OF THE STORE MARKS THE FOURTH WEEK OF THE MIGHTY DISLODMENT SALES

The supreme factor in these great sales, where sacrifices are forced upon us that we are powerless to prevent, no alternative being left us but the risk of damage to hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of dependable, worthy and fashionable merchandise, is the fact that (a few contract goods alone excepted) ABSOLUTELY EVERY ARTICLE OF MERCHANDISE UNDER OUR ROOF IS REDUCED AS NEVER BEFORE! THE GREAT JANUARY SALES ARE OUTDONE IN BARGAIN-GIVING! THIS IS AN EVENT LONG TO BE REMEMBERED IN THE ANNALS OF PORTLAND MERCHANDISING—for years may pass ere again pitiless circumstances force such merciless sacrifices. We print this morning only the overflow of two great full pages of bargain items crowded out in both Sunday and Monday issues of The Oregonian. EVERY ADVERTISED SPECIAL OF THE WEEK is in force today, and everything in the house mightily reduced for quick, clean clearance before alterations begin and Bedlam reigns. Why should you pay other stores regular prices when you may buy here at reduced prices—pocketing the difference? Ask your purse this question.

Charming Millinery Now $5

Second Floor Salons. We're right in mid-season here with a grand demonstration of magnificent Summer Millinery at a popular price. We open this morning 200 of the newest and swellest conceptions in late creations of Summer Hats, from the deft fingers of our own artist milliners, fashioned after models of Parisian and New York hats now being shown by leading milliners in all Eastern style centers. Also a new shipment of handsome black turbans, the famous Gage make, every one the best $5.00 value ever offered in our city. We must sell the hats at once, before alterations start. While at other stores the season is about over, here we are daily bringing forth new creations to replace those gone out to Portland's best-dressed women. Beautiful new lace hats make their bow today, also ducks and sailors—up from..... 95¢

Suits for the Bathing Beach for 1904

DASHING, DARING, CHIC AND FETCHING COSTUMES FOR WETTING OR WADING AND EVERY ONE OF THESE NEW SUITS SMARTLY REDUCED.

We've just received our Summer supply of the swellest Bathing Suits that the "Portland Girl" ever imagined. Suits that lend a charm to their dainty feminine wearers. Time was when 'twas said if a lover could withstand the bedraggled appearance of his fiancée after a plunge in the breakers, made in one of the old-fashioned bathing suits, he could stand anything and was surely in love. No one need to take such chances now-a-days, girls, for the new Summer Bathing Suits are beauties and will stand wetting without losing a bit of charm. We should sell every bathing suit that's bought in Portland this season, for we've not only the prettiest, but every SUIT IS REDUCED FROM THE START. You may select your new bathing suit here now at the price you'll pay other stores late in August—and another fact worth remembering, the lines are new, immense and unbroken. You'll be properly in the swim with one of these. Price hints.

Teachers' Educational Contest

All Aboard for the Big St. Louis Exposition. Don't Waste the Ballots. If you don't care for them, take 'em home. There'll surely be some school child in your neighborhood who'll value them that she (or he) may vote for a favorite teacher. Vote! Every ballot given suit with sale slips should count—the choice is with our customers as to the make-up of that little party of three schoolteachers to go to the great Fair—all expenses paid by this house. To show the care this store is taking that no favoritism be shown or influence used by any employee of the house, for any teacher who has issued bulletins of instructions from time to time to all of our helpers. We reproduce Bulletin No. 2, issued last week. It explains itself. Contrast this voting contest to others about town. No one need fear being sandbagged or even importuned for votes here for employers. We want for our helpers in other and better ways—shorter hours of labor, for instance. The result of the Educational Contest is for the public to decide, without even suggestion from any one connected with this house.

NO. 3 BULLETIN TO EMPLOYEES Ament the Educational Contest.

June 18, 1904. We desire to remind our people of the regulations issued some time ago in regard to the teachers' voting contest. It is most important that these rules should be strictly carried out and we hope that all will do their part to their positive enforcement.

No employee must in any way use their influence to obtain votes for or suggest the name of any teacher to be voted for, neither may they under any circumstances save votes for any teacher or customer to be voted, but in all cases when votes are not taken by customer, hand them immediately to department manager or floorman. Should customer not wish to wait for coupons, and goods are to be sent, mark on check legibly "Enclose coupons," and they will be sent with package. It is the desire of the house to conduct this contest in a fair and impartial manner to all concerned, and we look to and expect our people to help us do it.
