

DEADLY NEED AID

Colorado Mineowners Reply to Appeal of Federation.

MILITARY PROVIDES FOR ALL

Strikers in Asking Red Cross to Assume Distribution of Supplies

VICTOR, Colo., July 20.—The Mineowners' Association, through its publicity bureau, today issued a statement which is intended as an answer to the appeal of the Western Federation of Miners to the Red Cross Society, asking that they take charge of the distribution of supplies to still in this district.

More Men Charged With Outrage.

NEW YORK CARPENTERS WILL TEST THE GENERAL ARBITRATION AGREEMENT.

Indicates a Heavy Engagement.

Unable to Explain Seizure.

British Squadron on Cruise.

Germans at Tientsin Relieved.

SHOT OVER COW ROPE.

Cotton Mills Reduce Wages.

MAY NEXT ATTACK LIAO YANG

Japanese Are Pursuing Their Favorite Flanking Tactics.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 20.—All advice from the theater of war continue to confirm the opinion that the pressure on General Kuropatkin's southern front at Ta Tehe Kine is being relieved, and that the Japanese are pursuing their favorite flanking tactics, working around to the northeast, as if to threaten the communication between Mukden and Liao Yang, or to make a direct attack on the latter place.

Second Saloonman Convicted.

Courthouse Contract Signed.

Courthouse Contract Signed.

President of Hibernian Auxiliary.

ARMIES ARE ENGAGED.

Right Flank of First Japanese Army Fighting All Day.

LONDON, July 21.—The Standard's correspondent, with the first Japanese army, cabling under date of July 19, says: "Our right flank has been engaged since morning."

BELIEVE SHIP WAS SEIZED.

Another British Steamer Probably Taken in the Red Sea.

Middleborough, England, June 18, and London, July 2, according to Yokohama. She is a British-owned vessel.

MAKE VISIT TO ADMIRAL TOGO

Members of Diet, Military Attaches and Writers Cordially Received.

AGASAKI, July 19.—(Delayed in Transmission.)—Admiral Togo today received the members of the Japanese Diet, naval attaches and newspaper correspondents on board the flagship Mikasa. The admiral greeted the naval attaches of the several nations in his private cabin, and then received the 30 correspondents in the bare, unadorned wardroom, where a place of a Russian shell, which was the only hit sustained by the Mikasa in her five-month commission. It struck the battleship's mainmast, shattering the high of Lieutenant Matsumura, a photograph of whose wounds, a gruesome souvenir, stands behind the piece of mitsite.

THE ADMIRAL, gray-headed, with white hair, and a stern, strong jaw of a born leader, was simply clad in a white tunic, adorned with an Admiral's stripes and the order of the Rising Sun, and flanked by the presence of the newspaper men, who replied briefly with congratulatory speeches.

THE ADMIRAL left her anchorage, behind the Japanese naval base, at 6 o'clock this morning, steamed outside the guard-rail in full view of the fleet, and maintained the steady pace of the transport camp encircled the cove. There are now only a few troops at the station, which is used merely as a commissary depot for the Japanese Army. The Manchuria sighted a few buoys and the remains of a boom defense, ten miles of which had been thrown across the inlet to make the channel likely to be the route of an expected Russian torpedo attack or attempt to interfere with the landing of troops. There was other evidence of the thorough mining of detail of the Japanese precautions.

When the Manchuria reached Taiten Bay, she was unable to proceed further south for fear of possible mine fields, and returned on her way, passing a gray flotilla of four torpedo-boat destroyers and six torpedo-boats, sliding through the laden sea to relieve the guardships off Port Arthur.

At 2 P. M., the Manchuria met the Mikasa and the battleship Ashahi and two torpedo-boat destroyers under the leadership of the Japanese fleet.

At 2 P. M., the Manchuria met the Mikasa and the battleship Ashahi and two torpedo-boat destroyers under the leadership of the Japanese fleet.

At 2 P. M., the Manchuria met the Mikasa and the battleship Ashahi and two torpedo-boat destroyers under the leadership of the Japanese fleet.

At 2 P. M., the Manchuria met the Mikasa and the battleship Ashahi and two torpedo-boat destroyers under the leadership of the Japanese fleet.

At 2 P. M., the Manchuria met the Mikasa and the battleship Ashahi and two torpedo-boat destroyers under the leadership of the Japanese fleet.

At 2 P. M., the Manchuria met the Mikasa and the battleship Ashahi and two torpedo-boat destroyers under the leadership of the Japanese fleet.

