MOUNT HOOD GUIDE LEAVES FOR MOUN-TAIN.-O. C. Yokum, the well-known Mount Hood guide, formerly a photographer in business here, but who has spent the last dozen or more years on his claim at Government Camp at the base of Mount Hood, has been in the city for the past two weeks, and left for home yesterday morning. The object of his visit here was to put his East Side residence in order his wife's stay during the Winter. He was so busy attending to this work that he was seen by but few of his old friends here, intending to look them up when he had time, but he was called away rather suddenly to look after a party going up to Government Camp on a deer-hunting expedition. He also received a telegram informing him that the which he had arranged to send Winter's supplies would leave Troutdale this morning, and might be the last to cross the mountains this season, so he did some lively hustling gathering supplies, and got away yesterday morn-ing, to the great disappointment of many who were anxious to see him. PORTLAND BOY ON A CRUISE.-The scho ship Pennsylvania, fitted up by private enterprise to accommodate classes of young men to be trained and thoroughly prepared for entering any college or West Point or the Naval School at Annapolis, sailed from Providence, R. I., on September 15 under command of Lieutenant-Com mander C. H. Howlands, who was relieved from duty with the Philippine squadron to take this position. She is to cruise along the coast of Europe, visiting all the principal seaports, and will return to America in June next, it being arranged that the pupils on board shall spend the Christmas holidays in Rome. Among the pupils on board is Jacob G. Kamm, son of Charles G. Kamm, of this city, a husky youth of about 17 years, who has completed a course in the schools of this city. Religious terms of the city. It has not yet been decided whether on his return he will enter the naval or mili-tary school or some college, but he will probably have made a choice by June

WAR MAP AND ATLAS.-Japanese war map in colors, included in map of the world, showing each of the great nations and their possessions in separate colors; submarine cables, including the line re-cently opened across the Indian Ocean, from Africa to Australia, and the new American and British lines across the Pacific; the international date line, and the distances between great ports. Com-mercial maps of each of the grand di-visions, with raliroads and principal cities emphasized. Map of the Philippins Islands, showing over 4000 miles of cable and telegraph lines recently constructed by the United States Government. Maps of Nicaragua and Panama Canals, and the islands about to be acquired from Denmark. Index with population according to latest official enumeration, embracing United States census of 190v; Germany, 1900; Great Britain, 1901; India, 1901, etc. Sent postpaid to any address for 12 cents in stamps. GENERAL ELECTRIC COMPANT'S ELECTION -The stockholders of the Portland General Electric Company held their annual meeting yesterday afternoon and unani-mously re-elected the old board, consist-ing of H. W. Goode, F. V. Holman, W. M. Ladd, S. G. Reed, S. Farrell, W. K. Smith, F. G. Sykes, Frederic B. Pratt, C. H. Cau-nield, J. C. Alnsworth and A. C. Bedford. The officers of the board were not elected at the meeting of yesterday, but it is un-derstood that they will be the same as during the past year. In that case H. W. Goode will be president; Frederic B. Pratt, first vice-president; F. V. Holman, second vice-president; C. H. Caufield, secretary, and S. G. Reed, treasurer. WILL GO BACK TO CHINA.—Eng Yow, a Cantonese Chinaman who has been a resi-dent of Portland and vicinity for 30 years, engaged in the vegetable gardening busi-ness, is about to return home. He has a family of two boys and two girls, all native-born Americans, the oldest girl being married. The others will accompany him. The oldest boy, Eng Tong Back, will return here, and the father was in the city yesterday securing the necessary docu-ments to enable him to do so. Eng Yow and the others intend to remain in China. After 30 years' residence here he is quite accustomed to the country, and speaks good English, but, after all, there is no place like home.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS. -- The United States Civil Service Commission announces an examination on October 12 in this city to secure eligibles from which make certification to fill a vacancy in the position of assistant preparator (male) in the Division of Vertebrate Paleontology, National Museum, at $480 per annum, and other similar vacancies as they may occur in the National Museum. Persons wishing to compete should apply to Z. A. Leigh, Postoffice, city, WATER-TOWER AT ARLETA-Work has been started on a 50,000-gallon water-tower near Arleta on the Mount Scott branch of the Oregon Water Power & Railway Company. Concrete foundation is being laid to sustain a weight of 250 tons. Timbers 12x12 and 85 feet long are being delivered to support the big tank. The tower will be connected with the water plant already established to store water and provide better pressure on the mains.

POSTMASTERS TO MEET.—A meeting of he fourth-class Postmasters of Marion and Multnomah Counties has been called by N. E. Chambiess, president of the Multnomah League. The members will assemble at the St. Charles Hotel on Sat-urday, September 24, at 2 P. M., for the purpose of completing a State Postmas-

NEW JEWISH CONGREGATION.-The mem bers that left the Congregation Nova Ledek have organized under the name of the Portland Hebrew Sick Benefit Associa-tion, holding services for the holidays at the Drew Hall, Second and Morrise streets. For the first day of New Year's they had over 200 people.

