SUCCUMBS TO SELF-INFLICTED WOUND. Mrs. Carrie Claneghan, who four days ago fired a builet toto her breast during a fit of temporary insanity, died yesterday morning at the Good Samaritan Hospital. The body is now at Finley's undertaking pariors, and arrangements for the funeral are being made. Mrs. Claneghan was 45 years old, and resided with her husband at 286 Bast Ninth street. She was a woman universally liked, and her death is mourned by a great number of friends and acquaintances. Nine weeks ago Mrs. Claneghan gave birth to a first child and never fully recovered from a nervous shock sustained at the critical period. She lost her mental faculties, and she finally shot herself after writing a note stating that she preferred death to the insane asylum. After shooting her-self she sang hymns until she lost con-sciousness. The bullet passed through her chest and pneumonia set in, causing her

ROOSEVELT FLAG STILL MISSING .- Police men have found no trace of the immented and long-lost Roosevelt flag, formerly the property of Mrs. Woodcock. Vigilance on the part of the force has falled to reveal a clue to the banner's whereabouts. The Order of Lions has proved an alibi, and the mystery is as deep and somber as P. A. MacPherson, supreme president of the Independent Order of Lions, emphatically denies that either he or any members of the order are responsible for the flag's disappearance. He states that he made the remark to Mrs. Woodcock: "Some one will steal that flag from you yet," and he supposes that the remark was taken as circumstantial evidence. Mr. MacPherson can establish an allbi, and the efforts of the police must turn to other channels. The banner is still in the hands of the enemy. And Oregon is lost until the flag is found! *

DIES FAR FROM FATHER.-Captain L. Veyrey, of Portland, received the sad news yesterday that his 7-year-old daugh-ter, Muriel, is dead at the home of her grandparents in England. According to the cablegram death was caused by ty-phoid fever. Only a month ago Captain Veymey returned from England, where he buried his wife, who died here last Summer, with the request that her body be taken to England for interment. The lit-tic girl accompanied him on the sad journey and had intended returning after a visit with her grandparents. The body of the child will be laid to rest near that of the mother in the English churchyard,

LADIES TWENTY-FIVE CENTS ALL DAYS BUT SAT.-GENTS, 50 CENTS. SUDDENLY BECOMES INSANE.-Mrs. Mary Tiser, living in Albina, terrorized people along Union avenue about 8 o'clock yes-terday morning by ontering a residence ht 660 Union avenue and ordering the people of the house about. The patrol wagon was sent to the scene, but before it arrived Mrs. Tiser had escaped to the woods. It is supposed that she went sud-denly insane yesterday morning, and a searching party was looking for her yes-terday afternoon and evening, but without success. She has been suffering for the past year with heart trouble. SCHOOL BOUNDARY LINES.-Owing to changes in the boundary lines between the Williams-avenue and the other school buildings of Albina, Professor M. L. Pratt will remain at the Williams-avenue schoolhouse the remainder of the week from 2 to 4 P. M. to give information, except Saturday. Parents will save time and trouble, if they are not fully in-formed where their children are to attend, by calling at the Williams-avenue building and get the information. This is done to save confusion after school

THE Northern Pacific is again placing very low rate excursion tickets on sale to the St. Louis Fair and other Eastern points. This is the best month in the year to visit the big show, and all tickets are good on the electric-lighted "North Coast Limited," operated only by the Northern Pacific from Portland to the East. Call or write for tickets and sleep ing-car reservations. A. D. Charlton, A. G. P. A., 255 Morrison street, Portland, Or. SEPTEMBER 5, 6 and 7 are the dates for the sale of excursion tickets via the Northern Pacific to the big World's Fair at St. Louis, and other Eastern points. All tickets are good on the North Coast Limited, the same as they are on both of the other through transcontinental trains. For particulars call on or write A. D. Charlton, Assistant General Passenger Agent, at 256 Morrison St., Portland, Or. * GRANGE AT STATE FAIR.—The State Grange will have quarters at the State Fair. State Master B. G. Leedy has appointed A. F. Miller to take charge of the quarters. Yesterday he secured a large tent, which will be pitched near where it was last year. For Sale.-Best paying and best advertised mercantile business in Portland, in center of retail district; $15,000. Ap-ply McGarry & Richardson, Atty's, 800 Oregonian.

