by Dr. Thwing, pastor of the subject, "The Trustee of the Gospel." In the course of the sermon, Dr. Thwing said:

"One of the conditions to which the trusteeship of the Gospel is to be applied is the subject known as labor and capital. This condition is most serious. Two elements necessary for the producing of results of primary value to the community are in constant or periodic antagonism. Capital at times seems to give ground for the judgment that nothing is so great as human toil, and to supply so certain or so large a human life."

"On the other hand the laborer is liable to be jealous of the capitalist. He feels he is not getting his full increment of the increasing force of civilization. He feels himself often oppressed, calmed, played with, fooled. He easily becomes an anarchist. He sees law breaking at the top and he at the bottom defies the law. Sullen, gloomy, revengeful, he often is. The labor union he uses as a mighty engine of democracy both against the capitalist and the government. It is the most important tool of modern industry and of modern life.

"The first element in the adjustment in the rights and duties of capital and labor is an understanding of the rights and duties of both capital and labor." In conclusion, Dr. Thwing said:

"I sometimes fear that forces now active may sweep away the old community and again overthrow civilization, as it was overthrown in Southern Europe 1500 years ago. Neither this Nation nor any of the other advanced peoples of the world has any patient right to a constant progress or to a lasting existence."

NATION THAT STRIVES.

President Faunce Comments on the Action in American Life.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 12.—The 125th commencement at Brown University began today with the baccalaureate sermon, delivered by President William H. Faunce. He took for his text John 17: "The other disciple did unto John Peter, and came first to the satchel; yet went he not in." President Faunce said in part:

"The American Nation is regarded by impartial observers as able rather than profound in intellect. Whatever the goal, we strive while other peoples are considering how to start. Yet we stand outside the realm of ripened wisdom and assurance and stable conviction.

"The men of our time are more attached to expedients than to principles, preferring action to thought; and our generation, so full of life and movement, appears at times to be 'found nowhere under full sail.'"

WIDEN RYOT ON TRAIN

Union and Nonunion Miners Clash in Idaho.

CLUBS ARE USED AS WEAPONS

Argument Over Cripple Creek Explosion Leads to Blows, and Several Participants Are Badly Beaten Up in the Melee.

WALLACE, Idaho, June 12.—A riot occurred at Wallace, Idaho, today, between union and nonunion miners from the Hercules mine and nonunion men from the properties of the Federal Mining and Smelting Company. No one was killed, but several on each side were badly injured. The trouble arose from an argument over the Cripple Creek explosion, in which two

FIREMEN CHOKED BY FUMES.

Tobacco and Alcohol in Fire in East Saloon Cellar.

NEW YORK, June 12.—Thirty firemen were temporarily overcome by tobacco smoke and fumes from alcohol early today while fighting a fire in Felt's Cafe, in Broadway. The fire was confined to the sub-basement, in which liquors and cigars were stored, and the fumes and dense smoke from the burning cigars hindered the firemen to such an extent that the firemen were compelled to work in a crouching position.

During the fire an ambulance surgeon was stationed near by to care for the firemen, whose eyes caused them intense pain. The cause of the fire is not known. The upper floors of the building were occupied by wholesale milliners, and the loss on their stock, which was practically ruined by the smoke, is also placed at $100,000.

Another early morning fire in the wash-house and storage houses of the Jacob Hoffman Dressing Company, in East Fifty-fifth street, caused a loss estimated at $200.

AUTOMOBILE RUN DOWN.

Horrible Accident Witnessed by People on Golf Links.

NEW YORK, June 12.—Rounding a curve at Yorkland Park this afternoon a train and a Yonkers division of the New York & Putnam Railroad crashed into an automobile owned by George W. Noakes, a restaurant-keeper, Frank H. Read, a paper manufacturer of this city, was killed; the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. Noakes had her left foot cut off by the train, and John Spencer, the negro chauffeur, was probably fatally injured. Mrs. Noakes and her two-year-old son escaped with a few bruises.

The train was hidden by a heavy clump of trees as it approached the Yonkers station, a passenger train was in sight from the crossing the automobile came swiftly along toward the tracks. It was impossible to avoid a collision and hundreds of persons on the golf links, which is the scene of the heavy touring car demolished. Mr. Read's body was picked up 40 feet from the crossing. He was unconscious and died soon after being taken to the hospital.

The young girl was the only one who was not thrown from the automobile. She was in the middle seat, and when the locomotive struck the car, she was carried on with it. Her foot dragged along the rail and was run over and amputated, and her leg mangled by the engine. Her body became wedged in the wreckage, and before she was released parts of the broken automobile had to be uncreased and unripped. At the hospital it was found necessary to amputate her leg.

