Today's Greatest Suit Sale.

WOMEN'S NEW $28.50 SUITS $8.75.

2 to 5 P. M.—Second-Floor Salons. We've rather gotten our cheap imitations "over a barrel," so to speak, on the Suit question. Their representative is running around New York whining of how his firm is "stuck" on a lot of old Suits which he admits to manufacturers will take "40 years to dispose of." That's the result of too much gilt and "gewgaw," and sweatshop workmanship. Portland women are too level headed and possess too much sense to be taken in by such "stuff" and won't buy it. Result—Our "shadows" can't get rid of their musty, tenement-house-made trash and are therefore unable to buy liberally of the new Fall styles. How directly opposite is the situation here. Stocks were never so low. Our Miss Bernard is sending us new things daily and you'll find some of them here among the sale Suits today. New Suits, bought under-price from makers whose season is over—late, smart Mid-

Summer Suits, some at less than a third of their worth. A word of them. All new this season's latest styles from leading makers, materials include chevrons, tweeds, canvas cloths and zibelines, in black, blue, brown and novelty mixtures; in walking and dress-style lengths, jackets, etons and blouse designs, fancy braid and every new trimming effect—$18.00 to $28.50 values, 2 to 5 P. M. today only for ..... $8.75 ahead—Hammocks are comfort breeders—better buy an incubator today, don't you think?

Sweltering August days are

Odds and Ends of the Linen Stocks, Unmatched Patterns, Etc. Lucky Opportunity This For the Housekeepers, Hotel-Men and Restaurant Managers—First Floor.

THIS SATISFACTORY LINEN STORE presents this morning oceans of saving opportunities for the prudent. It's the second day of our Annual Sale of Mussed Linens and ends of lines. The variety includes tea cloths, tray cloths, centerpieces, lunchcloths, doilies, scarfs, tablecloths, bedspreads, pillowshams and damasks. Many pieces were made to our order, and to our design. They represent the world's finest linen countries—France, Ireland, Moravia, Belgium, Germany and Silesia. They are the work of craftspeople who have not only given their lives to linen making and embroidering and lace making, but who have generations of linen-makers and lacemakers back of them. Many of the pieces are individual things of which there is only one, these art-pieces have the further charm of having been collected right at the homes of those who made them—after the designs suggested by ourselves.