OLD CLOCK MAY GO AGAIN.-The clock in the tower of Oddfellows' Temple at First and Alder streets took a holiday yesterday and remained with hands fold-ed at 3:15 all day. Just whether this was on account of its being Labor day or whether the clock had gone on a strike is not known, but it neither labored nor struck, and those who have so long de-pended upon it to tell them when to lie down and when to get up and when to take their meals found it a long time be-tween drinks yesterday. It may be that the clock is worn out, for it has been running for more than a generation. The temple was built in 1888, and was considered at that time rather an imposing structure, and the clock placed in the tower was the first town clock Portland boasted, and the only one for many years. The battered old flag with three links, the emblem of Oddfellowship, and the letters L. O. O. F., hung drooping from the flagstaff on the tower yesterday, but the clock was still and more inert. Many leading citizens have "ridden the goat" around the hall in the upper story, but few who took part in the opening ceremonies of the hall are now living, and there are larger clocks peal-ing out the flight of the hours from high-er towers which look down on the old Temple, which is no longer in the busi-ness center, as it was when built. At this time Third street was a back street, and all west of it in the suburbs or out in the wild woods. The old clock will probably be overhauled and resume Its ticking and marking the flight of time, but it cannot keep this up much longer, for brass and iron wear out in time, as well as muscles and nerves.

TROUT AND BASE PIEHING GOOD .- A few ardent fishermen concluded to try their luck at bass and trout fishing Sunday and let the duck shooting go until the weather was more favorable. One of a party who went up to Estacada and fished in the Clackamas caught 11 fine salmon trout, all of good size. He says the salmon trout are beginning to come in and will soon afford fine sport. Parties who went up various streams into the foothills had not returned yesterday, and what luck they had could not be ascertained. Several par-ties who fished for hass out on Columbia Slough met with medium sport, and one who fished from the breakwaters in Willamette Slough caught a fine string, all of good size. One man who had been planning to make a big killing of base Sunday met with a mishap which marred his sport. He had furnished his boy with a net attached to a hoop, and the lad had a net attached to a goop, and the led had caught a nice lot of minnows off a wharf and had them alive in a washtub, but forgetting to give them a change of water they all died Saturday. The same day he lost his net by allowing the line to slip through his hands, and on trying to recover it got into the river up to his ears and came near being drowned. He nopes to have better luck next time and to go out with his father and catch a big

PORTLAND MAN IN PANAMA BANK-Copies of the Star and Herald (Republic of Panama) of August 19, and La Estrella, of the same place and date (published in Spanish) contain long notices and adversements of the opening in Panama on that day of a branch of the "International Banking Corporation" under the management of Major Phillip G. Eastwick, Jr. This banking corporation, with head office at No. 1 Wall street, New York, has branches in all parts of the world, and a capital and surplus authorized of $10,000,000, nearly $8,000,000 of which is paid in. On the board of directors of the conleading financiers of this country. The Star and Herald says: "The establish-ment of this powerful institution on the isthmus will certainly assist in the development of the republic, and we wish it every success." Mr. Eastwick, the manager, is well known here, having for some time been employed in the Commercia National Bank of this city. His father, Major P. G. Eastwick, Sr., civil engi-neer, was also a resident of this city for years, connected with the corps of United States engineers string of bass.

LOCAL FAIR COMMITTEES ORGANIZE.-At the meeting of Evening Star Grange Saturday all the committees appointed to make arrangements for the local fair, which will be held in October, met and organized by election of chairmen. These chairmen, with J. J. Johnson, master of the Grange, constitute the executive comheld next Friday night, at which time all the subcommittees will meet and report on what has been done in the way of preparation in the several departments of the proposed fair. It is proposed to broaden the lines of this fair and open it to all exhibitors whether members of the Grange or not. A more general dis-play is expected under this plan.

Low-Rate Excursions to the East have been arranged for by the Northern Pa-cific. Three through trains will be op-erated daily and excursion tickets will be mored on the crack train of the Northmonored on the crack train of the North-west, known as the electric-lighted "North-Coast Limited," the same as on either of the other trains. Drop in at the office, 255 Morrison street, corner of Third, and the boys will be glad to give you all the desired information and assist in planning your trip to the big Fair and on a visit to your old childhood's home. Pullman standard and tourist sleepers will be op-erated through to St. Louis for the bene-fit of those wishing to go directly through. Tickets are good for stop-overs in both directions and good for 50 days from date

HOWARD RUSSELL IN BOSTON,-Word has een received here that Howard Russell the popular young actor who played ju-veniles with the Baker Company last season, has been engaged to play like parts in the Castle Square Stock Company of Boston, one of the foremost organizations in the East. He and Mrs. Russell are now in Boston, and are said to be enamored of the Hub. Mrs. Russell will be remembered here as Miss Minnie Lighter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lighter, of this city, and the many friends of both herself and Mr. Russell will be pleased to hear of his success in securing a valuable engagement in the critical Massachusetts city.