Mr. and Mrs. Noakes and their young son were flung onto the soft greenward of the golfing ground, and their injuries were slight. Spencer, the chauffeur, was also thrown from the car, but one foot had been crushed and it was found necessary to cut it off at the hospital.

FILLED JUG WITH GASOLINE.

Grocer's Mistake Results in Death of One and Injury to Three.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 12.—A mistake in filling a grocery store jug with gasoline when vinegar was asked for resulted in an explosion at the home of Anton Schoen in this city tonight, which caused the death of one person and injury to three others. The dead:

MRS. BARBARA SCHOEN, aged 62 years. Helen Schoen, aged 4 years, burned on right arm.

Anton and Charles Schoen, hands severely burned.

Mrs. Schoen bought what she believed to be a jug of vinegar at a grocery store and in preparing dinner she poured a portion of the jug's contents into a hot skillet. Instantly there was an explosion which enveloped her in flames and set fire to the house.

Helen Schoen, who was in the room, was badly burned before her brothers rescued her. Anton and Charles Schoen were thrown from the room to save Mrs. Schoen and the little girl.

Mrs. Schoen died at the hospital several hours after the accident. The grocer who filled the jug, which she made her purchase has denied that she had been in his store.

WIDEN RYOT ON TRAIN

Union and Nonunion Miners Clash in Idaho.

CLUBS ARE USED AS WEAPONS

Argument Over Cripple Creek Explosion Leads to Blows, and Several Participants Are Badly Beaten Up in the Melee.

WALLACE, Idaho, June 12.—A riot occurred at Wallace, Idaho, today, between union and nonunion miners from the Hercules mine and nonunion men from the properties of the Federal Mining and Smelting Company. No one was killed, but several on each side were badly injured. The trouble arose from an argument over the Cripple Creek explosion, in which two

PRESIDENT OF THE REBEKAH ASSEMBLY OF OREGON

Mrs. Nora W. Barnett, of Athena, Ore., was recently elected president of the Rebekah Assembly, I. O. O. F., at the annual meeting at Astoria. She was also made Grand Mistress of Finches of the Rathbone Sisters. She is especially well fitted for the latter position, as she has been a Rebekah in the Athena, where she belongs to Mignonette Lodge, No. 94.

ELECTION IN ARGENTINA.

Manuel Quintana is President, Figueroa Alcorta Vice-President.

BUENOS AYRES.

Manuel Quintana has been elected President of the republic and Figueroa Alcorta has been elected Vice-President.

Passing of French Regime.

PANAMA, June 12.—L'Étoile de Panama, the French newspaper which has been published here since the organization of the old Panama Canal Company, was issued for the last time this morning.

Pardi Made President of Peru.

LIMA, Peru, June 12.—Jose Pardi has been elected President of the republic.

Instructed for Governor Davis.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 12.—A number of delegates to the Democratic State Convention are here on the way to Hot Springs. Governor Jefferson Davis will be nominated, as 21 out of the 45 delegates are instructed to vote for him.

Cloudburst Delays Trains.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., June 12.—A cloudburst a few miles north of this city delayed Monument Creek almost to the point of stopping. The water of this city. The cloudburst occurred late this afternoon and the creek reached a depth of ten feet before 7 o'clock. A Rio Grande bridge north of town was washed out.

Pacific's New Football Coach.

PACIFIC UNIVERSITY, Forest Grove, Ore., June 12.—(Special)—J. G. Thompson, manager of Pacific University football interest, announced today that W. F. Magee, of California, has been secured to coach the team next year. Mr. Magee has had four years' football experience. He coached the Santa Clara College football team on which he played at tackle and half, and afterward went to Stanford, where he filled a halfback position. Last year he coached the team at Santa Clara College.

Parker the Favorite in Texas.

HOUSTON, Tex., June 12.—Reports have been received from 169 counties of Texas, with a vote of 84 delegates in the State Convention. Parker instructions were given in 107 counties, having 512 votes. Eleven counties, with 57 votes, are for Hearst, and 26 counties, with 213 votes, are unstructured.

Queen Arrives at Victoria.

ADDRESS AT EUGENE

Baccalaureate Sermon to Students by Rev. Mr. Gilbert.

COLLEGE AND TOWN ATTEND

Graduating Class of Nineteen in Caps and Gowns, Cross the Chapel and Become Alumni.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Ore., June 12.—(Special)—Sixteen hundred people, almost half the population of the college town of Eugene, assembled in Villard Hall today to hear Rev. W. S. Gilbert, of Portland, deliver the baccalaureate sermon, his subject being, "Can Ye Not Discern the Signs of the Times?"

The address was replete with admonitions to the 19 members of the graduating class, and was highly instructive and forcefully impressive. Friends and patrons of the State University, graduate and undergraduate students thronged the campus early, and when the time came for the commencement week exercises to open, Villard Hall was filled and the standing.

