RATTLESNAKE KILLED ON WATERFRONT. Crawling along the river's edge, a gen-nine rattlesnake was killed beneath the ock at the foot of Couch street yesterday morning by William Baker, assistant agent of the Oregon & California Steamship Company. His Snakeship carried 16 rattles at the end of his tail and was four feet long. When the snake heard Mr. Baker approaching he drew himself into a coll and began to rattle in true snake fashion. A pole was brought into play, however, and the snake was quickly dis-patched. So far as known, no rattlesnake has ever been killed near the Willamette River before. It is probable that this specimen stole on board a steamboat at The Dalles, or some other up-river landing where rattlers abound, and obtained transportation to Portland. MANAGER JAYNES ARRIVES TODAY. Frank Jaynes, of San Francisco, the man-ager of the Western Union Telegraph Company's lines of the Pacific Coast, accompanied by I. N. Sale of Seats for Columbia Theater Begins This Morning.

The regular sale of seats for the Coumbia Theater opens this morning at 10 o'clock at Rowe & Martin's drugstope, Sixth and Washington streets. Portland theatergoers have never shown as much interest in any theater opening as they are now manifesting in the Columbia.

This handsome theater and select company of players are now ready for the opening performance of "Captain Lettarblair," which is now only three days away. The opening performance will be the matinee Sunday, September 4.

Each day that Miss Countiss has been n Portland, since her return to the Coast, has justified Manager Welch's wisdom in securing this exceedingly popular leading lady. Her hosts of old friends are rallying around her, and welcoming her, and she is making new ones every day. Her entrance on the Columbia stage Sun day afternoon will be a notable event in the theatrical year. Edgar Baume, the leading man, will be an ideal joint star with Miss Countiss in this Columbia firmament. It only remains to be said that such people as Donald Bowles and Miss Eytinge are also among the shining lights of the company, and the public will realize that Manager Welch is practically putting forward an all-star cast. "Captain Lettarblair" will be produced with all the sumptuousness and perfect detail that characterize a New York production. Mr. Sothern, who made the play famous, never presented a more finished performance than will be given at the Columbia. The beautiful theater, comfortable and luxurious in every way, the safest playhouse in America, will throw open its doors with the bright promise of pleasing the city immensely.

The prices are: Matinee, 10, 15, 25 cents; evening, 15, 25, 50 and a few at 75 cents. Season seats can be reserved at Rowe & Martin's drugstore, Sixth and Washington streets, and at the Columbia Theater, Fourteenth and Washington. Portland is now fortunate in the possession of a stock company of the highest class, and a perfectly-appointed theater-the Colum-

"Cleopatra" Draws Crowds.

Sardou's immortal drama "Cleopatra" is drawing large crowds to the Baker this week. It is the finest production ever given at this theater, and this is the first time that "Cleopatra" has been given at Baker prices in the Pacific Northwest. Melbourne MacDowell, has never played the role of Marc Antony better than he is doing at present, and in Miss Deane the title role is in most capable hands. There will be a matinee Saturday.

"A Mexican Romance" Tonight. "A Mexican Romance" will be presented for the first time at Cordray's Theater tonight by James Keane and his company. Elaborate preparations have been made by the management for a worthy setting to this really strong military comedy. The story told in this drama is not only one of strong human interest but as the scene is laid in Mexico during the war between that country and our own, an opportunity is given for picturesque scenery and rich coatuming. Special care has been shown in order to make this bill particularly as the latest and most popular novelties pleasing to the patrons of Cordray's Thea-