At 2 P. M., the Manchuria met the Mikasa and the battleship Ashahi and two torpedo-boat destroyers under the leadership of the Japanese fleet.

At 2 P. M., the Manchuria met the Mikasa and the battleship Ashahi and two torpedo-boat destroyers under the leadership of the Japanese fleet.

At 2 P. M., the Manchuria met the Mikasa and the battleship Ashahi and two torpedo-boat destroyers under the leadership of the Japanese fleet.

At 2 P. M., the Manchuria met the Mikasa and the battleship Ashahi and two torpedo-boat destroyers under the leadership of the Japanese fleet.

At 2 P. M., the Manchuria met the Mikasa and the battleship Ashahi and two torpedo-boat destroyers under the leadership of the Japanese fleet.

At 2 P. M., the Manchuria met the Mikasa and the battleship Ashahi and two torpedo-boat destroyers under the leadership of the Japanese fleet.

At 2 P. M., the Manchuria met the Mikasa and the battleship Ashahi and two torpedo-boat destroyers under the leadership of the Japanese fleet.

At 2 P. M., the Manchuria met the Mikasa and the battleship Ashahi and two torpedo-boat destroyers under the leadership of the Japanese fleet.

At 2 P. M., the Manchuria met the Mikasa and the battleship Ashahi and two torpedo-boat destroyers under the leadership of the Japanese fleet.

At 2 P. M., the Manchuria met the Mikasa and the battleship Ashahi and two torpedo-boat destroyers under the leadership of the Japanese fleet.

At 2 P. M., the Manchuria met the Mikasa and the battleship Ashahi and two torpedo-boat destroyers under the leadership of the Japanese fleet.

At 2 P. M., the Manchuria met the Mikasa and the battleship Ashahi and two torpedo-boat destroyers under the leadership of the Japanese fleet.

At 2 P. M., the Manchuria met the Mikasa and the battleship Ashahi and two torpedo-boat destroyers under the leadership of the Japanese fleet.

At 2 P. M., the Manchuria met the Mikasa and the battleship Ashahi and two torpedo-boat destroyers under the leadership of the Japanese fleet.

MRS. MAYBRICK IS FREE

FAMOUS ENGLISH PRISONER IS NOW EN ROUTE TO FRANCE.

She Will Not Come to America Until Her Presence is Deemed Imperatively Necessary.

TRURO, Cornwall, July 20.—Mrs. Maybrick is free. She left here at 11:30 A. M. today, on her way to France.

She Will Not Come to America Until Her Presence is Deemed Imperatively Necessary.

TRURO, Cornwall, July 20.—Mrs. Maybrick is free. She left here at 11:30 A. M. today, on her way to France.

She Will Not Come to America Until Her Presence is Deemed Imperatively Necessary.

TRURO, Cornwall, July 20.—Mrs. Maybrick is free. She left here at 11:30 A. M. today, on her way to France.

She Will Not Come to America Until Her Presence is Deemed Imperatively Necessary.

TRURO, Cornwall, July 20.—Mrs. Maybrick is free. She left here at 11:30 A. M. today, on her way to France.

She Will Not Come to America Until Her Presence is Deemed Imperatively Necessary.

TRURO, Cornwall, July 20.—Mrs. Maybrick is free. She left here at 11:30 A. M. today, on her way to France.

She Will Not Come to America Until Her Presence is Deemed Imperatively Necessary.

TRURO, Cornwall, July 20.—Mrs. Maybrick is free. She left here at 11:30 A. M. today, on her way to France.

She Will Not Come to America Until Her Presence is Deemed Imperatively Necessary.

TRURO, Cornwall, July 20.—Mrs. Maybrick is free. She left here at 11:30 A. M. today, on her way to France.

She Will Not Come to America Until Her Presence is Deemed Imperatively Necessary.

TRURO, Cornwall, July 20.—Mrs. Maybrick is free. She left here at 11:30 A. M. today, on her way to France.

She Will Not Come to America Until Her Presence is Deemed Imperatively Necessary.

TRURO, Cornwall, July 20.—Mrs. Maybrick is free. She left here at 11:30 A. M. today, on her way to France.

She Will Not Come to America Until Her Presence is Deemed Imperatively Necessary.

TRURO, Cornwall, July 20.—Mrs. Maybrick is free. She left here at 11:30 A. M. today, on her way to France.

She Will Not Come to America Until Her Presence is Deemed Imperatively Necessary.

TRURO, Cornwall, July 20.—Mrs. Maybrick is free. She left here at 11:30 A. M. today, on her way to France.

