Old Man Suspected of Killing Four People.

BODIES OF TWO MEN FOUND

Connecticut Police Believe Prisoner Killed Hired Hands When They Pressed Him for Money—Probably Drugged First.

COLCHESTER, Conn., Aug. 26.—That

Gerston B. Marx, aged 50 years, now held in the Norwich County Jail, is the perpetrator of a series of cold-blooded murders in the village of Colchester, who today began a systematic search for bodies on the Marx farm. Four murders and an attempt to poison another man can, it is believed by two officials, be traced to Marx.

The bodies of two of Marx' alleged victims, Joe Pavol and Joe Palm, have been found. Marx is awaiting trial charged with the murder of Pavol, his wife being named as a witness for the state. The two bodies for which the search was begun today are those of an 18-year-old boy and a Hebrew peddler.

The boy, who was known as Harry, arrived in New York from Russia about three years ago, and he came here soon after for work for Marx. He worked on the farm about six months, and then suddenly disappeared. Marx said he had gone to Hartford to find employment, and he never returned. The motive for the crimes can only be traced to a desire on the part of Marx to escape paying money to persons to whom he was indebted. The two men whose bodies have been found were killed behind their backs, as was the young boy Harry, of whom no trace has yet been found.

I know that my Swamp-Root is purely vegetable and does not contain any harmful drugs. Thanking you for my complete recovery and recommending Swamp-Root to all sufferers I am,
