Charge Against Seattle Artist.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 7.—"Jack" Chesterfield, a well-known artist, is under arrest charged with criminally assaulting Miss Ottilia Zebelle, 17 years old. The girl is now dangerously ill at her home. Mrs. Zebelle was in Chesterfield's studio. She alleges that the artist locked the door and then, at the point of a revolver, forced her to submit. Afterward she claims he kept her imprisoned until 11 o'clock at night. She went home and fell in a faint. Chesterfield is held without bonds. When Miss Zebelle sufficiently recovers she will swear to a complaint against Chesterfield.

DAILY METEOROLOGICAL REPORT.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Unusually high temperatures prevailed in Northern California during the afternoon. At San Francisco the maximum was 100 deg., which has been equaled before, but never exceeded at that station since the beginning of the record kept by the Weather Bureau. A small shower occurred at Cape Platter, but elsewhere no rain has fallen in the North Pacific States. The weather, however, is becoming quite unsettled, and cloudiness has increased generally in Western Oregon. The indications are for increasing cloudiness in this district Thursday, with showers along the coast.

WEATHER FORECASTS.

Forecast made at Portland at 5 P. M. for 24 hours ending at midnight September 8: Portland and vicinity—Increasing cloudiness and occasionally threatening. North to east winds. Western Oregon and Western Washington—Increasing cloudiness, with showers near the coast. Eastern Oregon and Eastern Washington and Idaho—Increasing cloudiness.

EDWARD A. BEALS, District Forecaster.