She Will Not Come to America Until Her Presence is Deemed Imperatively Necessary.

TRURO, Cornwall, July 20.—Mrs. Maybrick is free. She left here at 11:30 A. M. today, on her way to France.

She Will Not Come to America Until Her Presence is Deemed Imperatively Necessary.

WILL MEET THE CLARK LINE

Denver & Rio Grande Branch Will Give Direct Route to Los Angeles.

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

DENVER, July 20.—The Times today says: "The letting of contracts by the Denver & Rio Grande for a branch line from Marysville to Cedar City, Utah, yesterday, was but the carrying out of a part of the plan whereby the company is to extend its road to meet the Senator Clark line and secure a direct route to Los Angeles."

LONG LINE OF ELKS

Grand Lodge Parade Extends a Distance of Ten Miles.

HOT FIGHT FOR SECRETARY

Fred Robinson, of Iowa, Wins Out by Two, Breaking the Administration Slate—Buffalo Gets the Next Meeting.

CINCINNATI, July 20.—The Elks assembled here called this banner day, not only of the 40th grand lodge, but also of the order.

Following the parade were barbecues in the parks with refreshments for the multitude. While all sorts of entertainments were in progress late in the afternoon and the grand lodge was having one of the most exciting seasons in its history.

After being in session almost all night the grand lodge had elected all its officers except the grand secretary. There has not only been much agitation over the administration, but also an unusual contest for his place. It was currently stated in this agitation that the incumbent officials, or who were known as the "administration," had heretofore controlled the annual elections, and hard fights were made this year to defeat what was known as the "administration slate," no matter how good or popular its candidates might be. The so-called administration slate was broken in several places last night, and it was a hard struggle today when Fred Robinson, of Duquesne, Pa., was elected grand secretary by a bare majority of two.

Buffalo was chosen for the next meeting of the grand lodge, retiring Grand Secretary Reynolds, but also an unusual contest for his place. It was currently stated in this agitation that the incumbent officials, or who were known as the "administration," had heretofore controlled the annual elections, and hard fights were made this year to defeat what was known as the "administration slate," no matter how good or popular its candidates might be. The so-called administration slate was broken in several places last night, and it was a hard struggle today when Fred Robinson, of Duquesne, Pa., was elected grand secretary by a bare majority of two.

Buffalo was chosen for the next meeting of the grand lodge, retiring Grand Secretary Reynolds, but also an unusual contest for his place. It was currently stated in this agitation that the incumbent officials, or who were known as the "administration," had heretofore controlled the annual elections, and hard fights were made this year to defeat what was known as the "administration slate," no matter how good or popular its candidates might be. The so-called administration slate was broken in several places last night, and it was a hard struggle today when Fred Robinson, of Duquesne, Pa., was elected grand secretary by a bare majority of two.

Buffalo was chosen for the next meeting of the grand lodge, retiring Grand Secretary Reynolds, but also an unusual contest for his place. It was currently stated in this agitation that the incumbent officials, or who were known as the "administration," had heretofore controlled the annual elections, and hard fights were made this year to defeat what was known as the "administration slate," no matter how good or popular its candidates might be. The so-called administration slate was broken in several places last night, and it was a hard struggle today when Fred Robinson, of Duquesne, Pa., was elected grand secretary by a bare majority of two.

Buffalo was chosen for the next meeting of the grand lodge, retiring Grand Secretary Reynolds, but also an unusual contest for his place. It was currently stated in this agitation that the incumbent officials, or who were known as the "administration," had heretofore controlled the annual elections, and hard fights were made this year to defeat what was known as the "administration slate," no matter how good or popular its candidates might be. The so-called administration slate was broken in several places last night, and it was a hard struggle today when Fred Robinson, of Duquesne, Pa., was elected grand secretary by a bare majority of two.

Buffalo was chosen for the next meeting of the grand lodge, retiring Grand Secretary Reynolds, but also an unusual contest for his place. It was currently stated in this agitation that the incumbent officials, or who were known as the "administration," had heretofore controlled the annual elections, and hard fights were made this year to defeat what was known as the "administration slate," no matter how good or popular its candidates might be. The so-called administration slate was broken in several places last night, and it was a hard struggle today when Fred Robinson, of Duquesne, Pa., was elected grand secretary by a bare majority of two.

