One Doesn't Need to Be the owner of A Brown Stone Front in order to Open a Credit Account at this store

The basis for acceptance as a member of our credit club is not wealth, but a good name—for industry, probity and regard for obligations. The wage-earner need not go to the installment house, neither need he borrow from the loan shark, at exorbitant rates of interest, in order to obtain the necessities or even luxuries of life. Come to this store—our city's foremost store—and open an account. We shall esteem it a favor to ourselves—a help to us both, in facilitating trading—place your name on our credit list. Come in and talk it over with our credit man—third floor.

Saturday Shopping a Mighty Smart Cure for the Autumn Shivers

October opens her Gala-Glee Court here today! This month will mark the Grand Entree of New Departments into the New Sixth Street Annex and the Development of this—always Portland's Foremost Store—into what must be known and spoken of as PORTLAND'S LARGEST CONGRESS STORE! A word here about store service:

We are working very hard, not so much to increase sales—as they grow naturally in a store like this—but to improve our store service. In order to meet local conditions in a go-ahead metropolitan city like Portland, to cope with the great matter of delivery over a territory so large; to make more comfortable the already comfortable service of this "Old Homestead" store; to make sure that this is decidedly the BEST store in all the Northwest as it is to be the largest—brings us face to face with propositions that must be worked out along new and best-known lines. The "Congress Store," and its satellite, the "Department Store," in America, grew from the originally conceived Bon Marche of Paris. But that store could no more be brought bodily to America than one could translate the French shrug of the shoulder. America saw a great business done on new lines of liberality and reaching new measures in volume; and America, with that for a textbook, graduated storekeepers into merchants, and proceeded to give to Americans the largest stores in the world—and Portland is represented among them by the Olds, Wortman & King organization. We aim now to make doubly sure that this store's service shall be best. We're hunting faults—that they exist is sure—join us in the hunt, and when you raise the quarry complain direct to the firm. We're after those weak spots, curing blunders as well as blunders. We've decided that best store service is assured by following the modern and humane course of early closing and shorter hours for helpers—so WE CLOSE OUR DOORS AT 6 P. M. EVERY SHOPPING DAY—SATURDAY INCLUDED.

PORTLAND'S QUALITY SHOP

And make the most of daylight while it lasts. Since the time when Joshua commanded the sun to stand still in the heavens, that the hosts of Israel might continue the slaughter of their enemies, there is no recorded evidence of an attempt to repeat the great historical miracle. It is undoubtedly true, however, that some local storekeepers have devoutly wished they might emulate the act of Joshua, that the day might be lengthened to further all their greedy coffers and such more sweet from the bodies of their tellers. This store is satisfied with the day—content to be "thru" by daylight—and close when the day is done—Saturday and all days—at 6 P. M.

For the Authoritative in Women's Outer-wear

One Must Come Here to Portland's Foremost and Largest Apparel Shop

Grand Salons of Dress—2d Floor

"Live and Learn"

It isn't strange that particular and dressy women who have looked through the vast assortments of gowns, costumes, suits, wraps and other ready-to-don apparel that fills the great style salons on our 2d floor, should cease to look further, once they've been here. If every woman would look here first, there would be little business left for other stores to do. Fashion reigns supreme here—this is the "Style Store" of all the West. Here the style shows imitatively depict the correct modes and all that is looked upon as truly authoritative. In the minds of Portland's fashionably-dressed women Olds, Wortman & King's is synonymous with style exclusiveness, and our designs inspire utmost confidence for correctness.

The newer conceptions in EVENING WRAPS AND COSTUMES, WALKING SUITS AND CALLING GOWNS, THEATER AND OPERA WRAPS AND COSTUMES, WALKING SKIRTS, WAISTS—in short, everything that goes to make up authoritative completeness.

A WORD ON RAINCOATS—

That garment indispensable to Oregon women. Of these we've said little this season, preferring to await their season, now upon us. A word of 'em today.

Our stocks are full and complete, with new coming every day to replace those going out. We sell more Raincoats than all other local houses combined. Of one house alone we buy more PRIESTLEY CRAVENETTES than are sent to this Coast by all other houses combined—a strong statement, but true. One makes exploited by a neighboring house we do not carry, for the good and sufficient reason that after test we've FOUND THEM NOT TO BE RAINPROOF—hardly a satisfactory garment for this house to carry for its trade. In all the newest models, from leading manufacturers, in styles and materials as handsome and exclusive as are its other wraps which appeal so strongly to dressy women, this house stands in a class by itself, head and shoulders over competing stores that ape its styles in Raincoats as subversively as they shadow it in all else. A wide range of price affords a big field for choosing—$10.00 to $50.00, with plenty of stop-off prices in between.

Children's Day in the Big Autumn Millinery Salons

Second Floor.

We always have the children in mind, and, Saturday being their day, we accord them special liberties in the way of choosing pretty headwear at prices they might make themselves. We've followed the usual custom for today, and shall hold a special sale in the great millinery salons of headwear for the young folks. Among other attractions arranged for the special benefit of the juveniles we offer a lot of White Sailor Hats, with handsome colored bands, suited for wear of children of from 3 to 8 years of age; regular $1.50 values. Special at $0.75

One lot of red felt Sailors, with velvet bands; usual 50c value. Special at $0.25

More of those "Roosevelt," "Parker" and "Lewis and Clark" Expo. Caps; also Tam O'Shanter; values up to 75c. 25c Special today for
