SEES OWN CHANCE VANISH

Believes New York Judge Has Bought Up His Delegates.

TAMMANY FEELS CONFIDENT

About a Thousand, With Plenty of Money, Will Insist That Anybody Will Be a Better Candidate Than Man of Silence.

NEW YORK, July 3 .- (Special.)-The largest delegation that has ever gone from New York to a National Convention of either party is now on its way to St. Louis. This is partially due to the fact that the convention city is also the World's Fair city, and that politics and pleasure can be combined at one and the same time, and it is also due to the additional fact that New York Democrats are unusually interested as to the identity of the person who will be selected to make the race against Theodore Roosevelt.

Advance guards of the three factions interested are already on the grounds in St. Louis, prepared to sing the praises of Parker, Hearst and the Tammany choice, who is Cleveland, or, in fact, anybody except Parker and Henret. These ploneers are expected to blaze the way for the main armies which will arrive in force and state in time to participate in the festivities of the glorious Fourth.

Of these armies of factional Democrats, by all odds the largest is comprised of the adherents of Tammany Hall. Six special trains were required to carry the delegates, alternates and shouters to the convention. Two of these trains went over the Pennsylvania Railroad, three over the New York Central and one by the Balti-

Tammany Sends 1000 Men.

Each of these trains consisted of a baggage-car, six Pullman sleepers and a dining-car, and about 150 Democrats will be on each train, making Tammany's total contribution almost 1009 men. Everyone of these will wear Tammany badges, epend Tammany money, and enunciate Tammany doctrine that the nomination of Alton B. Parker would be the silliest possible thing that the Democrats of the Nation could do.

The Parker beomers will not travel in such glorious state as the Tammany men, nor will there be as many of them. His friends "up state" have been out of office so long that few of them can afford an expensive trio to St. Louis metropo lis, so that the up-country district will be represented almost entirely by the regularly chosen delegates and alternates. The Brooklyn men, who are for Parker, own and expect to have from 125 to 150, Another special train will go over the New York Central for the benefit of Hill and his friends and will pick up delegates and Parker rooters at various places between New York and Buffalo.

Few Eastern Hearst Boomers.

The Hearst boomers will be in evidence at St. Louis, but not in the numbers as were contemplated when the "peerless leader of the Democracy" thought he had a chance of winning. He has no delegates from this section to take with him, except eight unhappy men from Rhode Island, and two of these are declaring, with tears in their eyes, that really they don't care to vote for him any-

The original plans contemplated five special trains loaded down with boomers and delegates from various Eastern States, including New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, but as there are not any Heart delegates from those sections, and the reports from other parts of the country are extremely unflattering, the Hearst boomers from the East will be represented at St. Louis principally by a strong delegation, chosen with care from the editorial staff of the New York American and Journal.

Hearst Believes His Agents.

Mr. Hearst, it might be stated, realizes thoroughly at last that he has no chance of being nominated. He still believes that the people want him, but his various agents have explained their defeat in states where he confidently expected delegations by saying that the Parker men, aided by Wall-street boodle, had bought up delegates who were at heart for Hearst, but turned out to be "at pocket" for Parker.

Strange to say, Mr. Hearst theroughly believes these explanations, and is burning for revenge. He has decided that if he cannot get the nomination himself he will see to it that Parker doesn't, and all his efforts are being bent toward holding the delegates solld against the New nings Bryan. On the other hand, the Parker people declare that their man will be nominated on the second ballot surely, and ot, as he is the second choice of everybody except Hearst, but they fear that votes for Olney. Wall of Wisconsin Cockrell of Missouri, Gray of Delaware and perhaps Pattison of Pennsylvanta, Gorman of Maryland and Judson Harmon of Ohio, will prevent a choice on the first ballot. They expect, however, that when the second ballot begins all of these men will withdraw in favor of Parker, and they declare that they will be mightily astonished if this

Hill Men Fear Only Hearst.

The Hill men regard the opposition to their candidate as being absurd. They say he has only one real oppoent, and that is Hearst, who may receive as high as 175 votes on the first ballot, but under no circumstances can get any more from any source what soever. They therefore think that everything is settled and that the convention will be as perfunctory an affair as that of the Republican, except that they will be afflicted with futile and unpleasant howls from Bryan and a few of his radical friends. Some of the Hill men who believe in omens, dreams and lucky signs, are drawing great comfort from a coincidence that is bound to make itself manifest at the St. Louis Convention Eight years ago at Chicago, William Jennings Bryan, who had not then been onsidered as a candidate for President, was a member of the resolutions committee, along with David B. Hill. Mr. Bryan presented the majority report, and in defending the silver plank In the platform made the famous 'crown of thorns and cross of gold" speech, which set the delegates frantic and brought him the nomination Mr. Hill presented the minority report and received as much consideration and attention as a snowflake at the North Pole.

"Conservatives" In Control.

This year all the signs show that positions will be reversed. "The Conervatives" will be in control of the onvention and the indications are that Mr. Hill, who has signified his intention of going on the resolutions com mittee, will be its chairman, and conse quently present the majority report and platform from which all traces of Bryanism have been carefully eliminated. On the other hand, it is an absolute certainty that Bryan will be on the resolutions committee as Nebraska's representative and present a minority report attacking the position of the majority Walter Rollins, of Buffalo, was in town the other day and presented the above view of the situation to State Senator George W. Plunkett, one of Tammany's old-time leaders, and wound up by saying: "Don't you see what this means? Why, everything indicates that Hill is coing to get up there and dazzle the delegates with his eloquence just like Bryan did eight years ago, and carry off the nomination. That's what will happen, if there's anything in coinci-

Even Opponent Would Feel Sorry.

"Hill is a good speaker," assented Mr. Plunkett, "and he'll knock those delegates silly, if he told them half the mean and crooked thinks he has done in his life, but I'm free to confess that if Hill wins the delegates with his golden tongue, as Bryan did with his silver one, eight years ago, I'd bet all the money I could lay my hands on that the prophecy would be completed." "What do you mean?" asked Mr. Rol-

TAMMANY SHOWS ITS PLAN. Opponents of Parker Are Urged to Hold Men Together. ST. LOUIS, July 3 .- The Tammany advance guard arrived in St. Louis at 8:30 tonight and had not more than registered than they caused to be whispered around the plan by which they hoped to demonstrate that Judge Parker could be besten for the nomination. Charles F. Murphy, Bourke Cockran, Charles A. Towne, Thomas F. Grady, Victor Dowling and William Sulzer were the orators and pollticians who were at the head of the party, and within 30 minutes of their arrival they had prepared the following statement, attributed to Charles F. Murphy: "My position is now what it has con-

His invention is an important one, and is diseases. Dr. Thorner has devised an apparatus, by means of which it has become possible to photograph the background of the eye and obtain good plotures of the same. His contrivance constituates a ma-terial improvement of the ophthalmoscope invented by Heimholts in 1850, which latter device only admits of looking at the back ground of the eye. Owing to the peculiar construction of the eye, it has been impos sible heretofore to photograph the interior or back of the eye. It is a matter of great difficulty to illuminate the interior suffi-ciently to take a serviceable picture and even if strong sources of light were used, the exposure would last too long, rendering necessary a fixation of the eye, which in turn would entail serious inconvenience to the patient.

By means of his apparatus, Dr. Thorne first succeeded in obtaining photographs of the eyes of animals, particularly cat The interior of the human eye being my many improvements to take good photographs of the interior of human eyes with the apparatus.