Prior to the baccalaureate address special musical programs were delivered under the direction of Professor I. M. Glen, who was congratulated for the success of the opening exercises. Eva I. Shinn appeared in "From Thy Love as a Father," a solo obligato, which was the strongest musical number on the program.

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

ADDRESS AT EUGENE

Baccalaureate Sermon to Students by Rev. Mr. Gilbert.

COLLEGE AND TOWN ATTEND

Graduating Class of Nineteen in Caps and Gowns, Cross the Chapel and Become Alumni.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Ore., June 12.—(Special)—Sixteen hundred people, almost half the population of the college town of Eugene, assembled in Villard Hall today to hear Rev. W. S. Gilbert, of Portland, deliver the baccalaureate sermon, his subject being, "Can Ye Not Discern the Signs of the Times?"

The address was replete with admonitions to the 19 members of the graduating class, and was highly instructive and forcefully impressive. Friends and patrons of the State University, graduate and undergraduate students thronged the campus early, and when the time came for the commencement week exercises to open, Villard Hall was filled and the standing.

Prior to the baccalaureate address special musical programs were delivered under the direction of Professor I. M. Glen, who was congratulated for the success of the opening exercises. Eva I. Shinn appeared in "From Thy Love as a Father," a solo obligato, which was the strongest musical number on the program.

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

ADDRESS AT EUGENE

Baccalaureate Sermon to Students by Rev. Mr. Gilbert.

COLLEGE AND TOWN ATTEND

Graduating Class of Nineteen in Caps and Gowns, Cross the Chapel and Become Alumni.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Ore., June 12.—(Special)—Sixteen hundred people, almost half the population of the college town of Eugene, assembled in Villard Hall today to hear Rev. W. S. Gilbert, of Portland, deliver the baccalaureate sermon, his subject being, "Can Ye Not Discern the Signs of the Times?"

The address was replete with admonitions to the 19 members of the graduating class, and was highly instructive and forcefully impressive. Friends and patrons of the State University, graduate and undergraduate students thronged the campus early, and when the time came for the commencement week exercises to open, Villard Hall was filled and the standing.

Prior to the baccalaureate address special musical programs were delivered under the direction of Professor I. M. Glen, who was congratulated for the success of the opening exercises. Eva I. Shinn appeared in "From Thy Love as a Father," a solo obligato, which was the strongest musical number on the program.

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

"The true measure of a man is his faith. Society has different standards of measurement. In character as in all great works of literature and art, there is an element of unity, something that is the neutral thing, around which the life clusters, and that is man's faith. Faith gives the keynote of the man."

History proves that all the great characters of the world have been men and women of Christian faith. Unbelief never made a great life—great in the acknowledged essentials of being.

GEN. GRANT'S COMRADE

MUNYON'S PAW PAW

CURED HIM OF INDIGESTION AND VERTIGO

Seaside Water System Completed.

Cossacks Kill Chinese Bandits.

Nursing Mothers

Have a double demand upon strength and nourishment that is ideally met in ANHEUSER-BUSCH'S Malt-Nutrine

It supplies the food needed by mother and child, aids convalescence, builds up the system, is easily retained and digested.

STOP THOSE DRAINS

They will undermine the strongest constitution if neglected. The very essence of your vitality and manhood may be wasting and you do not know it.

POSITIVE CURES

SCIENTIFIC TREATMENT OF MEN'S PRIVATE AILMENTS

VARICOCELE, NERVOUS DEBILITY, BLOOD POISON, RUPTURE, KIDNEY AND URINARY DISEASES

and all diseases due to habits, excesses or the result of specific diseases. I make no misleading statements or unbusiness-like propositions to the afflicted in order to secure their patronage. The many years of my successful practice in Portland prove that my methods of treatment are safe and certain. You do not want to be mutilated and maimed for life in trying to be cured of Varicocele, Hydrocele and kindred troubles in a few days. I guarantee a perfect cure without injurious after effects.

You Will Feel Like a New Man

ST. LOUIS DISPENSARY

SECOND AND YAMHILL STREETS, PORTLAND, OREGON.

Twenty Years of Success

In the treatment of chronic diseases, such as liver, kidney and stomach disorders, constipation, diarrhoea, dropsical swellings, Bright's disease, etc.

Kidney and Urinary

Diseases of the Rectum

Diseases of Men

YOUNG MEN troubled with night emissions, dreams, exhausting drains, impotence, cured at home. Terms reasonable. All letters answered in plain envelopes. Consultation free and absolutely confidential. Call on or address:

DR. WALKER, 151 First Street, Corner Yamhill, Portland, Or.