Buffalo was chosen for the next meeting of the grand lodge, retiring Grand Secretary Reynolds, but also an unusual contest for his place. It was currently stated in this agitation that the incumbent officials, or who were known as the "administration," had heretofore controlled the annual elections, and hard fights were made this year to defeat what was known as the "administration slate," no matter how good or popular its candidates might be. The so-called administration slate was broken in several places last night, and it was a hard struggle today when Fred Robinson, of Duquesne, Pa., was elected grand secretary by a bare majority of two.

Buffalo was chosen for the next meeting of the grand lodge, retiring Grand Secretary Reynolds, but also an unusual contest for his place. It was currently stated in this agitation that the incumbent officials, or who were known as the "administration," had heretofore controlled the annual elections, and hard fights were made this year to defeat what was known as the "administration slate," no matter how good or popular its candidates might be. The so-called administration slate was broken in several places last night, and it was a hard struggle today when Fred Robinson, of Duquesne, Pa., was elected grand secretary by a bare majority of two.

Buffalo was chosen for the next meeting of the grand lodge, retiring Grand Secretary Reynolds, but also an unusual contest for his place. It was currently stated in this agitation that the incumbent officials, or who were known as the "administration," had heretofore controlled the annual elections, and hard fights were made this year to defeat what was known as the "administration slate," no matter how good or popular its candidates might be. The so-called administration slate was broken in several places last night, and it was a hard struggle today when Fred Robinson, of Duquesne, Pa., was elected grand secretary by a bare majority of two.

Buffalo was chosen for the next meeting of the grand lodge, retiring Grand Secretary Reynolds, but also an unusual contest for his place. It was currently stated in this agitation that the incumbent officials, or who were known as the "administration," had heretofore controlled the annual elections, and hard fights were made this year to defeat what was known as the "administration slate," no matter how good or popular its candidates might be. The so-called administration slate was broken in several places last night, and it was a hard struggle today when Fred Robinson, of Duquesne, Pa., was elected grand secretary by a bare majority of two.

Buffalo was chosen for the next meeting of the grand lodge, retiring Grand Secretary Reynolds, but also an unusual contest for his place. It was currently stated in this agitation that the incumbent officials, or who were known as the "administration," had heretofore controlled the annual elections, and hard fights were made this year to defeat what was known as the "administration slate," no matter how good or popular its candidates might be. The so-called administration slate was broken in several places last night, and it was a hard struggle today when Fred Robinson, of Duquesne, Pa., was elected grand secretary by a bare majority of two.

Buffalo was chosen for the next meeting of the grand lodge, retiring Grand Secretary Reynolds, but also an unusual contest for his place. It was currently stated in this agitation that the incumbent officials, or who were known as the "administration," had heretofore controlled the annual elections, and hard fights were made this year to defeat what was known as the "administration slate," no matter how good or popular its candidates might be. The so-called administration slate was broken in several places last night, and it was a hard struggle today when Fred Robinson, of Duquesne, Pa., was elected grand secretary by a bare majority of two.

Buffalo was chosen for the next meeting of the grand lodge, retiring Grand Secretary Reynolds, but also an unusual contest for his place. It was currently stated in this agitation that the incumbent officials, or who were known as the "administration," had heretofore controlled the annual elections, and hard fights were made this year to defeat what was known as the "administration slate," no matter how good or popular its candidates might be. The so-called administration slate was broken in several places last night, and it was a hard struggle today when Fred Robinson, of Duquesne, Pa., was elected grand secretary by a bare majority of two.

Buffalo was chosen for the next meeting of the grand lodge, retiring Grand Secretary Reynolds, but also an unusual contest for his place. It was currently stated in this agitation that the incumbent officials, or who were known as the "administration," had heretofore controlled the annual elections, and hard fights were made this year to defeat what was known as the "administration slate," no matter how good or popular its candidates might be. The so-called administration slate was broken in several places last night, and it was a hard struggle today when Fred Robinson, of Duquesne, Pa., was elected grand secretary by a bare majority of two.

Buffalo was chosen for the next meeting of the grand lodge, retiring Grand Secretary Reynolds, but also an unusual contest for his place. It was currently stated in this agitation that the incumbent officials, or who were known as the "administration," had heretofore controlled the annual elections, and hard fights were made this year to defeat what was known as the "administration slate," no matter how good or popular its candidates might be. The so-called administration slate was broken in several places last night, and it was a hard struggle today when Fred Robinson, of Duquesne, Pa., was elected grand secretary by a bare majority of two.

