HONOR LEWIS AND CLARK

THE ST. LOUIS EXPOSITION-SETS ASIDE A SPECIAL DAY.

President Francis and W. D. Fenton Will Deliver the Addresses at the Observance on September 23.

Lewis and Clark day at the St. Louis Exposition is to be made one of the memorable occasions of the St. Louis Fair. September 23 is the date and arrange ments are now being made for the fullest possible observance of the important Invitations are being sent out from Lewis and Clark beadquarters to the Governors of every state in the Union to be present at the exercises and entertain ment which it has been decided to give In the Oregon building. Invitations will also be sent out to the Fair Commissioners of the various states.

President Francis, of the St. Louis Exposition, will make the address of the day and there will be a number of other eddresses. Director W. D. Fenton will go from Portland for the purpose of de-livering the Lewis and Clark address. Following the set programme, refresh-ments will be served in the Oregon building to all the invited guests and others who attend.

The date will be extensively advertised as Lewis and Clark day, and thus many of those attending the Louisiana Purchase Exposition will learn more of the coming World's Columbia County's exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Exposition is now under consideration by the County Court and county officials at St. Helens, who will announce within a few days the scope and nature of the exhibit Columbia County intends to make. Scott, cirged the of-ficials with whom he conferred to make the largest and best exhibit possible, since much will be expected of the coun-ty because of its richness in resources and its close proximity to Multnomah

The Lewis and Clark State Commission will hold its regular monthly meeting this afternoon in the Commission's room in the Stearns building. The important matter of erecting more buildings will be taken up for discussion. There are several structures which have not yet been provided for, including a Livestock buildings and a Festival Hall. The big structure originally intended as a Fes-tival building has since been changed in design to meet the requirements of a building for foreign exhibits. The needs of such a building were greater than that of an entertainment building, and since there were not available funds for an-other building like the original Festival Hall, the substitution was made, as a member of the Board of Directors yesterday afternoon because of the de-mands of business affairs upon his time. L. A. Lewis was named as Mr. O'Shea's
