BIG CROWD AT PICNIC.

Five Thousand People Make Merry at Catholic Festivity.

A compliment is due the cartrucks that took 5000 people to St. Johns to the Cath-olic picnic at Cedar Park yesterday aftermoon, for they had a job worthy of their steel. From the transfer station at the end of the Upper Albina line to St. Johns, trains of three cars ran every 20 minutes, and these were so crowded that dozens sat on the roofs of the cars. To the orphans of three Catholic institutions, which are to receive the money made from the picnic, there will be coming about $3000 in consequence.

A Catholic fair was not in it for fun compared with this picute. There was everything a man could want for a Fourth of July afternoon. Strong drinks were barred, and as no fireworks were sold on the ground, what little were brought along by picniczers were soon shot off. But there were hundreds of pretty girls and a place to dance, and soft drinks with which to cool off, and sylvan retreats in which to rest. All these requisites for pleasure were made use of, and the man who did not help to give one or two girls a good time was

There were places in which to piculo and eat for the more staid, and opportunities for the agile to show their speed in races. Food was obtainable at b all day long. Many women worked hard to help the orphans, and their success was marked, The athletic events, which were of the hollday variety, were run in a narrow path through the crowd. Some of these were for speed, but most were freak races. Prizes were offered by leading erchants and keen competition was not lacking. The winners of events and prizes

Fifty-yard lash for boys, won by Will-tam Municy; prize, sult of clothes. Fifty-yard dash for girls, won by Maggle Miller; prize, $7 jacket.

Fifty-yard potato race, won by Henry Beckman; prize, first-class ball and bat. Fifty-yard egg and spoon race for girls, won by Catherine Dooley; prize, pair of Fifty-yard sack race for men, won by Edward Corcoran; prize, umbrella. Fifty-yard three-legged race, won by Duggan brothers; prize, two fancy shirts.

Hundred-yard dash, won by Tom Dug-gan; prize, $5 hat. Seventy-five-yard race for young women, won by Nellie Daly; prize, manicure

Fat man's fifty-yard race, won by Er nest Nehera; prize, box of cigars.

GREAT GARBAGE PILE AFIRE.

Multnomah Club Thought for a Time to Be Burning.

A large blaze in a garbage pile back of the Multnomah Club's field called out the Fire Department at 3:20 this morning. A sky-rocket fell on the refuse early in the evening and orignated the fire. From downtown, it appeared that the Multne mah Club building was burning. It, how ever, was never in danger. The main tent of the carnival was only 100 yards distant, and some fear was entertained for a short time that it would be de