Buffalo was chosen for the next meeting of the grand lodge, retiring Grand Secretary Reynolds, but also an unusual contest for his place. It was currently stated in this agitation that the incumbent officials, or who were known as the "administration," had heretofore controlled the annual elections, and hard fights were made this year to defeat what was known as the "administration slate," no matter how good or popular its candidates might be. The so-called administration slate was broken in several places last night, and it was a hard struggle today when Fred Robinson, of Duquesne, Pa., was elected grand secretary by a bare majority of two.

Buffalo was chosen for the next meeting of the grand lodge, retiring Grand Secretary Reynolds, but also an unusual contest for his place. It was currently stated in this agitation that the incumbent officials, or who were known as the "administration," had heretofore controlled the annual elections, and hard fights were made this year to defeat what was known as the "administration slate," no matter how good or popular its candidates might be. The so-called administration slate was broken in several places last night, and it was a hard struggle today when Fred Robinson, of Duquesne, Pa., was elected grand secretary by a bare majority of two.

Buffalo was chosen for the next meeting of the grand lodge, retiring Grand Secretary Reynolds, but also an unusual contest for his place. It was currently stated in this agitation that the incumbent officials, or who were known as the "administration," had heretofore controlled the annual elections, and hard fights were made this year to defeat what was known as the "administration slate," no matter how good or popular its candidates might be. The so-called administration slate was broken in several places last night, and it was a hard struggle today when Fred Robinson, of Duquesne, Pa., was elected grand secretary by a bare majority of two.

Buffalo was chosen for the next meeting of the grand lodge, retiring Grand Secretary Reynolds, but also an unusual contest for his place. It was currently stated in this agitation that the incumbent officials, or who were known as the "administration," had heretofore controlled the annual elections, and hard fights were made this year to defeat what was known as the "administration slate," no matter how good or popular its candidates might be. The so-called administration slate was broken in several places last night, and it was a hard struggle today when Fred Robinson, of Duquesne, Pa., was elected grand secretary by a bare majority of two.

Buffalo was chosen for the next meeting of the grand lodge, retiring Grand Secretary Reynolds, but also an unusual contest for his place. It was currently stated in this agitation that the incumbent officials, or who were known as the "administration," had heretofore controlled the annual elections, and hard fights were made this year to defeat what was known as the "administration slate," no matter how good or popular its candidates might be. The so-called administration slate was broken in several places last night, and it was a hard struggle today when Fred Robinson, of Duquesne, Pa., was elected grand secretary by a bare majority of two.

Buffalo was chosen for the next meeting of the grand lodge, retiring Grand Secretary Reynolds, but also an unusual contest for his place. It was currently stated in this agitation that the incumbent officials, or who were known as the "administration," had heretofore controlled the annual elections, and hard fights were made this year to defeat what was known as the "administration slate," no matter how good or popular its candidates might be. The so-called administration slate was broken in several places last night, and it was a hard struggle today when Fred Robinson, of Duquesne, Pa., was elected grand secretary by a bare majority of two.

A Beautiful Young Society Woman's Letter. St. Paul, Minn. 521 Wabasha St. Dr. Hartman, Columbus, O. Dear Sir: I took Peruna last summer when I was all run down, had a headache and backache, and no ambition for anything. I now feel as well as I ever did in all my life, and all thanks is due to your excellent Peruna. —Bess F. Healy.

The symptoms of Summer catarrh are quite unlike in different cases, but the most common ones are general lassitude, played-out, tired-out, used-up, run-down feelings, combined with more or less heavy, stupid, listless, mental condition. Relish for food and the ability to digest food seems to be lost. Stomach troubles, mallow complexion, biliousness, coated tongue, fitful, irregular sleep, help to complete the picture which is so common at his season.

Peruna so exactly meets all these conditions that the demand is so great for this remedy at this season of the year that it is nearly impossible to supply it.

Peruna Contains No Narcotics. One reason why Peruna has found permanent use in so many homes is that it contains no narcotics of any kind. Peruna is perfectly harmless. It can be used any length of time without acquiring the drug habit.

Thousands of women suffer from pelvic catarrh and catarrhal nervousness and don't know it. If you feel fagged out, begin at once taking Dr. Hartman's Peruna. It will relieve your catarrhal affliction and all your organs will be restored to health. Buy a bottle today, as it will immediately alleviate your case.

THE PERKINS. Lydia Auloff, Seattle; O. H. Hill, Lansing; P. P. Ames, Tacoma; T. Anderson, Heppner; Mrs. Ames, Tacoma; C. Butler, Ft. Townsend; W. Van Vactor, Calumet; W. W. Brown, T. Dal; C. Groehler, do; Frank Parker, do; D. L. M. Sims,