NEW THEATRICAL PUBLICATION.-The first annual number of "The Cast, Port-land's Official Theatrical Guide," has been issued, and reflects unusual credit upon the editorial and business staff of that publi-cation. The cover, designed by R. B. Hallock, manager of the art department, is an artistic piece of coloring and de-sign, and contains an attached photograph of Countess Hatzfeidt, who will appear at the Marquam this week. Beautiful half-tones of Blanch Walsh, Nat Goodwin, Mary Mannering, Maud Adams, Richard Mansfield, Amelia Bingham and others are produced, and portraits of Portland's theatrical managers are also entained in this number. The cast for the week's theatrical attractions, numer-ous catchy advertisements and some good, crisp reading-matter finish-the make-up of this sightly publication, which is en-tirely a Portland production. CASE FOR JAIL OR ASYLUM.-ISRAC Veltner's business methods led to his arrest yesterday afternoon and to the suspicion that he is suffering from mental derange Veltner came from Kelso, Wash. where he is in business, to buy some stoves. After making the purchases at Loewenstein & Goin's place at Second and Taylor streets, he tendered a check for $300, drawn on the First National Bank. The check was in payment of an outstand-ing account which the first held against im. When it was presented at the bank it was found to be worthless, and the case was then reported to the police. Deteclives Day and Kerrigan arrested the man and locked him up. His peculiar action His peculiar actions tally, and an alienist will probably be consulted before the case comes to trial. WEATHER STATION AT MARSHPIELD,-Marshfield is soon to have a real, live weather man, whose chief duty will be to give warning to the residents of that district and to the world at large that storms are on their way from over the sea and that rain either will fail or will cease to fall, as the popular demands would indicate. By the recommendations of District Forecaster Edward A. Beals the voluntary station at Langlois, Curry County, will be discontinued in a shor-time and the instruments will be moved to Marshfield, where they will be installed it was for this reason that the change WILL REFUND POLL TAX .- The Milwaykie Council voted Monday evening to re-fund all poll tax that Marshal John Kelso had collected inside the corporate limits under order of the Council. This action was taken to comply with the opinion of he Clackamas County District Attorney o the effect that Clackamas County may collect the legal poil tax of $3 inside the corporate limits of Milwaukie. Mayor Schindler holds that under the Milwaukie charter the Council may collect $2 poll tax in addition to the state levy of $3, but that this would prove a hardship, and hence will not be done. A strong ef-fort will be made to get the county to pend some of the money collected inside Milwaukle on the roads instead of spend-onder the care of F. D. Dow, in time to be ready for the Winter storms. Conlitions at Marshfield are better for the cation of the station than Langlois, and

A Mons beautiful display of Autumn aillinery is rarely seen than that shown at the Fall opening of Miss A. S. Jorgen-sen's Millinery Parlors, 400 Washington street, corner Tenth, which were thronged esterday with enthusiastic purchasers The exquisite blending of Autumn shades rich greens, mahoganies, etc., together with the shaded silk plumes and rare flow ers, go forth with the milliner's art to make this one of the most elaborate dis-plays heretofore shown by this, Portland's ost exclusive establishment. The public cordially invited to inspect this elegant and complete stock of imported designs. EMBALMERS PROVE THEIR SKILL-Ter pplicants for embalmers' licenses took the written examinations yesterday morning in the office of the State Board of Health, and in the afternoon gave a practical demonstration in the undertaking parlors of Coroner Finley. Their names are: Fred Fortmiller, of Albany; R. L. Holman, of Oregon City; J. A. Simmons, of North Yamhill; A. B. Hemstick, of Portland; Walter F. Holman, of Port-land; W. E. McDuff, of Juneau, Alaska; S. E. Cook, of Kalama, Wash.; C. J. Crandall, of The Dalles, and William F. Walker, of Springfield

WILL OCCUPY FOUR ROOMS.—Starting Monday with three rooms and 190 pupils in the Lents School, the Directors have found it necessary to furnish the fourth room and employ another teacher. Miss Claude Anderson has been engaged for this extra room, and Miss Ethel Evarts has been employed to fill the place made vacant by the resignation of Miss Toof. Professor Swope is principal. Even the four rooms will be taxed to accommodate the pupils. The 200 mark will soon be passed. Lents district lost about 25 pupils when the new district of Arleta

FUNERAL OF MRS. ELLEN LUCILE TUR mor.-The funeral of Mrs. Ellen Lucile GEOF.—The funeral of Mrs. Ellen Lucile Turgeon, wife of Frank Turgeon, was held yesterday afternoon from the Burkhard building, and the St. Francis Church, East Oak and Eleventh streets. Rev. East Oak and Eleventh streets. Rev. Father J. H. Black said the requiem mass. Mrs. Turgeon was born in England in 1862 and was noted for unobtrusive good works. The funeral was held under the auspices of the Knights and Ladies of Honor, of which she was a member.

