

BLAME IS FIXED

Steamboat Men Held for Slocum Disaster.

DIRECTORS ARE NOT SPARED

Jury Reports Mate Acted in a Cowardly Manner.

HE IS UNABLE TO GIVE BAIL

Inspector Charged With Misconduct in Allowing Vessel to Operate and Government is Also Requested to Take Up His Case.

NEW YORK, June 28.—The inquiry conducted by Coroner Berry and a jury into the General Slocum disaster was concluded today, and, after nearly four hours' deliberation, a verdict was rendered in which the directors of the Knickerbocker Steamboat Company, Captain Vanschalck, of the Slocum; Captain Pease, the Commodore of the company's fleet, and others were held criminally responsible. Warrants for their arrest were issued. The mate of the Slocum, Edward Flanagan, according to the jury, acted in a cowardly manner, and the misconduct of Steamboat Inspector Lundberg, it was reported, should be brought to the attention of the Federal authorities.

The charge in each case is manslaughter in the first degree. Bail was fixed by the Coroner varying from $100 to $500. Edward Flanagan, the mate, was the first arraigned. He pleaded not guilty, and his bail was fixed at $1000. He was committed to jail. Inspector Lundberg pleaded not guilty, and was released on $1000 bonds.

Bail was fixed at $5000 each for President Barnaby and Secretary Atkinson, and bonds were furnished at once.

Captain a Prisoner at Hospital.

Captain Vanschalck is a prisoner in the hospital. Captain Pease will not be arrested until tomorrow, when it is expected that the directors of the company will also be taken into custody. At the Assistant District Attorney's request, the Coroner committed Assistant Engineer Edwin Brandow and Deckhands Conkley and Handley as witnesses, sending them to the House of Detention.

The jury is also of the opinion that the system of inspection which prevails in the harbor of New York is very inefficient, and does not properly demonstrate whether the lifesaving apparatus and fire appliances on the vessels in this harbor are in proper and suitable condition to prevent the loss of life, and we recommend to the Secretary of Commerce and Labor that he issue such instructions to the supervising and local force of inspectors as will cause them to efficiently and honestly examine the boats plying in and about the harbor.

All but Forty Drowned.

Formal testimony was presented that 86 bodies had been recovered, of which all but 40 met death by drowning. Floyd S. Corbin, named as one of the directors of the Knickerbocker Company, tonight said he is not a director of the company, having been replaced at the last meeting of the company's stockholders in February, and that he does not own a single share of stock. He was much surprised by the verdict of the Coroner's jury.

THE DEATH ROLL.

Gifted Violin-Player.

NEW YORK, June 28.—Michael Roach, a gifted violin-player who had traveled in many countries, is dead at his home in Hempstead, L. I. Roach suffered from heart trouble, brought on by excessive playing on his beloved instrument, a Stradivarius. He had for years played frequently more than 12 hours a day. When he fell ill, several months ago, the doctors warned him that excessive devotion to music had weakened his heart, and that he must use the bow more moderately. He observed their injunctions for a time, but found it hard to master his passion for music, so that, two weeks ago, he was forbidden to touch the violin again. He declined rapidly from that time on.

Youngest Soldier to Wear the Gray.

CHICAGO, June 28.—John Bailey Tyler, of Chicago, is dead at the Alexian Brothers' Hospital, after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Tyler, it is thought, was the youngest soldier in the Confederate army who served throughout the war, other than in the position of drummer boy. He enlisted when he was 12 years old as a cavalryman, serving throughout the war in D Troop of the First Maryland Confederate Cavalry. He was born in Frederick, Md., in 1828.

Prominent Chicago Financier.

NEW YORK, June 28.—Julius A. Kohn, formerly a prominent merchant of Chicago and afterward a banker and member of the Stock Exchange in this city, is dead at his summer home in Far Rockaway. He was 66 years old.

GRAND OPENING TODAY OF THE MardiGras Sales

NINTH IN THE SUMMER SERIES OF GRAND

ORIGINAL HOURLY SALES TODAY

And Continuing Every Hour of the Day Until Six O'clock

A Grand Mardi Gras Carnival of Unmatchable Values!

Last week's sales broke all records. 'Twas a veritable triumphal march of trade victories! Never such selling at this season, never so many extraordinary values in high-class and seasonable merchandise; never so much genuine enthusiasm among our own helpers, as well as among patrons. And we've planned even greater things this week. The contractors will soon start in their work of demolition, destruction, dirt and reconstruction. We must hurry out the goods; every article in the house—contract goods excepted—marked for sacrifice. This week's bargains in every line will be even greater than last week's unsurpassed offerings, and the special values more numerous, each day bringing its quota of rare bargains. Fresh lots are coming in daily and are at once piled on the great altar of sacrifice built by THE TREMENDOUS SLAUGHTER OF STOCKS DURING DISLODGE SALE! Space is not allowed for mention of one-fourth the matchless values in our daily announcements, EVERY ARTICLE IN THE HOUSE BEING REMARKABLY REDUCED—except contract goods. Cut out this list of SURPASSING SPECIALS FOR TODAY'S HOURLY SALES and bring it with you, as we issue no handbills.
