NOVA SCOTIA IS CELEBRATING.

Anniversary of the Landing of De Monts is Being Observed.

ANNAPOLIS, Nova Scotia, June 21.—The celebration of the 300th anniversary of the landing of Sieur de Monts (June 21, 1604) in this country, where he founded the first European colony in British North America, and the second on the continent, was begun here today, the first event on the programme being an international military demonstration in the old French fort, in which sailors from French and United States warships took part with the British tars and local militia.

The warships in port included the British cruiser Ariadne, the United States cruisers Detroit and Topeka, the French cruiser Tonnant and Canadian vessels. All the ships were gallantly dressed in bunting, and throughout the old town the colors of three countries were generally displayed. Thousands of visitors attended.

LOOMIS' BROTHER DISAPPEARS

Assistant Secretary of State, However, Believes He Missed Boat.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Assistant Secretary of State Loomis has been notified by officials of the steamship company that his brother, Kent Loomis, who was en route to Europe, has disappeared from the Kaiser Wilhelm.

Mr. Loomis, however, is confident that his brother has not come to harm. His reason for this belief is the fact that when the boat touched at Plymouth, which was during the night, his brother landed, as was shown by the dispatch by him of a cablegram which was received in Washington. Mr. Loomis thinks his brother was accidentally left in Plymouth when the boat departed for Cherbourg. He is expecting to hear from him at any moment.

FAIR PLANS FOR GREAT JULY 4

Noted Orators Are Invited to Speak at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, June 21.—The Fourth of July arrangements made by the officials of the World's Fair contemplate a celebration which bids fair to eclipse any celebration ever held in the United States. Telegrams have been sent to Senator Foraker, of Ohio; Congressman Bourke Cockran, of New York; Senator Daniels, of Virginia; Senator Spooner, of Wisconsin; Senator Doolittle, of Iowa; Representative Williams, of Mississippi; Clark Howell, of Atlanta; Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts; and W. J. Bryan, of Nebraska, inviting them to make addresses at the World's Fair Grounds on that date. Five stands will be erected, and several of the noted speakers will be assigned to each.

A feature of the day will be the reading of the Declaration of Independence over the Liberty bell in the Pennsylvania building. Out of compliment to the United States, all foreign commissioners will keep open house all day.

Long Speaks at Bunker Hill Banquet.

CHICAGO, June 21.—John D. Long, ex-Secretary of the Navy, has been the guest of honor and the principal speaker at the Bunker Hill Day banquet of the National Sons of the American Revolution.

Long made a glowing tribute to President McKinley, giving him the credit for the inauguration of the Administration's colonial policy, and dwelt on his serious views regarding the responsibility of the head of the Government to all the people, irrespective of class or affiliations.

Home for Aged as Memorial.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Property valued at $100,000 has been donated by Mrs. Emily J. Smith, of Chicago, to the Chicago Presbytery for the purpose of founding a Presbytery Home for the Aged. Attached to the gift is a stipulation that the Presbytery erect certain buildings and that the home, when completed, be recognized as a memorial to Mrs. Smith's parents, Washington and Jane Smith.

Governor Bates Receives Filipino. BOSTON, June 21.—Governor Bates at the Statehouse today received the Filipino Commissioners, who later were taken to Cambridge, where they visited Harvard as the guests of President Eliot.

BOBBIKOFF LAID IN THE TOMB

Emperor Attends the Funeral of the Governor-General of Finland.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 21.—The body of General Bobrikoff, the late Governor-General of Finland, arrived here today from Helsinki. It was received with full military honors, and was interred at the family vault at Sergievo, near St. Petersburg.

Friendship of Nations Demonstrated.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The friendship between Argentina and Italy has received a most emphatic demonstration on the occasion of the dedication of a large equestrian statue of Garibaldi, erected at the entrance of Palermo Park, says a Herald dispatch from Buenos Ayres, Argentina. The ceremony was attended by President Rosa, the members of his Cabinet and about 30 Italian associations, with flags and bands. Many representatives from Italian organizations in Brazil and Chile were present. Troops formed a guard of honor.

Phipps Still Unable to Agree. PITTSBURGH, June 21.—After a day of wrangling, the attorneys who have been trying to adjudicate the troubles of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Cowie Phipps ad-

British Commissioner Resigns.

MOMBASA, British East Africa Protectorate, June 21.—Sir Charles N. P. Elliot, British Commissioner and Commander-in-Chief of the East African Protectorate, has resigned the Commission because he is opposed to the proposed Jewish settlement in the East African Protectorate. Sir Charles has cabled to Premier Balfour demanding a public inquiry of the circumstances of his resignation.

New President of Santo Domingo.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Consul-General Maxwell, in a cablegram from Santo Domingo informs the State Department that General Morales was elected by Congress and Caceres Vice-President, and that the inauguration took place last Sunday. He says the revolution is ended.