MISLEADING EXPOSITION SIGNS.-A lady who patronizes the Washington-street car lines regularly reports that many strangers visiting the city travel on that line, and when they see the old Exposi-tion building are misled by the signs on various parts of it, and say: "Oh, here is the Fair building," imagining that it is intended for the 19% Fair. She suggests that it would be a good idea to have the numerous and misleading sterage. numerous and misleading signs on the building removed. It certainly could do no harm to remove them, for they have outlived their usefulness, and now may do some harm by creating wrong impressions. SPECIAL excursion tickets to the World's Fair at St. Louis and other Eastern points are announced by the Northern Pacific for use going in this month, and all tickets are good for transportation on any of their regular through trains to the East, their regular through trains to the East, including the electric-lighted "North Coast Limited." All trains carry both standard and Pullman tourist sleepers, dining cars, etc. Call or write A. D. Charlton, Assistant General Passenger Agent, 255 Morrison street, Portland, Or., for full particulars, sleeping-car reservations, etc. No TRACE OF MISSING BOY.—No trace has been found of Jesse Johnson, the 12-year-old son of R. Johnson, residing at 68 Seventh street, who disappeared a week ago last Saturday night at the corner of Sixth and Washington streets. The father now tells further particulars in the case, and has admitted that he had trouble with his son because the boy persisted in hanging around the Irvington racetrack. He now thinks that the boy ran away because of a scolding. C. H. MACK, DENTIST .- Filling, crown ing, bridging, extracting painlessly, if desired. Assist other dentists on sets of teeth difficult of adjustment. PRODUCE FOR ST. LOUIS EXHIBIT .- A. F Miller has just returned from Grand Ronde Valley, where he was collecting produce for the car which will be sent off for St. Louis next Saturday. He will leave this morning for Yaquina, where he will get a lot of fine vegetables for this shipment. Apples will be secured from Columbia Slough. J. C. Hare, of Hills-boro, has furnished a lot of fine onlons and sunflowers. In many respects this carload will be the most important yet dispatched, and will contain a great variety of articles. From Portland will go a variety of flour, including breakfast foods and milistuffs manufactured here, From Echo sugar-cane 12 feet high and broomcorn 18 feet high were secured. From here also were obtained stalks of the Kaffir corn and clover honey. Mr. Miller obtained from near Mount Hood a large quantity of moss from the oak and pine trees for ornamental purposes, and Yesterday he secured Autumn leaves, in-cluding the dogwood berries, to go with this carload for decorative purpos AN INSULT REVENGED .-- A young woman pretty and well dressed, with red hair, was seated in a Washington-street car vesterday morning, and she toyed with a fuffy Summer parasol. In the seat behind her were two young men, one of whom remarked in a loud voice, evident-ly for the young woman's benefit: "Jack, do you think that red hair in front of us is real?" Some passengers snickered, but the girl with red hair did not. Turning to the young man who had asked the in-sulting question, she said in a voice trembling with wrath: "My hair is real. How dare you? Take that, and that." And she twice smashed him in the face with her parasol. The young man arose and rather hurriedly made his way to the door. His face was bruised under his left eyelid, and when asked for his name told the interviewer to chase himself to a hotter climate than Portland possesses at the present time.

SOUTHERN OREGON NEXT. Meeting of Development League to Be Held at Grant's Pass.

After arousing interest in the Oregon State Development League in Eastern Oregon, the southern portion of the state will be next invaded. The Southern Oregon session will be held at Grant's Pass

F. J. Blakeley, of Roseburg, vice-president of the league, is arranging the advertising of the meeting. Invitations to the towns of the district to send delegates to the meeting will be malled within a few days. E. L. Smith, president of the league, and nearly all the other officers will go to Grant's Pass. They believe that now the ice has been broken and the first meeting outside Portland successfully held, the attendance at the next session will be larger and more enthusiastic than ever. Tom Richardson, secretary of the league, is co-operating with the Southern Oregon officers to arouse special interest in the session in the towns and cities of that part of the state.

PRAISES CITY'S HOSPITALITY President of Mining Congress Writes Appreciative Letter.

J. H. Richards, president of the Amercan Mining Congress, has written to the Commercial Club thanking that body for the city for the treatment accorded the lelegates to the recent session of the con cress. Apparently President Richards does not feel that Portland was lacking in showing courtesy to the mining men here last month. A portion of the letter received yesterday is as follows: "Owing to lack of opportunity while in Portland, because of press of work, I take this occasion to thank you and the people r city, in the name of the Amer ican Minjing Congress, for your effective co-operation in making the session of the congress recently held there a pronounced success. I also desire to particularly thank you and the people of Portland for the many courtesies extended to the delegates and their friends during their stay, and in my own behalf to express my grateful appreciation of the numerous kindly courtesies shown Mrs. Richards and myself while with you."
