

BRYAN IS BITTER

Hopkins Men Termed a Lawless Gang.

MAJORITY TRAMPLED UPON

Method in Illinois Compared to Those of Trainrobbers.

STRONG PLEA FOR UNITY

Nebraskan Arouses the Convention to Great Enthusiasm, but When Votes Are Counted Contestants Are Badly Defeated.

CHICAGO, July 7.—W. J. Bryan aroused the convention to great enthusiasm this morning by his denunciation of the regular delegates from Illinois. His oratory counted for naught, however, as the convention decided against the Hearst-Harrison faction. Mr. Bryan compared the methods of Hopkins, Quinn and Cable to those of trainrobbers. His opening speech was as follows:

"I came to this convention in the hope that we would be able to agree on a platform, on candidates, and have nothing to stir the feelings or arouse contention. I still hope we shall be able to agree on a platform that will represent the sentiments of all of us so that we can present it to the country as the platform of a united party. I will go further than that. I still hope that we shall be able to present to the country a ticket behind which can stand as a united party. And I regret that I am compelled to come in at this time and present a subject upon which your votes will be asked. But if there is one Democratic principle more fundamental than another, it is the right of a majority to rule. If you destroy the binding force of that principle, there is nothing that can hold a party together. Compared to Trainrobbers.

"And, my friends, it is because I want the Democratic party to stand on the Jeffersonian principle of majority that I come here and present the minority report in this case. In the State of Illinois, the majority was not allowed to rule. That convention was dominated by a clique of men who deliberately, purposely, bodily trampled on the rights of the people of Illinois. My friends, the evidence shows that no band of trainrobbers ever planned a robbery upon a train more deliberately, or with less conscience, than they did. "And these men who plotted it, and who carried it out, have the audacity, the impudence and the insolence to say that because they certify that what they did was regular, you cannot go behind their certificates. If that is good law in a Democratic convention, it ought to be good doctrine in a court; and if it is good doctrine in a court, then the only thing that trainrobbers have to do in the future is to make a report of their transactions over their own signatures. "I repeat that, after they have committed their crime, all that trainrobbers have to do is to certify over their own signatures that it was a voluntary collection taken up for religious purposes, and deny you the right to go behind the returns."

Quinn Severely Arraigned.

Mr. Bryan made a severe arraignment of the methods of State Chairman Quinn and Convention Chairman Quinn in suppressing his opponents in the State Convention, and appealed for fair treatment of the Illinois Democrats. He concluded:

"When you, if you do, decide to seat these men, these delegates from the districts, against the evidence presented in regard to the contestants from the districts and these two National delegates, in spite of the protest of 871 members—if you do that, you take from the shoulders of Hopkins and Cable and Quinn the odium that they bear, and put it upon the Democratic party of the Nation and endorse that attempt. "You have not this condition in other states today, but let this convention ignore this conduct, and the National Convention will see more than one state here as the result of gavel rule. And it is because this question transcends the interests of any state or any candidate or any faction that I am here to present the minority report and to ask you to do the Democrats of Illinois the justice that this gang denies them, deliberately and insolently." (Cheers and continued applause.)

War Minister May Now Retire. PARIS, July 7.—During the discussion in the Chamber of Deputies today of a bill reducing the term of service of army reserve men, War Minister Andre was defeated, which led to rumors of his possible retirement from office.

Conservative Is Elected. LONDON, July 7.—A bye-election yesterday at Chertsey to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John J. Fyler (Conservative), resulted in the election of Lord Bingham (Conservative).

The materials included are chevrons, serges, homespuns, Venetians and imported novelty goods in English and Scotch suitings. The colors embrace blacks, browns, blues in navy and royal, grays and gray mixtures, tans and novelty mixed goods, in neat, dressy effects.