FIRM IS DESCLVED.—The store so long occupied by Honeyman & McBride at the corner of Third and Taylor streets is be-ing vacated. The recent death of Mr. Honeyman has brought about a dissoluand business. The son of Mr. Honeyman takes over the cordage and fisherman's supplies part and Mr. McBride the clothing business, and each is moving into new and separate quarters. ASKS THESE GRADES TO REPORT .- Principal S. U. Downs asks the following grades to report at the Clinton Kelly School this afternoon at 1 o'clock: First B, Second A, Fourth A, Fourth B and Fifth A. The other puipls come in the forenoon and not in the afternoon. This arrangement is necessitated by the un-finished condition of the schoolhouse.

MISS HAZEL ELLIOTT'S FUNERAL-The funeral of Miss Hazel Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Elliott, was held yes-terday afternoon from the home of her parents at Lents. Interment was in Mult-nomah Cemetery. She died Monday in St. Vincent's Hospital from the effects of an operation

Columbia Theater. "Under Two Fings" at the Columbia Theater is giving the superb Columbia Stock Company a splendidly satisfactory chance to show its mettle. The strong romantic play is vastly interesting and it drawing large crowds to the theater, filling the playhouse at every performance. Variety in emotion is what the public gets at the Columbia. First they had comedy in "Lettarblatr," then a glimpse of supreme high life in "Lord and Lady Law". New in "Under Two Flaze" they Algy." Now in "Under Two Flags" they give the audiences thrills and fine romance. Miss Counties' Cigarette has caught the town. She is a very versatile actress, and this is a famous part, which fits her like a glove. The capricious and true-hearted heroine was never more vividly depicted than by Miss Counties.

The hero of the play is finely sustained by that sterling actor, Mr. Baume, than whom no better leading man ever appeared in Portland. The smoothness of the heavy production does honor to the careful pregarations of Stage Director Bernard. Miss Brandt as the Silver Pheasant is striking and distinguished. This clever actress is making her mark

After the enthralling story of Cigarette and Bertle, the scenic element is next in rank in this play. Frank King, the scen artist, has done some beautiful work, and the effects are imposing. People won-dered how the heavy piece could be handied so swiftly without any long waits. If they but remember that "Butch" Miller "Tony" La Brasche are among the powers behind the scenes the smoothness of the production will be explained.

Before the week is over there will not be a person in Portland who has not seen desert sand storm and the wild ride on horseback of Cigarette across the desert and up the mountain to save the life of the man she loves.

"Fedora" a Winner. Theater-goers of this city are beginning realize that Melbourne MacDowell, one of America's famous actors, is playing at the Baker Theater at popular prices. Heretofore when Mr. MacDowell visited Portland he always demanded $1.50 a seat. and every one knows that he crowded the Marquam Grand, where he previously played. This season Manager Baker se-cured Mr. MacDowell for an engagement of five weeks. He is now in the fourth week and meeting with great success This week he is playing his famous char acter of Loris Ipanoff in "Fedora," which first brought him prominently before Fanny Davenport, who, recognizing his great ability, secured him for her leading man, and he continued playing the great Sardou leads in her company until her death The title part, Fedora, is excellently played by Miss Ethel Fuller, she having played the same character with Mr. Mac Dowell during his engagement in Francisco, and every one attests that has seen the performance this week that she is a great actress. "Fedora" will run all this week with a matinee Saturday, and Mr. MacDowell will close his engagement at the Baker Theater next week in a grea spectacular production of Sardou's famous play, "The Empress Theodora."

Retires From the Stage.

The demands made upon Miss Rose Evtinge by the constantly-increasing number of her pupils has made it neces sary for her to sever her connection with the Columbia Theater Stock Company, She will devote her entire time to teaching elecutionary and dramatic art.

AT THE VAUDEVILLE HOUSES

Age of Miracles Not Past. Never in the world was there such wonder-making programme as the Star Theater is presenting this week. How it is possible to produce such a bill for 10 cents is the puzzle of modern theater-dom. Four great feature acts on one programme, the Orpheum in San Fran-cisco outdone in Portland, every turn on the bill radiant with good points, sparkling with novelty, such is the roster of the Star Theater this week. See the three Lorettos and the three Girdellars. all of them miracle-working acrobate and topsy-turvy tumblers, the two salaried teams in the West. Irene Franklin, the past mistress of the cornet, hear her play and see her spien-did dresses. Laugh with O'Nell and Russell, the iridescent jesters. Go to the Star and be glad. Leave the bride at the altar, the cash uncounted and the safe open, but remember to see this

Fun at the Lyric.

The keynote of the show at the Lyric this week is mirth and music, a winning combination which has never been known to fail. Romaine and Fitch are delightfully diverting in their sketch, "Roxie's Christmas Present Sevor and Westbrook danced them-selves into instant favor; Beliveau and Roberts are clever comedians; Ray is singing better than ever, and his song, "The Day Is Done," is a gem, while the vitascope's pictures of the autorace up Mount Washington are thrilling.

The Arcade's Novelties.

Novelty acts, clever top-boot dancers merry comedians, wonderful singers, trick-bone players, clever jugglers and the latest moving pictures make the Ar-cade Theater the cheeriest of entertainment places. The Arcade spares no exthis pioneer playhouse, whose popularity
